It means something—

Perhaps the best type of machine ever built for moistening tobacco. Recently perfected from a model built in our factory and now used in the manufacture of Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Chesterfield

the cigarette that's Milder • the cigarette that Tastes Better

This picture shows the machines used to remove the stems from Chesterfield tobaccos.

THIS most modern way of moistening tobacco for stemming—first used in the manufacture of Chesterfields—opens up the pores and puts the tobacco in condition to remove the stems.

The tobacco is put into the wire baskets stems down and enters the long steel ovens where the steam comes up from below, softening the stems without wetting the rest of the leaf.

The stems are removed by stemming machines of the latest type.

Everything that modern science knows about, or money can buy, that can make a milder cigarette, a cigarette that tastes better, is used in making Chesterfield.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH
Plaid-Printed Linen Accents the Plain

Linen—that perfect resort fabric—is showing up in all sorts of new guises. It uses a real gingham-plaid to advantage, and finds it a very smart highlight for a resort frock of plain linen. An arrow of it outlines a buttoned point at the new square neckline, and another bit ties a bow for the fabric belt. Pleats, stitched to just below the knees, give freedom to the simple fitted skirt. Size 16 requires 3 3/4 yards 36-inch linen. 1/4 yard 36-inch contrast. Width 2 1/4 yards.

Pattern No. 5498 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

NEW AIR POWER MEET POSSIBLE

European Politics At Critical Stage; Mussolini In Conference

European politics entered a new phase today.

France prepared a note rejecting a disarming last attempt by Great Britain to reach a disarmament agreement on the present basis.

Fearing both a naval race and the collapse of land disarmament negotiations, Britain was reported reliably to be considering inviting European powers to and air power conference, hoping to obtain some measure of agreement by limiting the scope of its hopes.

Premier Benito Mussolini started a new deal of practical diplomacy of which an air conference would be a part, by inviting to Rome the Chancellor of Austria and the premier of Hungary to discuss the future of central Europe without the cumbersome formality of a full dress conference of powers.

Before he left Vienna for Rome, Austrian chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss made his most significant appointment in many months when he named Prince Schenburg-Hartenstein, fascist-Monarchist leader, to be minister of defense.

The votes necessary to obtain ratification. The information was taken to President Roosevelt by Majority Leader Joseph T. Robinson. Leaders believed that only some master stroke from the White House could bring a favorable treaty vote.

Robinson said the outcome of the treaty fight still was uncertain. He said the result could not be told until the vote was taken. But others close to the leaders reported they virtually had conceded defeat and had left any remaining fighting to be done by the President.

Yesterday's senate session was devoted almost exclusively to speeches on the St. Lawrence treaty and it was expected that little other business would be transacted before the matter is disposed of.
