The state fair is one of the biggest and best ever held in Indiana.
It's recognized as a great Hoosier institution.

The weather man can give us this kind of weather for Indian summer and half of the winter, if he'll accept an advance order.

Make the rounds to the Decatur stores Saturday. New fall merchandise is on display and you can fill your wants in any line or article needed.

They're after Al Brady and his gang and no doubt the criminals will be run down by state and federal officers. The quicker they are disposed of the better the country will like it.

Several more new houses are being planned for Decatur and construction of them is expected to get underway in the near future.
We can use more houses for more people wish to make this city their home.

Watch for the 20 and 30 SPEED LIMIT signs in the residential and business districts. They are erected in your interest and to safeguard you against accident. If everybody obeys the warnings, very few auto accidents will occur.

Decatur's total rate for next year will not exceed $2.50 on the $100.
Of this total only 40 cents is levied by the civil city. The rate is one of the lowest enjoyed here in many years and proof that public affairs have been well administered.

Improvements at the Adams County Memorial Hospital are planned for next year, appropriations being made for building and equipment. A good and efficient hospital is a wonderful asset in any community and the people of Adams county are proud of the local institution.

The attention of readers of the weekly Farm Page in this paper is called to the special feature—"Farming It"—a series of interesting articles containing 100 clever ideas on the great industry. They were prepared by a farmer and he offers them for what they're worth to you.

Landscaping of the park area at the Decatur Homesteads will be carried out through a joint program sponsored by the U. S. government and the Chamber of Commerce. The grounds will be beautified with trees and shrubbery and the place made into a recreation

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Subscribers are requested to give old and new address when ordering paper changed from one address to another.

For example: If you change your address from Decatur R. R. 1 to Decatur R. R. 2, instruct us to change the paper two.

center, not only for residents of the division, but for the use of the public. Paul Gardner, a landscaper and city planning expert will direct the work, which will get under way at once.

With low gas and electric rates Decatur people can enjoy the conveniences which these utilities provide. The natural gas to be provided here will reduce costs to patrons, the company officials guarantee and the low light and power rates have been in effect for some time. Few towns in the state have a lower electric rate than five cents a kilowatt, that being the top schedule in the city's rate structure. The industrial rate is one of the lowest in the state and there is evidence in the local plants that they appreciate it and are willing to expand in those cities that offer low electric rates.

SOYBEAN'S IMPORTANCE:

The increased planting of soybeans and the growing commercial uses to which the product has been put have raised it to a position of national importance. Farmers are devoting additional acreage to the crop, while scientists have found many profitable outlets for the soybean oil, which figures prominently in numerous industrial enterprises.

Keller E. Beeson of Purdue University is an officer of the American Soybean Association, which has an exhibit at the state fair. Housed in a special railway coach, the exhibit is sponsored by the national organization in co-operation with the United States Department of Agriculture and state agricultural colleges.

The soybean has a remarkable background in addition to the peculiar status of novel use both to farm and industry. It was grown for centuries in the Orient under primitive methods. The bean now is raised in most sections of the United States. Besides the acreage harvested for hay, the national production has reached 45,000,000 bushels of the beans. Commercial processes absorb 85 per cent of the yield.

Feed manufacturers, food processors, paint producers and foundries use the bulk of the crop. The automobile industry accounts for a considerable part of the soybean supply in the manufacture of accessories. Soybean oil is used in core sand at foundries. Paint and varnish makers purchase a major portion of the beans. Few vegetable products can equal the variety of uses for which the soybean is adaptable.—Indianapolis Star.

Modern Etiquette By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is really the best time for a bride-to-be to acknowledge a wedding gift?
A. The preferred time is to mail a note of thanks on the very day the gift is received.
Q. What is the proper way to hail a taxi?
A. By merely lifting the hand, the same as when signaling a streetcar.
Q. When a salad fork or a dessert fork is the only silver on the table, where should it be placed?
A. To the right of the plate.

Rag Rugs
Rag rugs should be held by the sides instead of the ends when shaking them. All the pull is on the threads joining the rags when holding them by the ends and the rug will wear out quickly, as it loosens the threads.

SIX DEMOCRATIC

velt third term generally took the position that the American tradition dating back to George Washington against third term presidents should be ignored.

Third term opponents, however, held that the tradition should not be violated no matter what their feeling toward the chief executive and the new deal.

Governor Murphy declared that the "general welfare of the people may demand President Roosevelt for re-election in 1940."

"We are going through a critical period," Murphy declared, "and government, as it is today in the United States, must go ahead. To continue that progressive leadership it may be necessary to call upon Mr. Roosevelt, in the public need, to run for a third term."

"The third term tradition must be subordinated to the need of the nation. The situation is such that it is not a question of party. Government in this country must not go backward."

In regard to his own possible candidate, Murphy stated that "it is too early to predict or suggest who might lead a new party movement. I have said before that there is no reason why I should be a candidate."

Earle has been on record for a Roosevelt third term for several months. His most recent expression, made while visiting abroad, was that "President Roosevelt is undoubtedly the greatest American today. There is no one in the Democratic party with his outstanding ability and I would welcome a third term for his presidency."

Previously he had declared:
"Between the third term precedent and the welfare of the country can any patriotic citizen hesitate as to which course he will take?

I am for Franklin Delano Roosevelt of president in 1940 unqualifiedly and finally."

ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Fuelling, route three, are the parents of a baby boy, born at the Adams county memorial hospital this morning at 12:03 o'clock. The baby weighed four pounds and 11 ounces at birth and has been named Wilmer

Cupid's Aim Poor Among Movie Celebrities

Dan Cupid's aim has been notoriously poor as respects Hollywood of late. Several much-heralded romances and much-publicized weddings have gone on the rocks. After being wedded less than a month, beautiful June Lang separated from her husband, Vic Orsatti, Martha Raye and Buddy Westmore aired their troubles in court after a brief marital life. George Brent and Constance Worth also split, the former suing for annulment of their recent marriage. And Judy Canova of radio fame is reported to have broken with Edgar Bergeh, the ventriloquist. All of which suggests that too much money and the difficulty of combining a career and domesticity often make Cupid's lot in the film colony a difficult one and account for the high mortality rate of romances.

MANY FAIL TO FILE RETURNS

Internal Revenue Collector Reports Employers Liabile

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—Collector of internal revenue Will H. Smith today revealed that a check-up of Adams county indicated that many employers liable for the taxes imposed under Title VIII of the social security act are not filing returns and paying the tax.

"Apparently many feel that unless they employ eight or more they are not liable," Mr. Smith said.
"This is not true. The Title VIII tax is due from every taxable employer and from his employee. It is due and payable monthly. The employer deducts one per cent of the employee's wages and adds another one per cent as his own share of the tax."

Title VIII of the social security act, approved August 14, 1935, imposes an excise tax upon all employers (irrespective of the number of individuals they employ) and an income tax upon their employees measured by the amount of wages paid on and after January 1, 1937, with respect to employment on and after that date. The rate of each tax for the year 1937, 1938 and 1939 is one per cent of the wages paid. The law provides that the employer shall collect the employee's tax by deducting the amount of such tax from the wages as and when paid. Every employer who, during any calendar month beginning after December 31, 1936, employs one or more individuals in a business not specifically exempt from the tax, is required to make a return on form SS-1. The basis of pay and period of time worked are immaterial. Therefore, temporary or occasional employees are liable for tax just the same as permanently employed individuals.
This tax must be reported monthly and the returns for one month must be filed not later than the end of the following month.

Collector Smith further stated that drastic penalties, ranging from 5 per cent to 25 per cent of the tax due, are to be assessed against employers who willfully neglect to pay this tax monthly, and pointed out that when an employer makes a deduction from the employee's taxable wages under the provisions of title VIII, he becomes the custodian of federal funds. The law also makes the employer liable for the employee's tax on all wages paid by him, whether he collects it from his employee or not.

It is suggested that any employers liable for the tax who have not filed returns should communicate with the office of the collector of internal revenue at once in order to avoid further penalties and to facilitate the setting upon records in their behalf.

ANTIQUE FIRE ENGINE READY FOR EMERGENCY

Clintonville, Wis. —(UP)—Clin-tonville's original horse-drawn fire engine has not been used for 25 years, but it stands polished and ready in the station awaiting emergency.

Firemen said the outmoded engine will be used in case of a service should fail during a fire.
Originally the old engine had a team assigned to it. Instead of city offered $5 to the driver of first team to reach the station and pull the engine to the fire.

Missouri Wheat Near Record

Jefferson City, Mo.—(UP)—Agricultural authorities estimated Missouri farmers would receive 134,000 for this season's wheat crop, the largest since 1914, and the second largest in the state's history.
