GIRL UNAFRAID BY GLADYS JOHNSON

Cecile's Interest in Cyril Revealed.
CHAPTER XLVI.
"BEAUTIFUL but crazy!" Mary mused to Tom when they had left and were driving down the grade in the quiet evening light. "But what can I do? She's of age—and in her right mind, though she doesn't act it!" After a moment of silence she burst out vigorously. "And moreover, she's dead right! I'd do the same thing if it were Fred lying there in Ken Gleason's place."
But Mary's generous opinion, or the world's selfish one, made little difference after all to Ardeith.
Tranquil days and deep, star-filled nights, each one bringing returning strength to Ken. Little by little reality pushed in upon him once more. He watched the girl moving about the room, his mind groped back over the past days. Something like terror came into his eyes.
"It's all wrong, dear," he said slowly. "Oh, you shouldn't have done this! What will people—what will everyone say. And—his thin hands moved nervously, "I can't make it right for you."
Ardeith had been sitting by the window shelling peas for dinner. She rose and came over to his side. She held his head against her breast, kissed his closed eyes. "It's all right now," she said softly. "It's only wrong when we're apart, Ken."

Idle Gossip.
Down in the city the affair created a large ripple of excited gossip. The Spy seized upon it eagerly and carried an insinuating article blithering with innuendoes. Cecile was furious with anger. She did not love Ken but she had no intention that another woman should have him. She put on the role of the outraged wife and spite sharpened her tongue.
"That is the woman who ruined my married life!" she stated dramatically, her green-blue eyes flashing hatred. "Ken has been carrying on this affair all these years—that is really why I left him."
From lip to lip it went, repeated avidly, hurting those who loved the girl. Hurting loyal Tom and Mary; making little Ah Ling's black eyes flash with rage.
Ah Ling—that curious link in the chain of circumstances. The link Cecile had never considered. And Cecile had forgotten, too, that when a link is worn too thin it will snap.
Upon Tom had fallen the task of closing the shop and selling the stock which still remained.
The small store was haunted with memories for him. Memories of quiet evenings when he had called on Ardeith, remembering the sunlight on her hair the first day when she had bought the shop from Jeanette. The memory of that first day when he had come in here with Ken and had seen her,
