LONDON MAKES REPORT PUBLIC

Governor Landon Continues Attack On Social Security Act

Topeka, Sept. 30.—(U.P.)—Gov. Alf M. Landon, pursuing his attack on the administration's social security legislation, today made public a part of the 20th century fund report supporting his charges that the workers old age insurance plan is unsound.

The report, which he said "had been held up" presumably until after election, said that "many of the defects of the old age security program were the result of hasty and ill-considered amendments which altered considerably the original proposal of the committee on economic security."

The 20th century fund, Gov. Landon explained, is supported by the Filene foundation. Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, has been a vigorous supporter of President Roosevelt.

"This is part of a general study of the social security act," the Republican presidential nominee said as mimeographed copies were passed out at his press conference.

"Study of the Townsend plan was published by them last July but although this was completed in April or May it has been held up."

NUTS AND DOLTS

Much has been said about the day-dreaming driver. But what of the wool-gathering walker? Blissfully, with his mind in the clouds, he steps out into the No Man's Land between intersections. To him, because he sees no danger, there is no danger. But he's due for a rude awakening from love's sweet dream.

Insurance Company statisticians show that 4,500 pedestrians met death while crossing between intersections last year. Nearly 75,000 others were injured. This phase of jay-walking alone accounted for more than 25 per cent of all pedestrian deaths and injuries in 1935.

If you would live out your allotted span, cross at intersections only, and wait for the signal.

Stunning Ensemble with A New Blouse

To Wear Now and Later 'Neath Your Fur Swagger Coat

Romantic Rumors Revolve 'Round Robert

Robert Taylor
In addition to rating as the new No. 1 lover of the screen, Robert Taylor, sensational new star, is acquiring considerable of a reputation as a heart breaker in Hollywood where his affairs are one of the leading topics of the day. Although he maintains that he prefers the bachelor life, his course in the film colony has already linked him with three of the more attractive celluloid celebrities—Irene Hervey, to whom he was engaged for a time, a romance now ended; Janet Gaynor, with whom he has been seen on numerous occasions recently, and Barbara Stanwyck, whom observers predict will soon become Mrs. Robert Taylor. She was recently divorced from Frank Fay.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL
Copyright, 1936.
King Features Syndicate, Inc.
HOLLYWOOD—None of the birds are so earnest about their picture making as Lily Pons.

In fact, from the point of view, she is positively ascetic. The tiny diva has just banned all parties until the finish of her picture at R-K-O. This goes for Saturday nights, too. She'll do nothing but work and rest between now and the latter part of October.

Says the diva: "I can't work and play at the same time. Besides, the smoky atmosphere at parties hurts my throat."

Warner Brothers were cold to the idea of Ann Dvorak going east, she and Leslie Fenton will not appear, after all, in the stage play, "Inner Silence." However, luck is with them in another direction. Fenton has been offered lead in the Republic picture, "House of Secrets." He is accepted and will remain in Hollywood until Ann is able to accompany him to Broadway.

The romance of Anne Nagel and Tom Alexander was not a case of love at first sight. The two met in the picture, "Hot Money." Anne was dressed as a spinster secretary, with her hair combed severely back and with a pair of disfiguring spectacles.
