

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that Monday, November 1, 1937, will be the last day to pay your Fall installment of taxes. The county treasurer's office will be open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. during the tax paying season. All taxes not paid by that time will become delinquent and a 2% penalty will be added. Also interest at the rate of 8% will be charged from the date of delinquency until paid. Those who have bought or sold property and wish to have a division of taxes are asked to come in at once.

Call on the Auditor for errors and any reductions. The Treasurer can make no corrections. The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty of delinquent taxes resulting from the omission of tax-payers to state definitely on what property they desire to pay, in whose name it may be paid, in what township or corporation it is situated.

Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once, the law is such that there is no option left for the Treasurer but enforce the collection of delinquent taxes.

The annual sale of delinquent lands and lots will take place on the second Monday in April, 1938 at 10:00 A. M.

County orders will not be paid to anyone owing delinquent taxes. All persons are warned against them.

No receipts or checks will be held after expiration of time, as the new depository law requires the Treasurer to make daily deposit.

Particular attention: If you pay taxes in more than one township, mention the fact to the Treasurer, also see that your receipts call for all your real estate and personal property.

In making inquiries of the Treasurer regarding taxes to insure reply do not fail to include return postage.

dently had severed blood vessels and had shattered within the head without emerging. Blood oozed from the mouth and ears. No one reported having heard the discharge of the gun, which had been placed against the neck on the right side a little in front of the right ear. Dehl had been treated in two government hospitals, first at the Hines hospital in Chicago and then at the hospital at Marion. He had returned home from Marion about three weeks ago.

Born in Lancaster township, the victim of the tragedy, was the son of William and Rose Tucker-Dehl, and was born April 16, 1895. With the exception of the time he was in army service, he spent all his life in Lancaster township. He

"THE SILVER ROOD MYSTERY"
by Lewis Allen Browne

CHAPTER XXXV

Mason had quite a dinner for me. I told Sally what had happened. I could guess that Mason was listening on every opportunity, and took care not to say anything that would give away the fact that Morin claimed to be Montie's daughter.

"I don't see how you could resist the temptation to go through those letters, right then and there," Sally said.

"I wanted to take my time, Old Girl," I explained. "I wanted to get the box out there safely, then go through it. I'm betting some of those letters are from Nola Lutzmann—what was that?"

"What? You're getting panicky, Harley. I didn't hear anything."

I got up softly and walked to the arch. One of the portiers swayed lightly. Mason was just disappearing into the butler's pantry.

I sat down again with a grin. "I thought I heard some queer sound. It's your perfect, but noisy, butler."

"Why shouldn't he be curious? I don't suppose, in all of his experience, he ever got so close to a crime mystery before."

I finished eating and we went up to the room.

The letter postmarked in Hoboken and dated, quite clearly, "Nov. 12, 1914" would have been enough to knock Morin's claim into forty cocked hats. It was addressed to Nola Lutzmann at a place in New York that was once one of a row of cheap rooming houses. At this time a forty-story block was there.

It was in the same queer handwriting as the letter purporting to be from Mrs. Felder to Nola Morin telling her she was Gerard Montie's daughter.

"Dear Nola," it read. "Your little Nola sends so much love to her mama, wit thanks, and wit kiss, for the lovely waxen dolly for her three years birthday. It comes joost on time for the ten of the month."

There was a great deal more, some of importance, as proof of Morin's attempted trickery, much that was of no importance; but just that much would have been sufficient.

"Three years back from November tenth, 1914, would have been when, Sally?" I cried.

"November ten, 1911, can't you?"

"When Nola Lutzmann got to this country with Mr. Montie and Mrs. and Mrs. Stapleton, it was May, early in May, 1911. Mrs. Stapleton is quite positive of this and has plenty of proof."

"And so," Sally counted on her fingers, woman-like.

"And so," I said, "since Montie never saw Nola Lutzmann until the first week in May, this Nola Morin is the daughter of the husband Nola Lutzmann ran away from—well, at least, she isn't Montie's daughter."

"That's so, Harley."

"They forged the letters and dates, made it appear that Morin was born on February 10, 1912, which nicely pinned the parentage on Montie—as much as it can be pinned on any man."

was a lineman by occupation. His marriage to Miss Lillian Smith took place at Decatur June 18, 1921. She survives with two daughters, Lois and Betty. Surviving also are the mother, residing in Craigville, a brother, Frank, also of Craigville, and a sister, Mrs. Velma John of Detroit. The father died in 1918. A sister, Carrie, also is deceased.

He was a member of the Christian Union church at Craigville and of the American Legion.

One-Fifth Cent Loot

Kiskunhalas, Hungary. — (UP) — "The unluckiest burglar in the world" was the title claimed by Alexander Girian when he was sentenced to six months for burglary of a store safe in the village baja. His total booty was one lone filler — equivalent to one-fifth of a U. S. cent.
