All the things you want to know about the weather will be found in the ten thousand word Booklet WEATHER AND CLIMATE obtainable from our Service Bureau at Washington. It is a textbook for the layman on meteorology and climatology—tells the methods of weather forecasting, interesting weather records, and explains the causes of fallacies about the weather that are commonly believed to be true. STATE G. O. P. MAP CAMPAIGN

District Organizations To Direct Election Campaign

Indianapolis, July 2.—(U.P.)—A decentralized campaign, under the direction of 12 district organizations, was planned today by Indiana Republicans.

The state central committee and members of the state ticket agreed in a conference last night to establish headquarters in each of the 12 congressional districts to push the fight against the state and national Democratic administration.

In addition to eliminating the many bureaus ordinarily set up for each campaign at the state headquarters, the district unit system will permit greater stress on candidacies of the congressional nominees, it was explained.

The state committee also approved naming of a finance committee of 15 or more members to coordinate fund-raising activities. Members of the finance committee will be endorsed by the district chairmen and vice chairmen.

Ivan C. Morgan, state chairman, was authorized to take any action he deems necessary to aid in raising the campaign fund, to prevent duplication and bring in the strength of the victory league, established several months ago as a campaign finance group.

Morgan named J. T. Moorman, I. W. Lemaux and Felix McWhirter, all of Indianapolis, as a special finance committee to supervise receipts and expenditures of the state committee.

Creation of the special committee was voted last month as a concession to Ralph F. Gates, Columbus City, who lost a fight to oust Burrell Wright as state committee treasurer.

State ticket candidates chosen are Joseph B. Kyle, nominee for lieutenant governor, as chairman of their campaign organization.

James A. Slane, Lafayette, nominee for secretary of state, was named vice chairman and Norman J. Lasher, Seymour, nominee for superintendent of education, secretary.

The annual summer outing of the Republican Editorial Association was set for Sept. 11 and 12 at Lake Wawasee.

WHEAT FUTURES SWEEP UPWARD

Prices Mount As Drought In Northwest Is Unbroken

Chicago, July 2.—(U.P.)—Wheat futures swept upward today on the nation's grain exchanges as the northwest drought remained unbroken and prices on the Winnipeg market rocketed under the full 3-cent limit permitted under the exchange's rules.

Reports that the Winnipeg market opened with prices up the limit stimulated general buying of all wheat futures in American markets. An official Canadian crop report which emphasized drought and insect damage to wheat in the Dominion provinces was responsible for the buying stampede in Winnipeg. The crop survey was released yesterday when the Canadian market was closed in observance of a holiday.

Wheat futures on the Chicago board of trade opened 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents higher than yesterday's close. Both September and December deliveries sold above $1 per bushel. All deliveries of corn and oats were at new highs for the season.

Minneapolis prices were up 2 to 2 1/2 cents at the start. The September delivery sold at $1.12 a bushel. Kansas City wheat futures were 2 to 2 1/2 cents higher. Official recognition of the seriousness of drought conditions throughout the United States as displayed by a pessimistic weather bureau report yesterday coupled with the Canadian news formed the background for the bullish movement in wheat.

Old Cannon Balls Found

Detroit.—(U.P.)—Engineers excavating near the old shore line of the Detroit River unearthed a half-dozen 12-pound cannon balls, said to date back at least to 1800.
