conventions of the last two years, but there were strong indications Green is willing to compromise and Lewis willing to accept a compromise that would set the council membership at 18, including the fifteen top 9, F. of L. officers who are ex-officio.

Each side will strike one name, the third acting as special judge.

The state committee contends that Townsend cannot serve as Lieutenant governor because he was named commissioner of agriculture by Gov. Paul V. McNutt in the Democratic reorganization act of 1933.

The Republican state convention last June nominated Joseph D. Kyle of Gary as lieutenant governor.

Further difficulties were encountered by the Republican state committee when Judge Cox also announced he would disqualify himself in a suit filed by E. Curtis White, state senator from Marion county, and John Bridget Webb, joint senator from Marion and Johnson counties.

White and Webb seek to enjoin the county board of election commissioners from placing the names of candidates for their positions on the November election ballots. Both are Democratic holdover senators.

The G. O. P. county committee contends their places in the senate are vacant because both accepted positions on the state board of agriculture. The committee, by petition, seeks to place the names of Ralph Kane for senator and Will H. Adams for joint senator, on the ticket.

transported some of the clay dirt carrying the tire treads to the jail. The clay was taken from farms on which the thieves had made their depredations.

Other evidence was the positive identification by the elevator men who purchased a portion of the grain. One check was discovered made out to Lester Myers and cashed by John Seekings.

Methodist Church
Rally Day Sunday

The Decatur Methodist Episcopal church school will observe rally day Sunday morning at the unified service. An attempt will be made to have an attendance equal to the enrollment.

At the worship period of the unified service Rev. H. R. Carson will bring a rally day message on the subject, "A Rally Day With a Purpose." The church school superintendent, W. Guy Brown, urges all class officers and teachers to do their utmost to get out every enrolled pupil next Sunday and extends a cordial invitation to any who are not in Sunday School elsewhere to attend the morning's program.
