ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM HELD TUESDAY EVENING
The 4-H Club achievement program was held Tuesday evening, November 19, in the Decatur high school auditorium with about 400 people in attendance. The program was opened with community singing led by Miss Helen Hirschy. Mrs. Helen E. Mann introduced Miss Pollyanna Lehman, president of the Adams County Junior leader organization, who took charge of the program.

A reading was given by Miss Elsie Christy. The 4-H Girls Club song, "Dreaming" was sung by a girls chorus of about 40 voices. The Misses Wilma Miller and Josephine Daniels gave a demonstration on "The Art of Bandaging." This demonstration won first place at the county show last summer, and won third in the district contest held at Fort Wayne recently. Accordion music was furnished by Juanita and Jeanette Spranger and Maxine Stucky. A boys quartet composed of Joel Habegger, Gerhart Schwartz, David Liechty, and Irvin Inniger sang the boys 4-H Club Song, "Ploughing".

Following this a candle lighting service was held. Miss Catherine Mosser represented the Spirit of Club Work, and her four attendants, Head, Heart, Hand and Health, were Wilma Miller, Laella Scheumann, Juanita Lehman, and Miriam Hoffman. The Spirit lighted the candles of her four attendants, who in turn lighted the candles of a group of 4-H Club members who represented each 4-H Club in the county. After all the candles were lighted, the entire group sang "Follow the Gleam."—Miss Helen Hanbold, music teacher in the Decatur High School, accompanied all the singing by playing the piano. County Agent Archbold and Mrs. Helen E. Mann gave some interesting remarks, after which the distribution of awards was made.
