JOINT MEETING

OF CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Brethren church held a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Nelson Abbott, Wednesday. The meeting was held all-day, with a basket dinner at the noon hour. During the meeting of the missionary society Mrs. Clarence Drake conducted the devotion, the topic of which was "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this." Mrs. Williams read the Scripture and prayer was offered by Mrs. Delma Eley and Mrs. C. J. Roberts. Talks were given by Mrs. H. Cochran, Mrs. Frank Bohnke and Mrs. Roberts. The song, "Open Mine Eyes" was sung in losing. A short business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held and the election of officers took place. Mrs. O. P. Mills was named president; Mrs. Orlean Brown, first vice-president; Mrs. Delma Eley, second vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Bagelman, treasurer, and Mrs. Clarence Merryman, pianist.

The Brentlinger reunion will be held Sunday, August 19 at the Legion Memorial Park in Decatur.

MEETING OF

WILLING WORKERS CLUB

The North St. Mary's Willing Workers 4-H Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mary Tope. A judging contest was given and the afternoon was spent in sewing.

Final plans were made for the exhibit to be held at the Bobo school Tuesday afternoon and for Achievement Day to be held at Berne. All work was completed for the year. Those present were Patricia

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Should the man or the woman take the inside seat when they are traveling together on a train?

A. The woman should take the seat next to the window, the man next to the aisle.

Q. Should a guest endeavor to eat what is set before him at the table?

A. Yes, by all means. It is very rude to refuse to eat what has been provided.

Q. In what person are informal invitations to a wedding written?

A. In the first person.

Adams County Memorial Hospital

Ether Faust, Jayne, Ohio, route 3, tonell operation, today.

New Prexy Good Fisherman

Berea, O.—(U.P.)—A liberal churchman—a good neighbor—and a good fisherman—so his friends characterize Dr. Louis Clinton Wright, who has just accepted the presidency of Baldwin-Wallace college here. The post had been vacant since the death of Dr. Albert Boynton Storms in July, 1933. Dr. Wright is resigning the pastorate of Epworth-Euclid Methodist church, Cleveland, to head Baldwin-Wallace.

Hospital Started Humbly

Cleveland.—(U.P.)—Sisters of St. Francis, in charge of St. Alexis Hospital here, who started with an eight-room frame dwelling as a hospital and resources of $2, have just commemorated 50 years of progress. The present hospital, valued at more than three-quarters of a million dollars, has admitted 74,291 patients in the half century, cared for 44,000 of them free.

Bandits Polite

Martins Ferry, O.—(U.P.)—Three "polite" bandits stole an automobile, robbed a gasoline station of $20, kidnapped the attendant and escaped after setting a peculiar "high" in highwayman courtesy.

Oscar Medick, 20, the attendant, was released at Rayland, O., after the bandits had given him 10 cents bridge toll, the stolen automobile, cigarettes and a cordial farewell.

Whelps 18 Pups at Once

New London, O.—(U.P.)—Speaking of multiple births, Queenie, registered Gordon setter, owned by Ralph Geer, barber, has something over all the quintuplets and triplets and quadruplets ever born. She has this town's largest family—18 puppies—all whelped in one litter. All are expected to live.

Slain Over Fender-Scraping

Cleveland.—(U.P.)—Two automobiles scraped fenders at an east side intersection. Out jumped both drivers. An argument followed, one driver pulled a gun, fired, and the other fell to the pavement. Later he died in a hospital. He was Ernest Braswell, 34, street cleaner.

Stunt Nearly Cost Life

St. Clairsville, O.—(U.P.)—James Garden, 24, almost lost his life while performing a favorite swimming stunt. He stayed under water until he frightened spectators. Elmer Saft, life guard, took Garden from 12 feet of water after he had been under six minutes. He was revived.

Mother Rabbit Died of Grief

Oakdale, Cal.—(U.P.)—Conclusive evidence that mother love is shown even in rabbits was given here, according to H. Kerston, rancher. Six small rabbits owned by Kerston had been overcome by heat. The doe returned to the hutch after eating to discover the death of her brood. She took one look at the sorrowful sight, and then calmly laid down and died, Kerston said.

WHAT FAMILIAR NAMES MEAN

WATCH THIS COLUMN DAILY

Copyrighted by DR. HARRY A. DEFERRARI

LING. The family name "Ling" is found in the earliest English records, but is of Scandinavian origin. Its source is the Old Norse "lying" which means "heath" and "heather," and which indicates an original place of residence. A certain John de Ling is mentioned in the Hundred Rolls. Many families bear this name because of having lived at one time in the village of Ling in County Somerset.

"Letty Linton" means "Happy Flax-Farm."

LISTER. The family name "Lister" (also written "Lyster") is of frequent occurrence in early English records. It is ultimately of Scandinavian origin, meaning "the dyer," and it denotes the occupation of the persons who were first so called. Early instances of this name are Andrew le Litster (1301), Hoge le Lyster and Robert le Litster (1322) and Robert le Lyster (1397). There is evidence that in a few cases "Lister" is derived from the old French "listre" which means "the preacher" and "the lector."

Divorce Moratorium Urged

Ashland, O.—(U.P.)—A moratorium on divorces in Ashland county has been proposed by Common Pleas Judge C. C. Chapman. Because there are "too many" divorces granted in the county, Judge Chapman has proposed to the Ashland County Bar Association that no more divorces be granted until September 1.

Warden Arrested Brother

Escanaba, Mich.—(U.P.)—Herman Leisner, Escanaba, veteran employee of the Michigan conservation department, is known as a fearless game warden who "would arrest his own brother." In fact Leisner, who has been a game warden for 24 years, did arrest and prosecute a younger brother who killed partridges out of season.

Drys Plan Drive on Picnickers

York, Pa.—(U.P.)—Alleged violations of the state liquor law by week-end picnickers promoted the founding of the Prohibition League of York county, which opened its campaign by offering $50 reward for evidence in Sunday law violations.

San Antonio to Pay Off Bonds

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—(U.P.)—The City of San Antonio will make the final payment on one of its earliest bond issues next September. Full payment will be completed on a $500,000 bond issue voted in 1894 for sewer improvements.

701 Under Life Sentences

COLUMBUS, O.—(U.P.)—Ohio State Penitentiary harbors 701 men under life sentences, Warden P. E. Thomas announced when Ben Curl and Richard Knight were admitted recently, sentenced from Hardin county, O., to serve life terms in connection with a robbery and slaying at Dunkirk, Ohio.

Caught Bobcat Barehanded

Danbury, N. H.—(U.P.)—With her bare hands, Miss Lois Ford captured a bobcat and collected the usual 220 bounty. She was berrying near Wilnot when she espied the cat. She clamped her paw over the animal's head, and though severely bitten on the hand, managed to bring it home alive.

Great Scenic Wonder

Nampa, Idaho.—(U.P.)—The craters of the moon are nothing but lava rock, cinders and wind, according to E. B. Robertson. He's talking about one of Idaho's greatest scenic wonders—a wild, desolate region of primitive, barren land within the state.

Prune Brandy

Salem, Ore.—(U.P.)—Brandy manufactured from Oregon prunes may appear on the price lists at state liquor stores and dispensaries shortly. The state liquor commission ordered an investigation of the feasibility of manufacture of prune brandy.

Some Cookie

Silberton, Ore.—(U.P.)—Miles Barber bet a cookie that a local bank would not reopen. He paid Miss Ina Harold with one eight inches in diameter, two-tiered, decorated with white icing, pink and green floral wreaths and the words: "I lost, Miles Barber."

For a School Wardrobe

By ELLEN WORTH

EVERYTHING'S cotton these days, and for charm and chic it would be hard to find anything more delightful than this frock for Miss 6 to 14. It's made in one of those wooly-looking cottons that are cool enough to wear now and yet have a hint of fall that will be just the thing for school later.

Every line of this frock is new and every line is designed to do nice things for the young figure. There are vertical pleats to accent slenderness, and a squared off line to broaden the shoulders. Decorative buttons on the shoulders and a grosgrain ribbon belt are nice finishing touches. And long sleeves may be used if desired.

The new Fashion Book will help you plan your wardrobe. Send 10 cents for book.

Pattern No. 5633 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 years. (Size 12 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material.)

Send 15 cents in coin or stamps. Mail your order to this paper, care Fashion Center, P. O. Box 170, New York, N. Y. Print your name and address clearly and print pattern number, size or bust.

Union Bans Singing Waiters

Cleveland.—(U.P.)—There were no singing waiters at Cafe Monaco when George Fox, Cleveland stage director, opened his "Barbary Coast." Fox had planned to have them. But the waiters' union said singers could not wait on tables and neither could waiters sing. So Fox solved his own problem by hiring union waitresses to wait on tables and his own warblers to flit among the tables.

Old Half Dollar Found

Mt. Vernon, O.—(U.P.)—T. R. Simmons, Jr.'s young daughter kicked her toes over the ground near her home, found something bright, looked at it. She thought it was a bottle cap, but it proved a half dollar minted in 1819. The coin carried a Liberty head on the obverse and the eagle and stars on the reverse side. The edge, smooth, bears the inscription, "Fifty Cents or a Half Dollar."

Blowout Kills Ohioan

Steubenville, O.—(U.P.)—Fred Jordan, 30, was killed when tossed from the rumble seat of an automobile when a tire blew out.

PERSONALS

Miss Dorothy Durkin of First street will open a kindergarten with the opening of the public schools this fall.

Miss Helene Rayl attended a luncheon at the Keenan Hotel in Fort Wayne Tuesday noon, given by President Wood and Mr. Sparks of the Stephens College at Columbus, Missouri. The luncheon was given to approximately 40 girls who will enter Stephens College this fall. Miss Rayl was graduated from the Decatur high school this spring.

Katheryn Louise Yager accompanied her aunt, Mrs. N. E. Vitz and daughter Betty of New Bremen, Ohio, to Chicago to spend the week at the world's fair.

W. H. Foughty will go to Oswego tomorrow and accompany his family back home. They have been spending a week at the lake and Mr. Foughty will remain over for a day of fishing.

The county commissioners will meet next Monday for the August session.

The U. B. church at Boho will hold an ice cream social Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the school house. There will be free entertainment.

Sea Gull Hurlled Eel

Bath, Me.—(UP)—Durward Bowle was walking along Washington Street when an eel struck him in the back. He swiveled to see who tossed it. There was no one in sight. It developed that a sea gull, circling overhead, had dropped it.
