

Yellow Jackets Score Victory In First Game, 7-6

DECATUR TEAM DEFEATS C. C. BY 7-6 SCORE

Local Eleven Wins Opening Game By Scoring In Last 5 Minutes

The Decatur Yellow Jackets, coming from behind, opened their season Saturday afternoon with a 7-6 victory over Central Catholic at the South Side stadium in Fort Wayne.

After playing along in rather dull fashion for the first three quarters of the game, both teams opened up in the final period with a passing attack which netted a touchdown for each eleven.

Central Catholic scored first. Taking the ball on down deep in their own territory, the Irish opened up with passes. One was completed, Murray to Romary and netted a gain of 55 yards. On the next play, Romary passed to Murray, good for 15 yards, and Murray ran 15 yards for a touchdown. Groat's attempt for the extra point by a place kick failed.

With less than five minutes of the game to play, Red Schultz tossed a 20-yard forward to Dick Sheets, who dodged his way 20 yards for a touchdown. Butler made the point which brought victory when he plunged through the C. C. line from a fake kick formation.

The game was well played for the season's opener for both teams, and surprisingly few penalties were assessed against the two squads.

Decatur will play its second game of the season next Saturday afternoon, journeying to Auburn to meet Zeke Young's Red Devils.

The post was left vacant recently when Wayne Coy, Delphi, became chairman of the governor's commission on unemployment relief.

Klinger was appointed state adjutant of the Legion by Clarence A. Jackson, Newcastle, when he was state commander in 1926 and was re-appointed in 1927 when McNutt became state commander.

Scott was attracted by the sound of breaking glass and turned his flashlight on the door. He was met by a hail of bullets, one of which pierced his hat.

He drew his gun and fired four times. One bandit dropped with a scream. His companions carried him to an automobile in which they escaped. Spots of blood were found on the floor where the bandit had dropped.

Horseplay Feared Of Movie Stars In Hollywood Premiere

All foreseen events in connection with the "Hollywood Premier" at the Adams theatre, Wednesday and Thursday nights have been arranged and provided for, but President Holthouse was wondering today about some of the unpredictable things which may happen when a bunch of movie stars begin to arrive.

Among her special worries are what may happen when the rowdy Marx Brothers land on the scene and Harpo spies some of the pretty girls that are sure to be around. A wild chase is apt to ensue, Miss Holthouse fears, and composure of the crowd will be upset.

Another thing she is trying to figure out is what will happen if Oliver Hardy and Stan Laurel start one of their slapping scenes and one of the wild swings happens to land on a spectator. Laurel and Hardy lead their own kind of lives, says Miss Holthouse, and have very little consideration for other people's feelings.

In addition to the glamorous stage presentation which holds promise of being the most colorful revue of stars ever shown in Decatur, there will also be presented the premier picture of the evening, "Paris Interlude," starring Otto Kruger, Robert Young and Madge Evans.

Because of the expense of theater rental, special make-ups and costumes, the admission for this attraction will be 35 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. The theater will open both nights at 6:30.

Because of the limited number of seats, it will be a case of first come, first served. All proceeds of the show, which is presented by the Delta Theta Tau sorority, will be used for the Good Fellows Christmas fund.

Bandit Killed In Holdup Attempt

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 10. — (U.P.) — One bandit was killed, his intended victim was wounded and a third man was under arrest today after an attempted filling station hold-up.

The dead bandit was Herskel A. Thrapp, 35, of Howard county. He was shot by George Abshire, station attendant. Abshire himself was wounded in the hands as he exchanged shots with Thrapp.

Timothy Hurley, 26, Anderson, brother-in-law of Thrapp, was arrested as a suspected accomplice in the robbery attempt. He was held for further investigation.

Thrapp's body was returned to Kokomo yesterday for funeral services and burial.

DECATUR YOUTH AWARDED PRIZE

Franklin Lough Wins Award Presented By Conservation League

Franklin Lough of Decatur will be awarded the prize given by the Adams county fish and game conservation league for the largest carp caught in waters of the county this summer, Charles Knapp, chairman of the organization, announced today.

The prize will be a jointed bait rod, reel and line. It has been on display at the Henry Knapp and son Hardware store all summer.

Under the rules established by the League the fish was caught by hook and line by a boy under high school age in one of the quarries or rivers in the county. The fish, caught by Franklin Lough, weighed seven and a half pounds and was slightly heavier than the nearest competitor.

Considerable interest was raised by the contest.

Mr. Knapp stated today that the state conservation department will soon distribute five cans of small mouth bass and 10 cans of large mouth bass in the waters of the county.

When these are received, Adams County will have been allotted two or three times as many fish as it has in the past. This increase has largely been due to the efforts of the local organization which is the largest league in the state.

PROBE STARTED TO DETERMINE FULL DETAILS

3. Why the fire spread with such strange rapidity from end to end of the ship.

4. Why the engines apparently were stopped, although the fire was not in the hold. The ship was anchored instead of making inshore for beaching.

5. Why such a large proportion of the crew instead of passengers were saved.

6. Why the lifeboats were so inadequately handled. Four of 12 were not launched and one which got away held only four members of the crew, although its capacity was 70.

7. Whether there is any truth in intimations of sabotage in connection with the recent dock workers' strike in Havana.

8. Whether there was anything mysterious in the death of Capt. Robert R. Wilcott a few hours before the fire.

In connection with the captain's death, some investigators believed it was an important factor in the loss of life. Out of respect to him, gala activities aboard the usually festive cruise ship were halted. Passengers went to bed instead of celebrating their homecoming late into the night, and what drinking or parties there were was privately in cabins. Had the passengers been up and stirring as usual, it was pointed out, smoke would have been felt and the alarm spread more rapidly.
