NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that Monday, May 3, 1937 will be the last day to pay your Spring installment of taxes. The county auditor's office will be open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. during the tax paying season. All taxes not paid by that time will become delinquent and an 8% penalty will be added, an additional 5% will be added for each year tax remains unpaid from first Monday in November. Those who have bought or sold property and wish a division of taxes are asked to come in at once. Call on the Auditor for errors and any reductions. The Treasurer can make no corrections.

The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty of delinquent taxes resulting from the omission of tax-payers to state definitely on what property the desire to pay, in whose name it may be found, in what township or corporation it is situated.

Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once, the law is such that there is no option left for the Treasurer but enforce the collection of delinquent taxes.

County orders will not be paid to anyone owing delinquent taxes. All persons are warned against them. Particular attention. If you pay taxes in more than one township mention the fact to the Treasurer. Also see that your receipts call for all your real estate and personal property.

In making inquiries of the Treasurer regarding taxes to insure reply do not fail to include return postage.

JEFF LIECHTY
Treasurer Adams County, Indiana.

Romance on a lost island of the Bahamas

RICH CARGOES

Henry C. Rowland's exciting new serial

Isobel took the gems in her cupped hands.

In a setting of oriental splendor, with an army of Caribs to do his bidding and a pet elephant to ride on, a rollicking old adventurer rules like an eastern potentate... until an unexpected guest arrives, to lay siege to the heart of his favorite niece.

Every chapter of this unusual tale teems with thrills and surprises. And one of the chief roles is played by the pet elephant.
