

Test Your Knowledge

Can you answer seven of these ten questions? Turn to page four for the answers.

1. Where is Description Island?
2. Historically, which is the oldest alcoholic beverage?
3. Where is a debenture?
4. Who was Samuel Rogers?
5. What is the medical term for softening of the brain?
6. How many species of insects are there?
7. What is an ameter?
8. In classical mythology, what was the food and drink of the gods?
9. In which European country is the river Ebro?
10. Give the origin of the proverb, "Where there's a will there's a way."

Trade in a Good Town — Decatur

COURT HOUSE

Estate Case
A petition to determine the inheritance tax filed in the estate of Rosanna Henley was referred to the county assessor.

Case Dismissed
A suit on contract brought by Harry Smith against Earl Haskell was dismissed and costs were paid by the plaintiff.

Case Continued
A suit on contract brought by Harry Smith against Earl Haskell was continued until the next term of court.

Modification Asked
A petition was filed by the plaintiff in the divorce suit brought by Ed C. Engle against Lulu V. Engle to modify a former order of the court to give him custody of the child. Notice was ordered to the sheriff of Allen county for the defendant, returnable January 12.

Summons Issued
Alias summons were ordered issued to the sheriff of Huntington county for Mary Taylor and Urpel Hall, returnable February 1, in the partition suit brought by Clifton Shoemaker and Ruth Hollingsworth against Amos P. Shoemaker and others.

ZERO WEATHER

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)
Minnesota, the Dakotas, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan, and Indiana. "Much colder" weather was predicted for New York, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Pennsylvania

The Story of Presidential Inaugurations

How the inauguration ceremonies started, the story of each one from George Washington down to Franklin D. Roosevelt, when and where each President took the oath of office, the account of the ceremonies for each one—it is all in the new bulletin just ready for you at our service bureau in Washington. Send the coupon below, with 4 cents enclosed, for your copy:

CLIP COUPON HERE

Dept. 400, Washington Service Bureau, Daily Democrat, 1013 Thirteenth Street, Washington, D. C.
I want a copy of the bulletin PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATIONS and enclose four cents in coin or postage stamps, to cover return postage and handling costs:

NAME _____
STREET and No. _____ STATE _____
CITY _____
I am a reader of the Decatur Daily Democrat, Decatur, Ind.

and New Jersey.
Only snow in prospect appeared destined for the Great Lakes area. A foot of snow was reported in the Dakotas.

Nebraska Launches Unicameral System

Lincoln, Neb. Jan. 5.—(UP)—Nebraska launched the nation's first one-house, non-political legislature today and sailed into uncharted legislative seas.

Its 43 legislators, elected on a non-partisan ticket, convened in the pretentious $10,000,000 capitol building without a precedent to guide them.

N. A. BIXLER
OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined - Glasses Fitted
HOURS
8:30 to 11:30 12:30 to 5:00
Saturdays, 8:00 p. m.
Telephone 135.

Neutrality Act Of Major Importance

Washington, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Majority leader Joseph T. Robinson advised the senate today that neutrality legislation will be the first important action in the new session.

Roosevelt Message To Be Broadcast

Washington, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Politics returned to the radio waves today as senators and congressmen, who filled the networks with their campaign speeches last fall, met for the start of the 75th congress. National Broadcasting Co., Columbia Broadcasting systems and Mutual Broadcasting company scheduled programs alternating between

MARKET REPORTS

DAILY REPORT OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS

Brady's Market for Decatur, Berne, Craigville, Hoagland and Willshire. Closed at 12 Noon.

Corrected January 5.

No commission and no yardage. Veals received Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

100 to 120 lbs.	$8.35
120 to 140 lbs.	8.45
140 to 160 lbs.	9.55
160 to 200 lbs.	10.20
200 to 275 lbs.	10.35
275 to 300 lbs.	10.10
300 to 350 lbs.	9.85
350 lbs. and up	9.55
Roughs	7.25
Stags	12.00
Wealers	9.00
Ewe and wether lambs	8.00
Buck lambs	8.00
Yearling lambs	4.00

INDIANAPOLIS LIVESTOCK

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Livestock:
Hog receipts, 10,000; holdovers, 991; market steady to 25c lower; 160-170 lbs., $10.45; 180-200 lbs., $10.50; 200-225 lbs., $10.55; 225-250 lbs., $10.60; 250-275 lbs., $10.65; 275-300 lbs., $10.70; 300-325 lbs., $10.75; 325-350 lbs., $10.80; 350-400 lbs., $9.60; 150-160 lbs., $10; 140-150 lbs., $9.75; 130-140 lbs., $9.50; 120-130 lbs., $9.25; 110-120 lbs., $9; 100-110 lbs., $8.75; sows, steady to weak bulk, $8.75.

Cattle, 2,700; calves, 700; very little done on steers and yearlings, buying sentiment generally weak to lower; heifers, cows steady, but market not as dependable as Monday; bulls weak; early heifer top, $9; bulk, $6-$8; beef cows, $4.50-$5.50; cutter grades, $3.50-$4.25; wealers, 50c higher; bulk better grades, $12.50-$13.
Sheep, 5,000; lambs 25c higher; bulk fed westerns, $10; bulk natives, $9.75-$10; yearlings steady to 25c higher at $8.50-$8.75; slaughter sheep, 25 to 50c higher; bulk fat ewes, $3-$4; top, $4.50.

CHICAGO GRAIN CLOSE

	May	July	Sept.
Wheat	$1.32 1/2	$1.15 1/2	$1.12 1/2
Corn, New	1.09 1/2	1.05 1/2	1.01 1/2
Old	1.06 1/2	1.00 1/2
Oats	.52	.45 1/2	.43 1/2

FORT WAYNE LIVESTOCK

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Livestock:
Hogs, 20c lower; 225-250 lbs., $10.50; 200-225 lbs., $10.40; 250-275 lbs., $10.40; 275-300 lbs., $10.35; 180-200 lbs., $10.25; 160-180 lbs., $10.25; 300-350 lbs., $10.15; 150-160 lbs., $9.60; 140-150 lbs., $9.35; 130-140 lbs., $9; 120-130 lbs., $8.70; 100-120 lbs., $8.45.

EAST BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

East Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Livestock:
Hogs, receipts, 500; steady; better grade 150-240 lbs., $11.25; some-what plainer kinds $11.20; trucked-ins $10.65; 150 lbs., $10.75.

CLEVELAND PRODUCE

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Produce:
Butter, firm; extras, 38c; standards, 35c.
Eggs, unsettled; extra grade 27 1/2c; extra firsts, 26 1/2c; current receipts, 26c; pullet firsts, 23c.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET

BURK ELEVATOR CO.
Corrected January 5.
No. 1 Wheat, 60 lbs. or better $1.29
No. 2 Wheat, 58 lbs. 1.28
Oats 1.45
Old Yellow Corn 1.45
Soya Beans, No. 2 Yellow 1.38
New No. 4 Yellow Corn $1 to $1.36
Rye 90c

CAMPBELL MARKETS

Berling Produce Bldg.
East Jefferson St. Phone 156
Large White Eggs, doz. 26c
Large Brown Eggs, doz. 24c
Medium Eggs, doz. 21c
Pullet Eggs, doz. 15c
Heavy Chix, lb. 12-13c
Heavy Hens, lb. 13-14c
Heavy Pullets, lb. 14-15c
Leghorn Chix, lb. 9-10c
Leghorn Hens, lb. 10-11c
Ducks, lb. 12c
Geese, lb. 11c
Turkey Hens, lb. 14c
Turkey Toms, lb. 12c
Rabbits, lb. 12c

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

RATES
One Time—Minimum charge 25c for 20 words or less. Over 20 words, 1/4c per word.
Two Times—Minimum charge of 40c for 20 words or less. Over 20 words 2c per word for the two times.
Three Times—Minimum charge of 50c for 20 words or less. Over 20 words 2 1/2c per word for the three times.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Chevrolet 32 wheel truck. Model A Ford dual wheel truck, cheap. Busche, Chevrolet Garage.

FOR SALE—Fresh cow with by side. Julius Schultz, 888 E.

FOR SALE—3 day old heifer. Lawrence Heckman, R. R. 1, miles north Decatur state road.

FOR SALE—Brood sow with pigs, or will trade for good cow. Fred D. Ross, Decatur.

FOR SALE—Three yearling Ben Elting, Phone 5591.

FOR SALE—Holstein cow, calf. Fresh January 3. Bros. Phone J-860. Decatur, Ind.

Farms for Spring Possession
104 acres on road 14, west of Wayne, all black level corn good bldgs. Price $5500.00, terms 5 acres, 5 mile of Decatur, a grain and stock farm. 40 acres near Monroeville, elect. farm good black land, price $4250. 27 acres north of Ft. Wayne on 27, excellent bldgs., lights, etc. $9000. Loans on improved land at 4 1/2%. Roy E. Schickel, Decatur, Ind. Phone 117 or 118.

FOR SALE—Quarters of beef. Herman Bosse, route 4, miles south and three north Decatur.

FOR SALE—Girl's coat, size excellent condition. Phone 462.

MISCELLANEOUS

TO THE SOURCE—Chiropractic goes to the source of disease the spine. By removing the cause the cure follows as a matter of course. Consult Dr. Roy Anderson, 315 N. 4th St. Phone 1193.

I will select men to train electric refrigeration and air conditioning positions. Experience unnecessary. Write Refrigeration Engineering Inst., Inc., Box 10, care Democrat.

MISCELLANEOUS—Furniture paired, upholstered or reupholstered at the Decatur Upholstering Shop, 222 S. Second St. Phone 420. Used furniture.

LOANS—Morris Plan Co. Loans at Suttles-Edwards Co. office. Attractive rates. 1. Bernadette loan man. Suttles-Edwards Co.

WANTED

WANTED—Salesman, married with car to operate industrial insurance debt in city of Decatur. Reply to Box R.R. this office.

WANTED—Sewing Machines. Singer Sewing machines and all makes repaired. Leave call for Singer Representative, Springfield Furniture Co. Phone 199.

WANTED—Young man or reliable experienced woman for clerical Address replies to Box XYZ in care of Democrat office.

WANTED—Fresh cows on share by responsible party for Mar. 1. Harold Sheets, 2427 South Harrison street, Fort Wayne, Ind. 1074.

WANTED To Rent 2 or 3 rooms furnished or unfurnished, near Decatur. Phone 8475.

WANTED—Middleaged lady for light housekeeping for two elderly people. Write Box 555, care of office.

WANTED To Rent—House suitable for six in the family. Write possession anytime between now and March 1. Joseph K. route 4, Decatur.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST or Strayed—A red bull calf. Phone 8794.

LOST or STRAYED—60 pound pig, near the state line, black and white. Reward. Notify office.

FOUND—Three weeks old brown police dog puppy. Owner will have same by paying for ad. Phone 1074.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Modern six room house, South First street. Phone 334.

NEVER FOR MONEY by JAMES ASWELL

SYNOPSIS

Belinda Terrell loved Johnny Parkes dearly, but he was wealthy and she no longer was rich so she felt that if she married him now it would be for his money. She returned Johnny's ring but he told her it didn't make a bit of difference what her decision was. She was his from the beginning and he was "annoyed" by her even raising a question about their marriage. "I'll show him," says Belinda. "And when you've shown him what? You'll marry him," Foggy, her companion and former governess, tells her. Belinda stuns Foggy by saying that she has a job as a dinner companion with the J. C. Fuhrman Service. "Why shouldn't I cash in on the only thing I know?" Next morning, Belinda tries to slip out of the house because she owes Mrs. O'Hara, the housekeeper, two weeks' rent. To her astonishment, Mrs. O'Hara greets her cordially and hands her a receipt for a month's rent in advance. So, Johnny Parkes had had the insulting brass—! On the street, she meets Johnny in his luxurious car. She snubs him and when he insists on talking to her, Belinda says, "Can't you take a hint? You have bored me for years." She heads for the subway with Johnny calling after her, "You're a fibber, Belinda. I love you."

CHAPTER III

Sitting on the hard subway seat, facing a tired-eyed girl whose neck was choked by a wisp of fur so ratty and frayed that it was like the material nose of poverty, Belinda shuddered. If she could only think things out she could know exactly why, she had found it impossible in the space of a week to marry John Morton Parkes. If she could only think things out—but the actuality of needing a job crowded out speculative thought. She knew one thing, though: Johnny had, in a way, been robbing her for years of her self-reliance, her own identity. He was always there through the past—through the tinkling, soft, safe years; even before he was twenty—he was only twenty-five now. Johnny had been on hand with facile, ebullient solutions for every problem, every grief.

Why when he was seventeen, she remembered, he had informed her: "I've picked you, Belinda, for my girl. We're going to have a grand time from now on." Dimly her own half-hearted protest at such high-handedness came back with clear and sharp, "I don't know anything!" "Oh, dry up Belinda! You know you're my girl. I haven't got time for trashy arguments about it. I've got—I'm following a star! I'm going to be worth a hundred million dollars. Why, those people"—he made a wide, inclusive gesture to the world—"don't know anything!" His eyes shone. She accepted his statement of her status—and his own.

Then amazingly soon after the papers began to blossom with stories about Johnny Parkes—his string of restaurants in lower Manhattan, his greyhound kennels on Long Island, his various impossible but somehow profitable enterprises—and when such newsprints dubbed him the Gold Brick Kid—in those months there had been no opportunity to examine her tacit engagement to him. There had been no time.

Her father had died in mid-winter and left her the governess who had mothered her for fourteen years and a hundred and fifty dollars market value in stocks after debts had been paid.

Eating a two-dollar frappe in the oval room of the Ritz one noon she had looked across the table at Johnny and discovered, with a cool rigidity of fright, how desperately important it was that she marry him.

Simultaneously she had discovered that she could not, therefore, marry him at all.

Now she pressed her elbows close to her sides and drew her chin into her fur collar. The ruthless clangor of the car reminded her of the terror ahead. She probably had burned her bridge called Johnny. But a fragrance of youth and dusting powder rose faintly from her body; she closed her eyes and remembered the ended, fragrant years. She'd get a job and everything would be all right.

Jake Fuhrman's face displayed a sort of bland certainty that he could happen nowhere else but in New York. He was perhaps forty—a bilikin man with side hair combed unconvincingly across a pink pate and eyes that were round splashes of sad amazement. He had been a

Jake Fuhrman, opened her coat and sat down. He looked at her thoughtfully. "Well," he said, "it's one more for the book. One more won't do any harm." He extracted a card, with a puffing paw, from a drawer, selected a pen and began to ask questions. "My name is Miss Belinda Terrell. Certainly I'm not married, else I wouldn't be here." "Sh-h!" Jake frowned. "Now, let's be friends about this thing. We may both be starving in a week. Should we quarrel now?" He chuckled again. Belinda relaxed and smiled. He was harmless. "All right."

"You're that knockout," murmured Jake, more to himself. "I never thought you'd show."

clothing, a press agent for a Park Avenue performer, the editor of a Greenwich Village magazine which lasted one issue, ticket-taker in a dance hall, a broker in Long Island beer garden leases and, now, owner of the J. C. Fuhrman Service. Dinner Companions.

His office, on the thirty-fourth floor of the Gotham Building, was neat, bright and mystifying. There was a desk with two telephones; a large black book labeled Descriptions: a rectangular goldfish aquarium on a stand by the window. This block of water held, at first glance, no fish.

Today Jake Fuhrman paced his office unhappily. Only when he paused to peer into the aquarium did his round face soften and beam. Then he looked benign instead of merely absurd. In between these pauses he waddled, chewing on a fat cigar. From time to time he bestowed upon the telephones a glance that was half an accusation, half a plea.

When a hesitant knock came at the door—Jake had heard that kind before—he hurried over and sat down importantly behind his desk.

"Come in, sweetheart," he called. Belinda came in. She stood looking around cautiously, holding the door ajar.

"What're you afraid of, baby?" Jake wanted to know. "I'm the one that should be afraid!" He chuckled. "You're that knockout," he murmured, more to himself. "I never thought you'd show."

"I want a job, Mr. —"

"Fuhrman. I'm the business."

"You remember you gave me your card?"

Belinda, reassured as any woman would be by a brief appraisal of "Height?" "I don't know. Why should that matter?" "Well, Primo Carnera wouldn't want to take one of the Singer midgits out to dinner, would he?" Belinda laughed. "He might." "We'll put it five-five," Jake offered.

"I guess that's about right." "Drink?" Belinda rose. "I don't think I want a job after all."

"Now, now, now! What a touchy little girl. You mustn't be that way. Nobody said anything about having to drink, did they? Some of my best girls are non-drinkers, with repeat orders every other night."

Belinda let herself laugh. He wanted to know whether she had any identifying marks.

"I have a mole on my left arm, but it's absolute nonsense. Mr. Fuhrman, asking that."

"For the police."

"This sounds like a pretty awful job. Do I only get ten dollars for the risk of being dredged up out of the East River some day?"

"You get three dollars, and I get seven. But you get the tip. That's usually five, so you really make more than I do." He sighed and shuffled Belinda's card with several others. "That is, if you get an assignment. Say, sweetheart—He peered at her card again—'You never said whether you drink or not.'"

"One glass of Veuve Clicquot champagne before dinner. It has to be 1906 vintage."

"Doesn't drink or smoke," Jake murmured as he finished filling in. (To Be Continued)

Horse Sale

LA FONTAINE, IND.

FRIDAY, January 8, 1937

at 11:30 a. m. sharp

100 HEAD OF HORSES AND MULES. All Native.

Announcing our regular horse sales every Friday until May 1, 1937. If you want to buy, come; if you want to sell, bring your horse. We've got a horse for everybody. We've got the very one you are looking for.

We wish to announce at this time that starting Saturday, Jan. 9, milk cows will be sold promptly at 11:30.

LaFontaine is located on state road 15, ten miles south of Wabash and 8 miles north of Marion.

Dresbach and Kirk—Auctioneers.

Don't Forget the Date!

C. W. SPEICHER, Manager

PUBLIC SALE

On account of ill health I am quitting farming and will sell at Public Auction 1/2 mile South and 1/2 mile West of Glenmore, Ohio, 4 mile East and 1 mile South of Wren, Ohio; 4 1/2 miles West 1/2 mile North of Ohio City, on

THURSDAY, January 7, 1937

Commencing at 10:00 A. M.

8-HEAD OF HORSES—8

Matched team Dark Bay Mares 6 & 7 yrs. old, wt. 3370, both sound, good workers, a real pair of Brood Mares, both in foal, one Mare has 3 mo. old Sorrel Mare Colt by side; Sorrel Mare be 2 in April and Roan Horse Colt be 2 in April, both out of above mares, these two colts are extra good ones; Sorrel Horse 6 yr. old, wt 1760, sound and a good horse; Roan Mare 6 yr. old, a real brood mare, wt. 1800 in foal; Sorrel Mare 2 yr. old, wt. 1550, a real one, she is out of the Roan mare.

5-HEAD OF CATTLE—5

Brown Cow, 6 yr. old milking good flow; Roan Cow 5 yr. old, calf by side; White Cow, 3 yr. old, milking good flow; Roan Heifer open, a real fat butcher heifer; Jersey Cow 5 yr. old, calf by side.

HOGS & SHEEP—2 Duroc Sows; 7 Fall Pigs; Duroc Male Hog, full blood Spring Pig; 3 Sows farrow in Feb.; 3 Sows farrow in March. 12 Good Ewes, lamb first of April. FEED—35 shocks of Fodder.

IMPLEMENTS AND TOOLS

New J-Deere G. P. Tractor has only plowed about 100 acres; J-Deere 14 inch Tractor Plows new; J-Deere Tractor Disc new last spring; Deering Binder 8 ft. first class; Superior Fertilizer Grain Drill used 3 seasons; New Idea Cylinder Hay Loader used 2 seasons; Roderick Lean Riding Cultivator used 2 seasons; IHC Cultivator good; Studebaker Wagon 3 1/2" like new and 16 ft. Rack and Grain Bed; Farm Wagon with 16 ft. Rack and Grain Bed; CB&Q Corn Planter; Deering Corn Binder like new; Oliver 14" Riding Plow; New J-Deere Walking Plow 12"; 1 Heavy Hand Made Spike Tooth Harrow used 2 seasons; one 10 ft. Wood Frame Spike Tooth Harrow; Good Outpacer; New Idea Manure Spreader first class; McCormick Mower 6 ft. good; Clover Buncher; 8 bbl. Galvanized Water Tank; Auto Trailer; 2 Double Sows; Breeding Harness made by Hennerman, Van Wert, used 2 seasons; 5 Leather Collars; Gas Engine; Corn Crib 6x28x9 be easy to move.

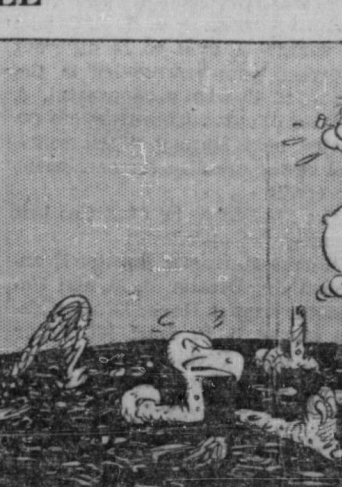

HH GOODS—Lyric Radio, electric; Round Dining Table; Library Table; and many articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS—CASH.

JAMES H. KRICK, Owner

Roy S. Johnson—Auctioneer. Lunch by U. B. Bethel Aid.

THIMBLE THEATER

NOW SHOWING—"CHICKEN FRICASEE"

By SEGAR