

SOCIETY.

CLUB CALENDAR

MODERN ART
"MODERN ART" were shown at the meeting of the Art department of the Woman's Club which was held at the home of Mrs.
S. Sattler, Monday evening.

The meeting opened with a business session. Miss Bernice Nelson leader for the program and patron were read by Miss Margaret Singer. Miss Olive Behold and Mrs. Nelson. Mrs. Homer Lower was also a member of the committee.

Jewels made by the blind were distributed among the members. A great time was enjoyed following the program and refreshments were served by the committee.

The Eta Tau Sigma sorority will have a party at the home of Mrs.
Ulman, 7:30 p. m. prompt.

Ladies Shakespeare Club, Mrs.
Ralph Yager, 2:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY

Historical Club, Mrs. John Schug 2:30 p. m.

St. Joan of Arc Study Club, Mary Ulman, 7:30 p. m. prompt.

Ladies Shakespeare Club, Mrs.
Ralph Yager, 2:30 p. m.

THURSDAY

Dinner Bridge Club, Miss Madge Hite, 6:15 p. m.

Commonwealth Study Club, K. of C. Hall, 7:30 p. m.

St. Mary's Twp. Home Economics Club, Mrs. Orland Fortney, 1:30
p. m.

Eta Tau Sigma sorority, Miss Glennys Elzey, 7:30 p. m.

FRIDAY

Ben Hur open installation of officers, Ben Hur Hall, 7:30 p. m.

Pinochle Club, Mrs. Wm. Lester, 7:30 p. m.

SATURDAY

Evangelical Loyal Dorcas class steak supper, church basement, 5 to 7 p. m.

U. B. Ladies Aid Society cafeteria supper, church basement, 5 to 7
p. m.

KOHNE

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren church will serve a cafeteria supper in the church basement Saturday evening from five to seven o'clock.

MRS. DAVID ZEH

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

A birthday dinner was served Sunday for Mrs. David Zehr at her home on Russell street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Amel Shaffner of Van Wert, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Foreman and Mrs. William Kaufman of Berne; Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Irwin, Raymond Zehr and Mr. and Mrs. David Zehr.

Afternoon and evening callers were Claude Foreman and daughter.

... Helps PREVENT
many colds

her dressing room but one item—a picture of her husband?

Comedy on a murder mystery set.
Edgar Allan Woolf, who helped write "The Casino Murder" case script is a great cook and, for a neat touch in the picture, wrote in a scene where Philo Vance prepared "eggs chinoit".

Which was all very well until Paul Lukas, who now plays the detective, read the script.

Lukas, also a dabbler in the culinary art, loudly protested the recipe.

"If I'm forced to prepare eggs chinoit that way," he says, "all fairness I think Woolf should be compelled to eat them."

KNICK-KNACKS

Limy Plaws, a property man on Warner Brothers' "Caliente" troupe, will never be the same after running a one dollar bill up to $1,100 at the border town casino. . . Lupe Velez and Johnny Weissmuller had a secret date together the other night at the Trocadero—so secret that each wore black and white check coats you could see a mile away. . . Variety, the theatrical sheet, reports 3,500 New Yorkers standing in line, at midnight, to get into "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer". The show was run till 5 a. m. . . For the local run of the picture, Francesca Braggotti, will stage a ballet of the seas. By special arrangement of the managers.

Mrs. Dietrich was perfectly correct," defends the Paramount fashion designer. "A woman who can't dance gracefully with a train has no business wearing one. In Europe, like eating a train for dancing, is a sight."

Of course, we had a darn right dodge peas from somebody's train as a train on a crowded dance floor. But, as Travis said, we must not point out, we must not belong at a party where women would wear trains.

Reporting a scandalous affair, little Carol Ann Young, 11-month-old daughter of Robert Young, has a black eye. And a sweller shiner you never saw. She tried to kiss Jack Haley, Jr., at a kid party, and he let her have it.

The William Gargans celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary by going to the Mayfair and by motoring to Caliente.

Bill is impressed by the cruelty of fate. When he got married, he hardly had enough to eat. Now he has plenty, but must diet and can't eat.

Did you know that, in one of those early years, Bill found acting so scarce he was forced to become a salaried salesman?

What famous star, upon completing a picture at a certain studio, recently took everything from the fat?

BEHIND the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL
Copyright, 1935,
King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD—A little problem for you.

Dancing at the Trocadero after midnight were two actresses.
Each had been to the Ballet Russe and each wore a train with a train.

One lifted the train as she danced. The other, Marlene Dietrich—equipped by the romantic-looking Caesar Romero—let her train naturally on the floor.

Which, you initiated ones, was correct?

You probably know right off, but the discussion waxed hot around the door tables. And, apparently, if a vote had been taken, La Dietrich would have come off the loser.

But, cried Travis Banton, in a loud voice, "No!"

"Mrs. Dietrich was perfectly correct," defends the Paramount fashion
designer. "A woman who can't
dance gracefully with a train has no business wearing one. In Europe, like eating a train for dancing, is
a sight."

Of course, we had a darn
right dodge peas from somebody's
train as a train on a crowded
dance floor. But, as Travis said, we must not point out, we must not
belong at a party where women
would wear trains.

Reporting a scandalous affair,
little Carol Ann Young, 11-month-
old daughter of Robert Young, has
a black eye. And a sweller shiner
you never saw. She tried to kiss Jack Haley, Jr., at a kid party, and
he let her have it.

The William Gargans celebrated
their seventh wedding anniversary
by going to the Mayfair and by motoring to Caliente.

Bill is impressed by the cruelty of fate. When he got married, he hardly had enough to eat. Now he has plenty, but must diet and can't
eat.

Did you know that, in one of those
early years, Bill found acting
so scarce he was forced to become a salaried salesman?

What famous star, upon completing a picture at a certain studio,
recently took everything from the fat?

Jean of Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs.
Simon Zehr, son Harold and daughter Ruth of New Haven.

BEN HUR LODGE TO HAVE OPEN MEETING

The Ben Hur lodge will have an open installation of officers for the public in the Ben Hur Hall Friday night at seven-thirty o'clock. J. A.
Horn of Fort Wayne, special representative, will act as installing officer.

All Ben Hur members, their families and friends are urged to be present at the meeting. Following the installation a baccarat party will be held and a social time enjoyed.

FORMER LOCAL NURSE ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Pauline Dro, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Dro of Borne and Dr. Thomas J. Benton, which took place at Willard Springs Illinois, a suburb of Chicago on Thursday, January 24.

The bride has been serving as a nurse at the Jeffersonville Hospital at Chicago and was a former nurse at the Adams County Memorial Hospital.

FAMILY GROUP HONORS MRS. WELKER

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Welker gathered at the Welker home Sunday to honor Mrs. Welker on her sixty seventh birthday anniversary.

The guests arrived at the party with well filled baskets and a delicious dinner was served. A large birthday cake with sixty seven lighted candles centered the table.

The honored guest received many birthday gifts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Welker, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welker and children Maxine and Harold, Harlie Welker and son Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Groce Tope and children Robert and Mary Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kelscher and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. John Shook and family Betty, Ernest, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Welker and children Robert and Dorothy, Miss Ethel Welker, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Welker and son Jack of Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Welker and son Richard, Jess Moser and children Arthur, Lucille and Billy of Fort Wayne.

The Loyal Dorcas class of the Evangelical Sunday School will serve a steak supper in the church basement Saturday night from five to seven o'clock.

ST. PAUL LADIES AID SOCIETY

The St. Paul Ladies Aid Society met recently at the home of Mrs.
O. T. Johnson with a pot-luck dinner at the noon hour. Quilting was enjoyed throughout the day.

Mrs. Freeman Walters gave the Scripture reading and Mrs. Hensley led in prayer. Those present were the Mesdames Emma Schnepp, Harve Smith, Charles Nyffler, John Hirah and daughter Lena, Freeman Walters and daughter Anola and Naomi, Tom Bess, Floyd Smitley and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Hensley Margery Shaff.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Nyffler on February 21.

MRS. ANNA BIXLER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The eighty second birthday anniversary of Mrs. Anna Bixler of Berne was celebrated at a family dinner served at the Bixler home Monday evening. Mrs. Bixler is in good health and active for her advanced age.

Her children and their families were present at the birthday dinner. The children are Mrs. Marie Hoffman of Logansport; N. A. Bixler of Deoutr; Mrs. W. G. Rinder of Hastings, Nebraska; Mrs. E. C.
Smith, Mrs. Albert Winteregg, Mrs.
Amos Reusser, and E. D. Bixler of Berne.

INTERESTING PROGRAM GIVEN AT LITERATURE MEET

The Literature department of the Women's Club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. John Tyndall, who was also chairman of the program committee for the meeting.

The life and works of Sherwood Anderson were studied and Mrs.
Tyndall gave a description of the kind of works of the author and read some of his poems.

Mrs. C. A. Dugan reviewed a "fairy story" from the collection, "Wines-burg, Ohio," Anderson's home town and Mrs. Bert Townsend reviewed the short story, "I'm a Fool". A brief outline of the novel, "Poor Wife" was given by Mrs. H. R. Carson.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

CAST BALLOTS

through his slashing cross-questioning, that Hauptmann, who had only a little money at the beginning of 1932, quit his carpenter's job the day the ransom was paid, bought a $400 radio and a $125
pair of field glasses, sent his wife on a trip to Germany, went on hunting trips, took an automobile trip to California, and planned to go to Germany himself—and that all this prosperity came to him after the kidnaping.

Both candidates favor payment of the bonus.

Halleck conducted a campaign tour which carried him into each of the 13 counties in the district.

Durgan contented himself with a hand shaking tour because of the strong organization which his home of Dwight W. Morrow who committed suicide, or any member of the Lindbergh or Morrow establishments.

One of the most damaging pieces of evidence introduced were deposit slips showing that Hauptmann continually put silver deposits in his bank. Hauptmann denied they were silver deposits.

"They were in bills," he declared, "but I made a mistake in making out the slips."

It is the state's contention that this silver came to Hauptmann as change, for small purchases made with large ransom bills.

BRONX GERMAN

through his slashing cross-questioning, that Hauptmann, who had
only a little money at the beginning of 1932, quit his carpenter's
job the day the ransom was paid,
bought a $400 radio and a $125
pair of field glasses, sent his wife
on a trip to Germany, went on
hunting trips, took an automobile
trip to California, and planned to
go to Germany himself—and that
all this prosperity came to him
after the kidnaping.

He also drew from him the declaration that he didn't know Violet Sharpe, the maid at the Done movin'

Smokers of Chesterfield are funny that way, you can hardly move 'em. They evermore like 'em, and they evermore stick to 'em. Chesterfields are milder—they taste better.

© 1935, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTE RADIO PROGRAM LISTINGS

Columbia Network

Monday, Wednesday and Saturday each week

9:00-9:30 P. M. E. S. T.
8:00-8:30 P. M. C. S. T.
7:00-7:30 P. M. M. T.
6:00-6:30 P. M. P. T.

Mondays LUCREZIA BORI
Kostelanetz Orchestra
and Chorus.

Wednesdays LILY PONS
Kostelanetz Orchestra
and Chorus.

Saturdays RICHARD BONELLI
Kostelanetz Orchestra
and Chorus.

—

CAST BALLOTS