MONROE HERALDS HAVE JULY MEETING

The Monroe Senior King's Heralds held their July meeting at the home of Miss Ireta Longenberger recently. The meeting opened with singing "Love, wonderful love" after which Miss Fern Stuckey had charge of the devotionals.

The Misses Dortha Ray and Ireta Longenberger led in prayer. The secretary's report was given by Miss Helen Rupert. The following program was then enjoyed. Mystery box questions, chapter 2 of "The three cornered continent", Mrs. Homer Winterregg, piano solo, Ireta Longenberger, "A trip to Old Mexico City, Mrs. John Floyd, closing prayer, Mrs. Winterregg. Delicious refreshments of assorted cakes, nuts and orangeade were served by Miss Longenberger assisted by Mrs. Floyd.

BUCHER-GROTRIAN NUPTIALS MARKED BY PRETTY SERVICE

A wedding of pretty summer appointments was that of Miss Alma Bucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bucher, New Haven, Indiana, and Mr. Otto Grotrian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grotrian of Monroeville, Indiana, which was solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in New Haven. Rev. Paul Schultz, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church, Decatur, Indiana, officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was preceded by a musical presented by Mrs. Lydia Werling, vocalist, and Mrs. Paul Schultz, pianist. The selections included, "I Love You" and "Oh Perfect Love." The wedding march from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were used at the processional and recessional.

Profusions of potted palms and ferns banked the wedding altar. The bride wore a white satin and lace trimmed gown fashioned in Queen Ann style. Her full veil of white illusion was fastened to a halo cap. Her slippers were white satin and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby breath.

Miss Luella Grotrian, maid-of-honor and Miss Helen Bohnke, bridesmaid, wore gowns fashioned alike of yellow and pink sheer organdy. They wore large horsehair braid picture hats to match their gowns and their slippers were tinted in yellow and pink. Roses and astors formed their arm bouquets. Little Miss Doris Brotrian, cousin of the groom, attended as flower girl. She wore a pink taffeta dress with white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas to match. Louis Bucher, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony a bridal dinner was served. Covers were laid for seventy five guests. A large tiered wedding cake, topped with a basket of flowers and a miniature bridal party ascending to the tower of the wedding cake, centered the bridal table. Rev. Schultz gave toast to the bride and groom.

Mrs. Grotrian is a graduate of Decatur High School and of International Business College and has been employed in the office of the Schafer Company. Mr. Grotrian is a graduate of Monroeville High School and of International Business College and is employed in the credit department of The Wayne Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

After August 1st Mr. and Mrs. Grotrian will reside at 2414 McKee Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wehmeyer, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Welland, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grotrian, Decatur, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grotrian, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Werling Fort Wayne, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grotrian, Bristol, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grotrian, Monroeville, Indiana. Misses Leona and Francine Bucher, Decatur, Indiana.

THRUST ISSUES

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) came from Vatican city. There it was reported Bishop M. J. Gallagher would be urged to advise Father Charles E. Coughlin to restrict his speeches to religious subjects in order not to jeopardize a reported promise by President Roosevelt to establish a U. S. legation at the Holy See.

The legation suggestion was minimized by state department spokesmen, however. They doubted there was any intention to renew separate diplomatic relations at the Vatican.

Republican attention was centered on Chicago where party adherents gathered for notification ceremonies for Frank Knox, vice-presidential candidate, tonight. Gov. Alf M. Landon conferred with representatives of peace organizations and spent considerable time on Kansas state affairs.

PLAN EXHIBIT

A bed room suite, a family heirloom handed down to Gene from her family and used by her at Geneva, will be on exhibit. The bed room suite at the present time is owned by Mrs. Long, who bought it when Mrs. Porter left Geneva for California, only a few years before her death.

An interesting article will be a painting of Gene Stratton Porter's daughter Jeanette, at the age of 3, which was painted by Mrs. Charles Dugan of Decatur.

One of the most unusual articles is a doe skin money pouch made by Gene's father, the Rev. Mark Stratton, from a doe which he shot. This money pouch, containing $50, was presented to Mrs. Porter as a wedding gift.

Philip Kromer Dies At County Infirmary

Philip Kromer, 85, died last night at 9:30 at the county infirmary. Death was due to infirmities. He had been bedfast for the past four months.

The deceased was born in Mercer county, Ohio, on September 17, 1850. He was admitted to the infirmary on April 9, 1928. A nephew, Charles Snyder, living in the southern part of the county, is the only living survivor. The body was taken to the Wells funeral home in Geneva. Burial will be made in the Luftharger cemetery.

ARRIVALS

Word has been received here by friends and relatives of the birth of a son Bernard Thomas to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gladen of Sunny Vale, Cal. Mrs. Gladen was formerly Miss Thelma Carper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Carper of west of the city.

Senator Donahey Is Struck By Lightning

Solomons Island, Md., July 30—(UP)—Sen. Vic Donahey, D. Ohio, recovered today aboard his yacht, Ohio, from severe burns suffered late yesterday when he was struck by lightning.

The bolt struck a fishing boat, the Catfish, knocking the senator down. He was unconscious for nearly half an hour, but was revived as the boat neared shore.

Report Of Coughlin "Silencing" Grows

Vatican City, July 30.—(UP)—Bishop M. J. Gallagher of Detroit and Bishop Joseph Schrembs of Cleveland conferred with vatican officials today, presumably about audiences with the pope at Castel Gandolfo, probably tomorrow.

Despite Bishop Gallagher's frequent statements to the contrary and the vatican's secretary, the impression was growing in well-informed quarters that the vatican would urge Bishop Gallagher to advise Father Charles E. Coughlin to restrict his radio speeches to religious subjects during the presidential campaign.

Trade in a Good Town — Decatur

To Move Regional Headquarters Soon

Indianapolis, July 30.—(UP)—The regional headquarters of the rural resettlement administration, serving Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan, will be moved here from Champaign, Ill., during the week-end, Carl Hoffman, general superintendent of buildings for the RRA in Washington, announced today.

The first truck load of office equipment and supplies will be started for Indianapolis tonight, Hoffman said. Officers here are expected to be established and opened for business Monday morning, he said.

Approximately 350 persons are employed by the RRA which has an annual payroll aggregating $750,000.

Fort Wayne Truck Driver Is Killed

Hamilton, O., July 30.—(UP)—Charles W. Benton, 52, of 1225 Benton avenue, Fort Wayne, Ind., was killed near here today when the truck he was driving from Fort Wayne to Cincinnati, left the road at a curve.

Angelo de Gregory, 42, Fort Wayne fruit dealer who was riding with Benton, was cut and bruised. He was taken to a hospital.

They were coming to Cincinnati for produce.

Cattle Are Shipped From Drought Area

Indianapolis, July 30.—(UP)—Approximately 1,000 head of cattle from the North Dakota drought stricken regions have been shipped into Indiana for pasturing, J. Leonard Aaby, state veterinarian, said today.

The cattle are being kept under a strict quarantine to prevent spreading of any disease which they may have contracted during the extreme hot and dry weather, Aaby said.

Pleads Not Guilty To Acting As Spy

Washington, July 30.—(UP)—John S. Farnsworth, former U. S. navy lieutenant commander charged with espionage in connection with selling naval secrets to Japanese government agents, pleaded not guilty today before District of Columbia supreme court Justice Oscar R. Lurhing.

* Farnsworth was courtmartialed from the service in 1927 on charges of misconduct and was indicted last Thursday on the espionage charges.

The indictment specifically accuses him with selling a confidential book, published by the navy department in 1922 entitled: "The service of information and security" to a Japanese officer.

U. Of Chicago Coach Is Leading In Poll

Chicago, July 30.—(UP)—Clark Shaughnessy of the University of Chicago held a lead of 7,000 points today as early returns were tabulated in the newspaper poll to select a head coach for the 1936 college all-stars. Shaughnessy had 33,789 points, Bo McMillin, Indiana, 26,973; Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern, 22,527; and Bernie Bierman, Minnesota, 22,054. The all-stars were picked to play the Detroit Lions, professional champions.
