Mrs. Hauptmann Makes Last Visit

An attitude of dramatic excitement evident as Mrs. Anna Hauptmann and a woman reporter threaded their way through the hundreds of curiosity seekers crowded around the entrance of the state penitentiary at Trenton, N. J., added to the drama of Mrs. Hauptmann's last visit to her doomed mate.

dermann. The new individual communion set will be dedicated and used for the first time in this service. The only light will be an array of candles.

WILENTZ ORDERS
governor may again inject himself into the case at the last minute.
Observers believe that in event of a disagreement Kimberling would follow Hoffman's instructions as against Wilentz's.
A few minutes after Wilentz had pects we have in mind," he said,

"we may be able to show a connection between him and a certain Brooklyn lawyer."

Geogham revealed that detectives had located the cleaning and dyeing shop in which Wendel's suit and overcoat had been sent while he was held prisoner. The proprietors were questioned by an assistant district attorney.

Attorney General David T. Wil-entz of New Jersey promised, Geogham said, to help bring Wen-del back to Brooklyn to identify the house in which he allegedly was tortured.

Boston Milk Drivers Seek Higher Wages

Boston, April 3—(UP)—More than 20,000 metropolitan Boston families were without milk today because 350 wagon drivers and 175 creamery workers went on strike for higher wages.

"White collar" employees of the affected companies delivered milk to hotels, restaurants, and stores, but officials indicated no attempt at home deliveries would be made.

Members of the milk drivers, chauffeurs, and creamery workers union unexpectedly took a strike vote early today. Allegedly threatened with a $3 pay reduction, the drivers remanded their present $35 weekly pay rate be raised to $38 un-

Capture Suspect

New York, Apr. 3.—(UP)—A suspect in the alleged kidnaping and torture of Paul H. Wendel, disbarred Trenton lawyer, who made and repudiated a confession that he abducted Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., has been captured, it was announced today by Assistant Chief Inspector John J. Lyons of the detective division.

Wendel claimed he was abducted near his Manhattan hotel and taken by several men to a Brooklyn house where, he charged, he was tortured for 10 days into signing a confession. Then, he said, he taken to the home of Ellis Parker, detective, in Mount Holly, N. J.

Lyons would reveal no information concerning the suspect.
Neither would District Attorney William F. X. Geogham of Brooklyn comment, except to say that a check by his aides so far has established the truth of Wendel's assertions.

"If we locate one of the suspects," he said, "we will locate the other."
