

FUNERAL RITES HELD TODAY FOR M. F. WORTHMAN

generations can produce such a towering oak of a man as this.

"Oh, that we who survive might be as concerned about the young lives that are committed in our hands as he was."

The services were closed with the Masonic ring service.

The Zion Reformed committal service was used at the grave with Rev. Prugh in charge. The quartet sang "Have Thine Own Way Lord" by Stebbens.

Tributes Received

School leaders and educators throughout the state have sent numerous tributes to the memory of Mr. Worthman. Included in these tributes are the following:

"A man's life is not weighed by silver or gold; neither is it measured by the years he lives. His work is known by his acts of kindness and deeds of service in helping those about him," wrote Floyd L. McMurray, state superintendent of public instruction; Clarence L. Murray, state director of teachers training; and Grover Van Dusen, assistant state school superintendent in a joint tribute to Martin F. Worthman, superintendent of the Decatur schools.

"Superintendent Worthman," they continued, "has continually lived to serve both his local community and the state in efficient leadership. His passing is an irretrievable loss. His unusual personality and noble Christian qualities have gained for him the highest esteem of the children of the community and leaders of the state."

L. N. Hines, former state superintendent of public instruction and former president of Indiana State Teachers college at Terre Haute, sent the following telegram to Mrs. Worthman:

"The papers bring us the news of Mr. Worthman's death. Please accept the sympathy of all those that knew him. He was a most worthy and capable man."

Virginia Cravens, dean of girls at Indiana Central College in Indianapolis and former Decatur high school English teacher wrote the following tribute:

"After sixteen years of absence from Decatur I remember Mr. Worthman with only the greatest kindness. As a principal and a superintendent his attitude toward his teachers was always kind and helpful. His criticisms were always constructive and his love for boys and girls was manifest in every relationship.

"It will be long before Decatur can find any one who can nearly take his place in her schools. I am sure, however, the teachers and pupils will pay tribute to him by doing their best to carry out his plans."

J. M. Scudder, superintendent of the Huntington public schools mailed the following tribute to Mrs. Worthman and condolence to Mr. Worthman:

"Words fail us when we try to express our sympathy to you in your great loss. We can only attempt to tell you how much we loved him and how we too will miss him."

"He was a dear friend of ours. He was so capable, so true and so kindly."

"The public schools of Decatur and of Indiana have been helped tremendously by this noble leader. His spirit shall live on in our schools."

C. E. Beck, superintendent of the Columbia City high schools wrote the following tribute to Mr. Worthman:

"In the twenty-two years that I have known Mr. Worthman I can truly say that I always knew him to be a Christian gentleman who always kept the interest and welfare of the children of his city and the surrounding community his first consideration. Although it seems to us that he should have been spared for many more years of service, his life has been an outstanding success. He has certainly left to his children and to you a wonderful memory and a splendid heritage."

The following letter was received by Mrs. Worthman today from C. V. Haworth, superintendent of the Kokomo public schools:

"I was so sorry to hear of the death of your husband. I have been working with him in an educational way for a number of years and I found him to be worthy of the friendship and high esteem with which he was held by the school men of the state."

"My words, of course cannot soften the blow to you but I thought you would like to know how his friends felt about him."

Laziness Caused By Torpid Liver Scientists Claim

Half-Alive Feeling, Bilious Attacks, Yellowish "Muddy" Complexion and Dizzy Spells Are Common Among People Today.

New Medical Mixture Is Found, Known as Indo-Vin, Which Helps Liver to Function Normally and Costs Very Little.

If you were told that the tired, lazy, drowsy feeling so common among people today is directly caused, in most cases, by an inactive liver, it would sound unusual, wouldn't it? Yet this is a proven fact from actual records. But science has found a medicine that works with the food we eat and acts upon the liver. Not a cure-all, not a "patent" medicine, but a new formula, called Indo-Vin, now being introduced here in Decatur at The Holthouse Drug Store. It was first introduced a few months ago, and today hundreds of bottles are now being sold in this city, and leading druggists state that it is helping people who had never been really helped before by ANY medicine.

What It Will Do

Taken shortly after meals, Indo-Vin mixes with the food in one's stomach, aiding Nature and throwing off poisons that foster stomach troubles and permitting the liver to function properly. It helps bring out impurities which cause half-sick, tired feelings and low energy. It will relieve gas (frequently from the first dose), which may have been inside of your stomach for a long time, contaminating your blood and inner organs. By its natural cleansing action, Indo-Vin often puts a stop to the skin eruptions that are caused by impurities and will overcome the sallowness or "muddy" complexion that is due to sluggish liver and will put the rosy glow of health into your cheeks. Physicians will tell you that your liver bile must flow freely or your food won't digest. It just decays in the bowels and you have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes, your head aches and your whole system is poisoned. But Indo-Vin will make your liver more active and clear away the old bile, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headache.

This is no mere tablet, pill or salts, and not a powder, syrup or capsule, and it does not contain alcohol or a single habit-forming drug, but it is a scientific LIQUID mixture from 21 Medicinal Plants, all blended into one remarkable compound. It will not make you sick or nauseate you like calomel and ordinary liver medicines. It contains a combination of ingredients not found in any other known formula, and while it is being introduced in Decatur every suffering person can take it at the small cost of only a few cents a day. So, if liver or bowel affliction or stomach distress is sapping your vitality, it would certainly be a mistake not to try it.

Indo-Vin is now being introduced to the public daily here in Decatur at The Holthouse Drug Store and sold by every good druggist throughout this whole section.
