HOLLYWOOD — Never again will Edgar Allan Woolf, will be a "best" picker. Since our list of his favorite dishes is

Isn't dislike, but a strictly humanitarian measure. They have to get up before 5 in the morning to arrive at Universal by 6, so they can be made up and on location by 8. Fearing early morning grouches, they have agreed not to say a word until they are on the set.

"I'm writing it myself in book form," he cannily replies.

What foreign star can be seen driving down Franklin avenue almost every morning at 8:45, with a man in the back seat beside her? They're often cheek-to-cheek, too.

HOLLYWOOD TICKER-TAPE— Louise Fazenda plays the same role in the new "Main Street" that she did years ago in the silent movie made by Warners. . . . Some of the farewell gag presents sent to Howard Strickling and Dick Berlin as they sailed for Honolulu would make a ship's steward blush.

Katherine De Mille is on her first trip to New York since she was a little girl. . . . Florine Dixon (wasn't she supposed to be footballer Homer Katherine De Mille Griffith's girl?) is going about these days with John McGuire. . . . Charles Ruggles is buying three more acres in the San Fernando valley to take care of his enlarging kennels. His dogs have won 88 ribbons in the last year. . . . A new play by Gene Towne called "God Bless You, Inc.", is about New York's organized eggars. It is due for a Broadway opening this summer. . . . And Victor McLaglen is adding a sky patrol to his military units. Captain Gene E. Tigar, first to loop-the-loop in a Ford tri-motored plane, is to head it.

DID YOU KNOW— That Dixie Dunbar is only 4 feet 11 1/2 inches tall and weighs only 98 pounds? Which is one-half inch shorter and two pounds lighter than Janet Gaynor?

When you are at Joan Crawford's house for tea, she pours it from a silver pot made years ago by one of her ancestors. The heirloom was a wedding present to Joan from her father's dad, who had a sugar bowl and a tray made to match. The set is one of the most prized possessions.

Smart Blouse, New Neck Line

Comfortable to Wear and Youthfully Flattering

By ELLEN WORTH

Lovely for matron and miss is this charming new blouse.

Pictured, the model is shown in cravat print silk, smart besides being practical. It's especially nice for school, office and for general day wear.

It can also be carried out in plain dark or bright crepe silks. For younger women who need not study figure lines so closely, white, aqua blue, emerald green, etc., is very chic and "dressy" in crepe silk or in satin crepe.

The collarless neck makes it especially easy to fashion it.

Style No. 1673 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38 and 40-inches bust. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards of 39-inch material for long sleeved blouse.

Our new Spring Fashion Book will enable you to have smart clothes for less money. It's just full of new ideas.

Price of BOOK 10 cents.

Price of PATTERN 15 cents, (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.
