Over in Mexico a federal labor board ruled that a strike of railroad workers was illegal, thus saying the supreme court a job.

The Indiana State Medical Association is authority for the advice that "What we need is fresh, clean food and fruit, plenty of fresh air and sleep, more outdoor exercise." That prescription is not hard to take.

The Guffey coal control act was designed to improve conditions in the field and protect the miner as to wages and employment. The outlawing of the measure may mean more than the lowering of coal prices, if the reductions are passed unto the miner.

Former President Hoover's announcement that he is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination may not eliminate him from the race. Mr. Hoover states he is interested only in writing the platform. He may find he is the only man willing to run on it.

This is commencement week.
Favored with ideal weather, the spirits of the graduates should be high. They are facing the world in one of the greatest periods in history. Life to them should be a great adventure and their training youthful enthusiasm and desire to accomplish should lead them to the heights.

With the completion of the new sidewalk and widening of Madison street on the north side of the court house, the suggestion has been made that a modern drinking fountain be erected on the corner.
The matter will be taken up with the commissioners, the city offering free water and maintenance if the fountain is purchased.

Allen county has two Republican chairmen and now a movement is underway to elect two state chairmen. Ralph Gates and his supporters have called a meeting for Thursday and according to plans, it is the intention of the group to elect a chairman, in defiance to Don B. Erwin, who used the steam roller and his own vote to win the office. It does appear that the eighth district Republicans have a it out along those lines.

A committee on parking and traffic, with Sheriff Brown, local and state police officers cooperating, has been named for the Centennial. It goes without saying that this committee has a real job.
To find parking space for thousands of automobiles is a task in itself. But it must be done. Decatur will be host to visitors and we must work out some plan to park cars and control traffic during the big week. It is a civic problem and your suggestion may help solve the matter.
