The meeting opened with roll call.

Evident

Even the most casual observer will note the completeness of our service, and the quiet dignity with which we conduct services.

These elements are important; more important, perhaps than the average person realizes - until their lack makes them conspicuous indeed.

ZWICK FUNERAL HOME

answered by current events. The girls decided to have a picnic at Sunset Park May 10.

Miss Flora Marie Lankenau was in charge of the program. The subject was "Famous German Musical Centers." Short stories were read by the Misses Flora Marie Lankenau, Evangeline Fuhrman and Barbara Burk.

A vocal solo was sung by Miss Janet Schrock and a piano solo played by Miss Marjorie Miller. At the close of the program the committee served a dainty luncheon.

Delay Special Relief Message To Next Week

Washington, April 13 — (UP)—The White House announced today that President Roosevelt's special relief message to congress for the 1938 fiscal year probably will be delayed until early next week.

The message, a request for funds to continue federal unemployment aid in the next fiscal year, had been tentatively scheduled to go to capitol hill tomorrow.

The delay was caused, officials said, because the budget bureau and the U. S. Treasury have not yet completed their work of making new estimates of government revenue and expenditures.

Fresh from market — new sheers, dots, prints and nets. Good selection. E. F. Gass Store.

Can Francisco — (UP)—The U. S. Navy has promised to mass 150 ships of the fleet at San Francisco in honor of the opening of the Golden Gate Bridge from May 27 to June 2.

PILL SLAVE FREED FROM CONSTIPATION

A convincing tribute is paid to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in this letter from Mr. F. C. Aminsen of Seattle.

"I suffered with constipation for many years and was compelled to use pills every night. Since I got your ALL-BRAN, it works fine. I was so deathly sick of taking pills. Now it is so different. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works so naturally, and is pleasant to eat."

Inside the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass that gently sponges out the intestines. It also supplies vitamin B to help tone the intestines, and iron for the blood.

You'll enjoy eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. As a cereal with milk or fruits, or in appetizing recipes. Two tablespoons every day are usually enough — three times daily if needed. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Behind the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

Copyright, 1937, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD—Clad in a black dress with a white collar, chubby Jane Withers is going to sing in the children's choir at the First Presbyterian church in Hollywood. The youthful actress, who gets a four-figure salary every week for portraying madcap little girls on the screen, attends services regularly at this since she came to Hollywood five years ago.

Identical twins, Billy and Bobby Mauch (pronounced "Maw"), give performances so nearly identical in "The Prince and the Pauper" that critics will bend many a lance disputing which is the better actor. Both are unreservedly fine, and this Warner Brothers picture was hailed by a preview audience both for its artistic merit and for its inevitable fan appeal.

Neither Billy nor Bobby Mauch was in the Warner Brothers Hollywood theater to hear themselves applauded. They were in New York. Also absent was Director William Keighley, but not so far away. He never sees the previews of his pictures — sends friends and shivers until he hears their verdict.

Chatter... Comptroller of the Currency J. F. T. O'Connor didn't give all his time to Elissa Landi after all. It was pretty Jayne Regan, of St. Louis and of Twentieth Century-Fox, who hung onto his arm at the Victor Hugo's... Gale Sondergaard has a new eight-carat diamond that practically blinds you. It is set in onyx and is a gift from her husband, Herbert Biberman, the director... Johnny Weissmuller is seeking consolation on the golf course. He and Richard Arien are off to Catalina for a tournament... Dolores Del Rio's mother is so ill. The star is taking a home for her in Palm Springs... It is cheering news for Colleen Moore's many friends that she is back in the Beverly Hills place and is planning to linger in Hollywood for a while... And Freddie Bartholomew is heaving a sigh of relief that a pair of impacted teeth are gone. The dentist gave him gas and Freddie recited the entire shipwreck sequence from "Captains Courageous".
