COURT HOUSE

New Case

A suit for $100 damages has been filed by William Hipert against Lewis A. Graham for alleged failure to maintain the proper side of a fence between properties owned by the two men. According to the complaint the maintenance of this portion of the fence had been the "custom and practice during the last 50 years". As a result of the alleged injury the plaintiff states that he was unable to use a 20 acre clover field for pasture. Summons was issued to the sheriff, returnable November 26.
