WAKE UP YOUR

LIVER BILE—

WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks dark, don't swallow a lot of salts, minerals, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

When bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. You build up your stomach. You have a flat, bad taste and your breath is foul. Bile breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, natural, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Renewal a substitute. 25-cent drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

—so far as we know tobacco was first used about 400 years ago

—throughout the years what one thing has given so much pleasure..so much satisfaction

Early Colonial planters shipped hundreds of pounds of tobacco to England in return for goods and supplies.

They came looking for gold... but they found tobacco

...and tobacco has been like gold ever since! The tobacco raised in Virginia and exchanged for goods helped the struggling colonists to get a foothold when they came to America.

Later on, it was tobacco that helped to clothe and feed Washington's brave army at Valley Forge.

Today it is tobacco that helps—more than any other commodity raised in this country—to pay the expense of running our Government.

In the fiscal year 1933-34 the Federal Government collected $425,000,000 from the tax on tobacco. Most of this came from cigarettes—six cents tax on every package of twenty.

Yes, the cigarette helps a lot—and it certainly gives men and women a lot of pleasure.

Smokers have several reasons for liking Chesterfields. For one thing, Chesterfields are milder. For another thing, they taste better. They Satisfy.

that there was a considerable amount of money at the Ayers home threatened her unless she told them the hiding place of the supposed money. Mrs. Ayers did not tell the men where the money was and they did not harm her.

They left her tied to a chair after cutting the telephone wires. She affected her freedom and walked to a neighbor's house and notified the sheriff.

The gang was traced to Indianapolis by an auto license number. Clark and Foreman were arrested and brought to Decatur on the charge.

CONDON NAMES

confident, sure. He shouted the answers that may condemn the prisoner. There were no qualifications in his statements, although in previous testimony he had shown an inclination to ramble, until called back to the main story by attorney general David T. Wilentz.

Planted firmly on the witness stand—and looking so remarkably like Justice Thomas W. Trenchard above him that he might have been a brother—Jafie related the melodramatic story of his negotiations, and marched, figuratively, over the long trail that ended with Col. Lindbergh's cruel disappointment.

By far the most important state's witness, Jafie appreciated his position and the overwhelming interest his appearance on the stand created.

Identification of the long series of ransom notes, each pricked with the mystic symbol with the three holes, interrupted his discursive testimony at intervals.

There was the envelope containing two notes, the first he received from the kidnaper after he had advertised his willingness to serve as a negotiator. One note, addressed to him, advised him to take the other note to Col. Lindbergh.

There were the "paper chase" notes, used in the child-like game of the extortioner, found beneath stones and in the strange places to which Jafie was directed.

There were the ransom notes copulating bitterly that "our man" failed to receive the money, and that the kidnapers were getting angry.

And the note that led to the return of baby Lindbergh's sleeping suit, the one already identified by Anne Morrow Lindbergh and Betty Gow as the one in which Charles was put to bed on the night of March 1.

Finally, there were the notes making the final arrangements for payment of the money.

The state will attempt to prove, by handwriting experts, that Bruno Richard Hauptmann wrote and sent all of the damning communications.

McNutt Talks At Jackson Banquet

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 9—(UP)—Landing Andrew Jackson as the man who inspired the Democratic party with his fighting ability, Gov. Paul V. McNutt addressed 600 persons at the annual Jackson day banquet here last night.

The Governor outlined records of the state and national administrations and explained future problems.

"The state administration has kept faith with the people of Indiana in the law two years and is entering a new period during which further constructive service will be offered," McNutt said.

He held President Roosevelt "the greatest peace-time president in the history of the country."
