MISS DOROTHY YOUNG IS HOSTESS TO CLUB
Miss Dorothy Young was hostess to the members of her bridge club and one guest, Mrs. Jerome Myers.

Thursday evening at her home on North Fifth street.

Five games of bridge were enjoyed with Miss Mary Coverdale winning high score prize and Mrs. Robert Cole, second. Mrs. Myers was presented with a guest prize.

A delicious one course luncheon was served at small tables centered with bouquets of purple sweet peas.

MRS. SHERMAN KOOS HONORED WITH PARTY

The Women of the Moose entertained with a supper Thursday evening honoring Mrs. Sherman Koos, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Haley.

After the supper a short business meeting was held during which the women voted to give five dollars to the Red Cross relief fund. Announcement was made that there will be no party next week as it is holy week.

A social time was then enjoyed, during which games were played and Mrs. Koos was presented a lovely gift from the lodge.

MRS. C. S. FORTNEY HOSTESS TO SOCIETY

The Woman's society of the Pleasant Mills Baptist church met with Mrs. C. S. Fortney Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ralph Longenberger, president, conducted the business meeting. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in quilting.

Those present were Mrs. Lee Custer, Mrs. Paul Loewinger, Mrs. Clyde Troutner, Mrs. J. F. Halberstadt, Mrs. Bryce Daniels, Mrs. Carl Burkhardt, Mrs. Lydia McFarlane, Mrs. Frank Fortney, Miss Veri Troutner, Mrs. Ralph Longenberger, Mrs. William Noll and the hostess Mrs. Fortney.

The Zion Lutheran Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Frank Braun Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Fred Busse will be the assisting hostess.

The Girls Missionary Guild of the Zion Reformed church will meet in the church parlors Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Research club will meet with Mrs. C. C. Pumphrey Monday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Carrie Haubold will have the program and her subject is "Modern American Operas Recently Produced."

The following menu will be offered at the cafeteria supper served at the United Brethren church by the Ladies' Aid society Saturday evening. Escalloped chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, noodles, meat loaf baked beans, potato salad, deviled eggs, fruit salad, baked apples, pie, cake, bread, butter and coffee.

MRS. HERBERT KERN IS HOSTESS TO AID

The Ladies' aid of the Christian church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Kern. After the opening and roll call a short business session was held. The society voted to purchase a Centennial bond. Committee reports were heard and new business discussed. During the social meeting an Amateur hour was held, honoring Mrs. Noah Mangold who celebrated her birthday yesterday. A good time was had and some especially fine talent exhibited.

Mrs. Kern, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mangold, served delicious refreshments appropriate to the Easter season. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Hammond on Belmont Road.

FINAL MEETING OF HISTORICAL CLUB

The closing meeting of the Historical club was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Homer Lower. A pot luck dinner was served at the noon hour, followed by the regular business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Ahr read an interesting paper on "raw materials and the finished product." Four new members welcomed into the club were: Mrs. Earl Butler, Mrs. Giles Porter, Mrs. Lloyd Cowens and Mrs. Fred Linn.

The committee in charge of the meeting was composed of Mrs. Lydia Shamp, Mrs. Phoebe Pite, Mrs. Agnes DeVor, Mrs. Fannie Christen and Mrs. Edith Schaefer.

BAPTIST SOCIETY RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. C. V. Hilyard was hostess to the Baptist Woman's society Thursday afternoon at which time the present officers were re-elected. Mrs. Will Winnes, president; Mrs. Curtis Moser, vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Peterson, secretary; Mrs. H. N. Shroll, treasurer; Mrs. S. E. Shamp, White Cross secretary; Mrs. Bina Buhler, literature secretary.

Mrs. Curtis Moser led the devotionals. Mrs. Shamp read an interesting letter from the missionary in Ningpo, China. Splendid reports from the spring conference held last week at Bluffton, were given by the Mesdames Ira Bodle, C. E. Bell, Bina Buhler, S. E. Hite, S. E. Shamp and H. N. Shroll.

Eighteen members and four guests, the Mesdames Jerry Rumpke, Irene Bessner, Hila Murray and Vaughn Hilyard were present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Strickler.
