match-makers there without much promising material to work on for the moment. Ann Sheridan and Edward Norris led the parade and Anne Nagel and Ross Alexander followed up with an elopement to Yuma. The third couple, of course, being Joan Blondell and Dick Powell.

Barring unexpected developments, the next honeymooners probably will be Marie Wilson and Director Nick Grinde.

Do movie titles sound crazy to you? Then sit down and try to invent a few. Samuel Goldwyn wanted a new name for the Merle Oberon-Brian Aherne picture, "Love Under Fire," so he offered a $50 prize for any acceptable suggestion from employees on the lot.

These people work and think pictures all the time and, presumably, should know something about what makes a good title.

Yet here are some submitted: "The Sun Never Sets on British Soil," "Red Riorian's Romance," "The Hero's Love Ends in Love," "The Heart That Once," "Royalty, Loyalty and Love" and "Her Ladyship's Love Quest."

Forty per cent of the 400 titles received contained the word "love". Which ought to prove something or other.

Here and There in Hollywood. . . . Busby Berkeley is putting in Hollywood's longest hours these days. He goes right from the courtroom to the studio and works on the final number for "Gold Diggers of 1937". . . . Jack Mulhall's son, Jack, Jr., has a job in the mail room at Paramount. . . . Leon Janney has been very ill, his manager phones in to say, but is recuperating now. He had pneumonia.

When an actor does a good scene, Director Michael Curtiz pulls a John D. Rockefeller and presents him with a bright new diamond.

Frances Farmer was a year older Saturday. But she won't be worrying about it for quite a few years yet. . . . That was Janet MacLeod, Pasadena socialite, dining with Dick Foran at the Brown Derby. . . . And Bobby Vernon is back at Paramount after a three weeks' illness.

B. Adams. This was the first meeting after the summer months and the regular routine of business was attended to. Mrs. William Affolder assumed the presidency for the next six months, replacing Mrs. Dale Moses.

Mrs. George Walton, chairman of the program committee, gave out the new programs. Plans were made for the winter meetings.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The Union township women's club will meet Thursday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock with Mrs. Marion Stults. Assisting hostesses are the Mesdames Jacob Barkley, Agnes Ross and Mrs. Hubert Zerkie. The meeting was formerly announced for Wednesday.

YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB HAS OPENING MEETING

The opening fall meeting of the Young Matrons' club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Tillmon Gehrig, with Mrs. Dallas Goldner assisting hostess.

The entertaining rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of fall flowers. The guests were seated at small tables centered with fall flowers. A delicious two course dinner was enjoyed.

After the dinner a discussion was held concerning the year's program. Mrs. Merlin Doan was given the door prize. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Doan.

The St. Vincent de Paul society will meet at the K. of C. home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Hostesses are the Mesdames Nick Braun, Will Lose and Arthur Meyers.

The home missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon, October 1. Hostesses are the Mesdames Ross Mallonee, Jesse Roop, T. H. Holeapple, F. WHY PUT UP WITH PIMPLES, WRINKLES AND A SALLOW SKIN?

So many women throw their charm and beauty away—look years older than they are—because they neglect common constipation. They forget that badly balanced meals, over a period of years, can change how they look and feel.

Often their menus lack the "bulk" needed for regular habits. Then constipation, the beauty-killer, sets in. Other effects may be headaches, listlessness, sleeplessness.

Get "bulk" back into your meals with a delicious cereal: Kellogg's All-Bran. It absorbs moisture within the body, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Just eat two tablespoons daily, either as a cereal or in cooked dishes. All-Bran is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
