PROGRAM PLANNED

CIVIC SECTION PARTY

An interesting program has been arranged for the Sample to be sponsored by the Section of the Woman's in the Library Hall, Thursday night, to which the public is invited. Tickets for the affair are being procured from any member of the Civic Section. The program consists of a series of short plays, the proceeds of which will be distributed to those at the end of the program. The program will be presented during the evening. The characters will be as follows:

Harold Murphy, the Sweeney, Roy Mumma, the Dutchman, Oscar Lankenau, Heinrich's son, Mickey Lee, Salesman, Bob Zwick, Highgate, the town snob, Mrs. G. T. Burk, Green, Mrs. Delton Passwater.

Two things I wanted-and it was all so simple when I found out my trouble. My physician said I had no organic disease, but I did have what is so commonly called low percentage of hemo-glo-bin in the blood. The reasonableness of one of the S.S.S. advised me to think that S.S.S. Tonic was just what I needed for my let-down feeling and simply I wanted more strength and a clear skin. It didn't take S.S.S. very long to get my blood back up to normal—and as my strength and energy returned my skin cleared up. If your condition suggests a tonic of this kind, S.S.S. It is not just a so-called tonic but a tonic specially designed to stimulate gastric secretions, and also having the mineral elements so very, very necessary in rebuilding the oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin of the blood. S.S.S. value has been proven by generations of use, as well as by modern scientific appraisal. Sold by all drug stores—in two sizes—the larger is more economical.

BEHIND the SCENES in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL
Copyright, 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.

Each day, Hollywood takes on more the appearance of an armed camp.
Last week saw
Bing and Everett Crosby take out pistol permits, and now
Ann Harding
has given up her hobby of driving her own car so that a straight-
shooting chauffeur can be on hand to guard against possible kidnap or hold-up attempts.
The blonde R-K-O star is carrying precaution to an even greater extent than other film folk. In addition to a body-guard for her little girl, and to the chauffeur, she has bought a watch-dog and is having it trained to refuse food except from the hand of one member of the household. This to foil the common ruse of poisoning watch-dogs by tossing them pieces of lethal meat.
Ann's new personal guard, James Logan, is a man few crooks would care to cross. Before coming to Hollywood, he was a member of Pennsylvania's famous Black Hussars.

Toluca Lake, home of Dick Arlen, Bing Crosby and other film stars, is the scene of a new mystery novel called "The Hollywood Murder." This shocker, which also mentions the Brown Derby, Sardinia and several studios has just been completed by Chapman Holden, University of Chicago graduate, in collaboration with your old friend, Rex Lease. Rex has been doing a lot of writing recently. In addition to the novel, he has several screen stories under consideration in Hollywood.
And, for the benefit of you romance fans, he is still very much interested in Edna Purviance.

George Folsey, M. G. M. cameraman, was up for this year's academy award and will merit serious consideration next year for his work on "Operator 13." The photography in the new Marion Davies picture is something to rave about—not only the way Folsey brings out the star's natural charm but his handling of the whole picture. More and more, Hollywood is extending recognition to cameramen and Folsey, a veteran with 15 years' experience, rates with the best.

Ever hear of a movie star standing in for her stand-in? Dolores Del Rio figuratively did it the other night when she acted as matron of honor at the marriage of Carmen La Rue to Elmer Elsworth, a member of the Warner Brothers property department. For five years, the La Rue girl has stood in for Dolores in her motion pictures. The Mexican star has made a friend of her and asked to be matron of honor at the wedding.

One of Hollywood's favorite sports, badminton, will be demonstrated for you in a short subject planned for early filming by the Brothers Warner. The studio has engaged "Jess" Willard (not the ex-boxing champ) to show how the game is played and will run in several of its feature comedians for laughs. Even the producer, Henry Blanke, is an expert smacker of the feathered cork.

Every year since the war, Paul

Sloan has arranged for an Easter mass to be said for a little French girl. The story has a tragic inception. One day, when he was over there with the American army, Sloan went to pay a call on a French family. As he neared the house, their little girl ran out to meet him.
Simultaneously, an army dispatch rider whirled around the corner on a motorcycle. Before the driver could avoid her, the child ran in his path. She died from her injuries.

mysterious sa-
