MARKET REPORTS NEW OFFICERS
WILL BE NAMED

DAILY REPORT OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS

LOCAL MARKET

Decatur Berne Craigville Hoagland
Corrected July 23

No commission and no yardage
Veals received Tuesday Wednesday Friday and Saturday

The Adams county wheat allotment committee, consisting of E. W. Busche, chairman; Ralph S. Myers, secretary, and John W. Blakey, treasurer, have issued notice to all wheat adjustment contract signers of an election of officers for the 1934-35 crop year, to be held Friday evening, July 27, at the following named places:

Union-St. Marys, Immanuel Lutheran School, Union township; Root-Washington township, Monmouth high school; Preble-Kirkland, Preble school; French-Monroe-Blue Creek, Monroe high school; Hartford-Wabash Jefferson, Geneva high school.

The present officers have completed their report for this year and these reports show that their expenditures are within the two cents a bushel estimate. In July they expended $7116. in June $304.45, and in April $29.65. The total budget for the county was $15,000, and there is an unexpended balance of $3816, which will remain in the treasury to be distributed at the end of the contract period.

On Saturday, the 28th, following the election, the newly elected chairmen from each community will meet in the county agent's office to elect new county officers and set up a budget for the coming year.
