Present were Mr. and Mrs. Teple and sons Maurice and John, Mrs. Lavina Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rauch and family Rose Ann, Glenda and Elwyn, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hower of Barberton, Ohio.

SELECT OF COMMON CONSTIPATION IS A SERIOUS MATTER

Prevent This Condition with
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

The first question your doctor asks is whether you are constipated. He knows that this condition may cause headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. It is often the starting point of serious illness.

You can prevent and relieve common constipation so easily. Just eat a delicious cereal once a day. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a rich source of blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that found in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes.

Isn't this "cereal way" safer and far more pleasant than taking patent medicines—so often harmful? Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in chronic cases. If seriously ill, see your doctor—ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all."

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

BAPTIST WOMEN HAVE FINE PROGRAM

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Brice Butler Thursday afternoon for an interesting program meeting. The afternoon affair was in the form of a summer Christmas and each member brought gifts for the Baptist orphanage.

Mrs. Vance Maddox had charge of the program. Alice Brown sang a vocal selection and Mrs. Maddox conducted the devotions. A Christmas prayer was read by Mrs. Bina Buhler and Mrs. C. E. Bell gave Christmas poetry, and Mrs. Will Winnes, Christmas Thought. The songs, Joy to the World and Silent Night were sung. Mrs. Brown gave a reading, Santa Claus, Jr. An interesting report of the Home Department was given by Mrs. Frank Young. Mrs. Herb Butler was a guest at the meeting. Following the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. S. E. Shamp and Mrs. Herb Butler.

MEETING OF PROGRESSIVE WORKERS

The Progressive Workers class of the United Brethren Sunday School met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deltsch Thursday evening.

The regular business session was conducted after which games were enjoyed and refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Arnold of Silver City, New Mexico were guests at the meeting.

CHILDREN ENJOY ANNUAL PICNIC

Approximately thirty children, members of the Mission Band of the Evangelical church and nine mothers of the children attended the picnic held in the Legion Memorial Park on Winchester street, Thursday afternoon.

Games were enjoyed during the afternoon and a picnic supper was served.

ENTERTAIN FOR GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller and children entertained at dinner Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Forest Blair and daughter Ethel of Bluffton and Velma and Glen Johnston of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The Allure of Chiffon

By ELLEN WORTH

THERE is something so alluringly soft and cool about a chiffon frock fluttering in a summer breeze. For that matter, any fluttering, summer sheer—so what should you do but sew yourself a quantity of that very essential feminine quality—allure. It's very easy. You have it in this frock with the fluttering capelet sleeves and rippling skirt. Make it of printed chiffon or one of those lovely floral printed voiles.

Of course, if you are looking far ahead and want to be very practical as well as charming, you can make the dress of crepe, with long sleeves, so that it can be worn in the early autumn as well.

The New Fashion Book will help you plan your wardrobe. Send 10 cents for book.

Pattern No. 5487 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years; 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 bust (Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch material, 3/4 yard 36-inch contrast for jabot. Width about 3 1/2 yards.)

Send 15 cents in coin or stamps. Mail your order to this paper, care Fashion Center, P. O. Box 170, Times Square, New York. Print your name and address clearly and print pattern number, size or bust.

handy and he fired. A woman screamed and crumpled to the floor. It was his semi-invalid wife, who had become cold in the night and had arisen to close the door. She was wounded in the right shoulder.

Phi Delt To Hold Convention Sunday

Lafayette, Ind., July 20—(U.P.)—More than 500 visitors are expected here July 22 for the opening of the 29th annual three-day national convention of Phi Delta Kappa fraternity.

HOLLYWOOD. . . —This comes late, but is too funny to keep. Remember Lillian Harvey's famous ermine-trimmed lamp and curtains that caused so many letters of criticism when the star was first being launched by Fox? They were but a publicity stunt (that's already known), but it will panic you to hear that the so-called ermine tails actually cost only 25 cents apiece and that the Fox property department will cheerfully give you a handful if you happen to know the right person.

And to think of all those letters roundly scolding Lillian for her senseless luxury!

The salary dispute between Shirley Temple and the Fox studio is scheduled to be settled, and with the tiny actress coming out on the top of the argument. One of the wildest scrambles in the history of Hollywood has followed the sensational rise of this child star. Agents and lawyers camp so thickly on her doorstep that they look like a state picnic. So far, Shirley has had only one agent. She is being represented in the present argument by a lawyer.

But the person who actually got her that job at Fox is Jay Gorney, the song writer. He happened to go to the Fairfax theater (a suburban house) one evening when they were previewing a kid comedy called "Pardon My Pups". Shirley was in it and he recognized just the child they wanted for his number, "Baby, Take a Bow". After the show, he met Shirley and her mother in the lobby of the theater. It was he who suggested that the youngster come out for an interview at Fox.

Ruth Chatterton begs me to say that you can't believe what you hear. She is not going to sign at Columbia and she wouldn't think of working for $25,000 a picture. It's true she did give an idea to Edmund Goulding, but it didn't pan out to suit her. And, until she finds the right story, she won't work at any price.

If W. C. Fields can be half the man his grandfather was, the Paramount comedian will be satisfied. In those days, the family name was Dukinfield. Bill's grandpa sailed to America in his own ship, which was wrecked off Glencove, N. J., carrying all the family possessions down with it. Starting anew, Dukinfield soon started America by introducing the

FOLEY. The family name "Foley" is generally of Celtic origin. It is the modern form of the original Irish "O Foghladh" which means "the descendant of Foghladh." "Foghladh" was an old personal name meaning "the plunderer." A certain Maeliora O Foghladh was Archbishop of Cashel in the twelfth century. In a few cases "Foley" is purely of English origin. In such cases it is derived from the Old English "fole-leah" meaning "the foal-lea," and it implies that the persons who were first so called lived on or near a meadow where foals were kept. Finally, in a few cases "Foley" is an Anglicized form of the Celtic "Searrach."

ELOISE. The personal name "Eloise" is derived from the French "Aloise" or "Heloise," which comes from the Provencal "Aloys." The name means "famous holiness." It is said that the wife of the Norman William Mallet was Hesilia or Helewise, doubtless the same as "Heloise." This name has been popular in France since the publication of Rousseau's "La Nouvelle Heloise."

ARRIVALS
