CITY SWELTERS

said today that the heat has not done as much damage as some heat waves in the past or as the present weather in other parts of the country, because Adams county went into the hot, dry period with considerable moisture in the ground.

Wheat for the most part was not injured by the heat. Early oats also were headed out before the heat arrived. Late oats are in great danger of being either low yielding or a total loss.

Corn is at the point where immediate rain is necessary. Early corn is beginning to tassle and will not pollinate in extremely hot weather. Late corn must have rain or it will be burned out.

Sugar beets, which root deeper, have not suffered so much and at the present appear to be in the best condition in the history of the county. Soy beans are in a greater need of immediate rain.

Potato and truck crops are suffering greatly as has become apparent to local consumers of vegetables faced with rising prices. However, sufficient rains could save both crops.

Pastures are worst affected by the heat and lack of rain. The problem of supplying feed for livestock is becoming acute.

WHY IS IT KELLOGG'S TASTE BETTER THAN ANY OTHER CORN FLAKES?

ONE reason is that they're fresh—as fresh and crisp as the day they came from the toasting ovens.

Kellogg's know how to make corn flakes with a more delicious flavor. And when the golden flakes are crisply toasted, they're heat-sealed in a patented wax-tite bag inside the package.

At your grocer's. Big value. Ready to eat, with milk or cream. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek and never sold under any other name.

Nothing takes the place of
