AUCTION SCHOOL NOTES

Col. Fred Reppert and the regular staff of instructors drilled the students of the 1934 class in opening and conducting farm sales for the most part of the day yesterday.

Mr. Reppert expressed satisfaction with the progress made by the class. Col. H. W. Segrist of Fort Wayne delivered an address on Auction House Operation, which was very instructive and proved of real value to the students.

W. B. Schneidewind of Quenemo, Kansas, and W. G. Boles of Clinton, Missouri, of the more advanced students are developing into real auctioneers early in the term. W. R. Brebe of Callon, Ohio, class president, is demonstrative of his gallantry and courtesy to visitors, making the boys sure that they made no mistake in their selection of a leader.

The boys are looking forward to a real workout at the auction to be held on the Court House square Saturday. They were assured by Col. Reppert that the ambulance would be in waiting for any of the boys that grew faint from buck fever.
