INFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

Now Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" must on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mislabeled as "Bran." It is not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that is entirely bran, or all bran with wheat, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled ALL-BRAN. Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt, a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects many types of common constipation easily and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The program will be given by the Sunday schools in the township. 6 o'clock—Epworth League devotional meeting. Virgil Rinehart is the program leader.

7:30 o'clock—The Monroe township Sunday School convention will be held in the Mennonite church in Berne. Because of this fact there will be no evening service in the Monroe M. E. church.

Wednesday, April 18
 The ladies of the church serve lunch at noon in the hall above the Model Hatchery.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frankie Christy. Mrs. Zella Egly is the program leader for the day.

Thursday, April 19
 The Junior choir will rehearse in the church at 6 o'clock. Prayer meeting at the church at 7 o'clock.

Saturday, April 21
 The Junior Epworth League will meet at the parsonage at 2 o'clock.

ALL REFUGEES ARE NOW SAVED

Last Six Men Of Arctic Expedition Rescued By Aviators

Moscow, Apr. 13.—(U.P.)—The last six men of the Cheliuskin Arctic expedition, stranded on ice for 58 days, have been rescued by airplane, it was announced officially today.

The news, which roused national pride, meant that aviators who had braved without glory for years the rigors of the Siberian wilds on routine jobs had evacuated 107 men, women and children left adrift at sea when the icebreaker Cheliuskin was crushed in the ice February 13.

The aviators saved not only all the refugees but, after they had brought off the last six today, went back and got the sledge dogs who had been taken off the Cheliuskin with its human complement.

Some of the men were lashed to the wings of a little biplane in the last drive to save the refugees from grinding, splintering ice that, under pressure at the beginning of the break-up season, had smashed their little wooden barracks, their kitchen and the airplane landing field they smoothed off on the ice far out at sea.

The refugees comprised the crew of the government ice breaker Cheliuskin and members of the Wrangel Island meteorological expedition, with wives and children. The Cheliuskin took aboard the mission members who had been at barren Wrangel Island for three years. Then the ship was crushed in the ice two months ago today.

Women and children first, then the ill and weak men, were evacuated. Last Saturday the situation became urgent, with the ice breaking up, and the aviators Molokov, Slepnev, Vodopenov and Kammin in a series of heroic flights in bad weather brought off the remainder by stages.

From the coast they were sent on by dog sled for treatment and some, in addition to Otto Schmidt, the expedition's leader, were expected to be sent on to American Alaska for treatment. Schmidt has left for Alaska by plane.

Weeds and Roses
 Any soil that will grow a good crop of weeds is good for roses, asserts a specialist at the New York Botanical garden.

ROOSEVELT IS WELCOMED HOME

 on my fish catch," Mr. Roosevelt continued, oblivious of the foud between marchers and non-marchers, "but I couldn't get any as I found you people were going from work to Wirt."

"Newspapermen on the train tried to have me say that I wanted congress out as soon as possible. I would not say that and you may stay as long as you like."

Correction Made In Meeting Place

An error was made in the chick brooding school to be held at 2:30 p. m., April 17. The meeting at that time will be held at the Noah D. Schwartz farm instead of the Noah D. Schrock farm as formerly now bears a tiny orange.

Smallest Orange Tree

Visalia, Cal.—(U.P.)—Visalia's claim to the world's smallest park was supplemented today by a new claim that the world's smallest bearing orange tree also is growing here. Joseph Acursio, local merchant, has a 4-inch tree growing in a flower pot at his home. The tree blossomed recently and now bears a tiny orange.
