BEHIND THE SCENES IN HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD—Only now is Hollywood realizing how serious was the attachment between Marlene Dietrich and Jack Gilbert.

In the star's bungalow dressing room at the Pathé studio, I saw three pictures of Jack. Two are in a folder and the other is a smaller tinted likeness. They stand on her dressing table, where she can look at them constantly, and a candle always burns in front of them.

I had come to talk about "The Garden of Allah," the picture upon which David O. Selznick is spending more than $1,000,000 and which may make Marlene Dietrich the first color star of Hollywood.

But La Dietrich was sad and hard to draw out. "How can you be unhappy?" I asked. "You have everything."

In her eyes came a faraway look. "I had everything," she corrected me gently. "We spoke of Jack then, and I said it seemed a long time that he has been gone."

"Yes," replied Marlene slowly. "Four months, Saturday."

Yet the candle still burns in front of his pictures on her dressing table.

The afternoon's mail brings a postcard from Tony Lanier, the "Great Ziegfeld" cutie, who went to Honolulu to rest after an appendicitis operation.

With engaging candor, Tony has written for the whole world to see: "I came here to recuperate and to find out if I still loved Nell Miller. He's in business and doing very nicely."

Neil Miller, of course, being Dorothy Mackall's ex-hubby.

The job of being a motion picture stand-in, even for Bette Davis, was too much for Sally Sage. She quit recently and has just played her first motion picture scene. It was in "The Charge of the Light Brigade," and Sally was one of 30 women who spent most of the day in the chill waters of Lake Sherwood.

Not soft work, but when they asked Sally if she'd like another job as stand-in she replied: "If you can use me again tomorrow, I'll be here."

Broadway is going to see Barbara Stanwyck for the first time in three years. Barbara lived the life of a hermit in Hollywood during the latter stage of her marriage to Frank Fay, but now that she is free, she is going to carry her adopted son, Dion, east to meet her parents, who have never seen him. The pair of them leave as soon as Barbara finishes "Marry the Girl" at R-K-O.

It will be news to Hollywood that Richard Dix is in the Good Samaritan hospital for treatment of a stubborn foot injury that he received in a picture several years ago. Rich went into the hospital after he completed his R-K-O contract, and will be there for some time.

Here and there in movieland... Just so the stay-up-laters can stop wondering, the man with Louise Rainer at the Trocadero was Dr. S. M. Marcus, the psychoanalyst... Incidentally, the main dining room of the Troc will close June 1 for a two weeks' remodeling job... Alma Lloyd has asked for and secured her release from Warner Brothers. She'll take a trip east before deciding what further to do about her career... The daughter of Captain D. McD. Jones, former police censor of Los Angeles, is acting at Twentieth Century-Fox... West Virginia. Two hundred thirty-two delegates were present with fifty from Indiana. This district is composed of three states Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia. The meeting next year will be held at Dayton Ohio.

Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

CARL BUFFENBARGER TO WED COLLEGE GIRL
A group of friends surprised Miss Betty Lou Yoder on her birthday anniversary Monday evening and in turn were more than surprised when Miss Yoder cleverly announced her engagement to Carl Buffenbarger of Decatur.

Sunday was Miss Yoder's birthday and her mother, Mrs. J. L. Yoder invited twelve girls for a social evening. The guests were presented with "party pellets" which when opened contained instructions to introduce someone. When Miss Yoder's turn came she presented little Louise Cordier, small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Cordier, who were two large hearts pierced with an arrow on which were the words "Betty and Buffy."

Miss Yoder is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. L. J. Yoder of

VAN WERT PLANS PEONY FESTIVAL

Decatur Citizens Invited To Attend Festival June 4

G. A. Berger and H. A. Hines of Van Wert were in Decatur today inviting local people to attend the annual peony festival in their city, Thursday, June 4.

The Van Wert men extended an invitation to the Decatur Centennial committee, through Mayor Arthur R. Holthaus, to have a float in the gigantic and spectacular parade to be staged in connection with the peony exposition.

The American Legion drum corps and the Decatur high school band were also invited to participate in the parade. Invitations were extended to these organizations through J. Walter Krick, city superintendent of schools and Dee Fryback, American Legion commander.

Cloverleaf Creameries, Inc., of this city will have a float in the parade, arrangements being completed today by W. A. Klepper, general manager of the local company with the Van Wert representatives.

The Van Wert peony show is one of the outstanding community events held in this part of the country. The city is noted for its famous peony farms and each year a great celebration is held during the peony blooming season.

The Van Wert men stated today they expected a crowd of about 50,000 people during the celebration.

NEGLECT OF CONSTIPATION* IS A SERIOUS MATTER

Delicious Cereal Corrects This Condition in a Natural Way

Immediate attention to constipation is important for two reasons. It causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches and loss of appetite. It also tends to slow you down.

When elimination continues to be faulty, over a period of time, your general resistance may be lowered. And a weakened body is less able to fight off the infections that abound in every crowded place.

The most common type of constipation is that caused by insufficient "bulk" in meals. In Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, you have a delicious source of effective "bulk."

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass and gently cleanses the system. This tempting cereal also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Serve as a cereal with milk or cream, or cook into tempting muffins, breads, etc. How much pleasanter to enjoy this natural laxative food instead of taking pills and drugs.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
