

IN SOCIETY

ROBERT SANDERS WEDDING OCCURS
 Miss Viola E. Reppert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reppert, and William Reppert, son of Mrs. R. H. Reppert, were united in marriage Saturday at twelve o'clock noon at the Reformed church, officiated by Rev. C. S. Schmid. The bride wore a green wool suit with black accessories and a coronet of white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo. The bride graduated from the high school in 1934 and has been employed at the Reformed church since that time. She was also bookkeeper of the auto license branch. Sanders is a foster daughter of Mrs. C. W. Tallman and Mrs. A. Schmid. The groom graduated from the high school with the class of 1934. He is an employee of the General Electric in Decatur. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will reside at the Rudolph Schug home on West Main street, Berne.

Behind the Scenes

in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD—Moot question today is whether Fernand Gravet won't succeed Adolphe Menjou as the actor with the biggest wardrobe in the film colony. Warners were requested by Mrs. Gravet to make arrangements to transfer half of her husband's wardrobe directly from the train to his bungalow at the studio.

The baggage question consists of 24 trunks and 13 suitcases.
 Rather imposing in view of the fact that the combined baggage of Wally Simpson and the Duke of Windsor amounts to only 40 trunks.

Five years ago after playing background music for a certain Paramount picture, Shep Fields squawked because his orchestra was not given screen credit.
 "Your name doesn't mean anything," he was told by the head of the studio music department.
 Must be quite a bit of satisfaction to Fields in his present deal for "The Big Broadcast". He not only gets screen credit all over the place but his pay check for five days' work is $40,000.

Picture-shy W. H. Gable, father of Clark Gable, finally consented to pose with his film star son. The few minutes spent before the camera may net him a fortune.
 For within a fortnight after the picture was distributed by a syndicate, the elder Gable got a letter from George M. Cross, a former business associate.
 "Just learned your whereabouts and that you are the father of Clark Gable," ran the message.
 Glad to inform you that a well is being drilled on the property we bought years ago, and that geologist's report gives us every hope of discovering oil.
 Gable gets heads for Oklahoma in the next few weeks to investigate the matter.

Shirley Temple's brother, Jack, as an assistant director on "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm". The picture is quite a family affair for Dixie Dunbar, also in the cast, has a brother working on the set as an electrician.

The Winchell-Bernie-Simon picture, "Love and Hisses", continues to be beset by sickness and injuries. Chick Chandler, in the act of pounding on Winchell's door in the film, slipped and suffered serious back injuries. He's in a plaster cast and will have to play all the rest of his scenes standing up. At night he has to sleep on a board.

Glenda Farrell and Drew Eberson are now completely reconciled. He's assistant director on her Warner picture, "Blondes at Work".

Spencer Tracy's seven-year-old son gets out a kid's newspaper which he distributes to families in the neighborhood. The last issue contains a review of "Big City".
 "You mustn't miss the new M. G. M. smash hit," advises the seven-year-old editor. "It stars my daddy, who is very good, and Luise Rainer, who is pretty good."

Chatter. . . The first student signed up for the new Mary Pickford-Henry Duffy school of the theater is Audrey Smith, daughter of Albert Smith, pioneer head of Vitaphone. . . Anita Louise and her mama are vacationing the Vilma Banky-Rod La Rocque house for a modest apartment. After their trip to Europe next spring, they'll build a home. . . Must have been a thrill to Mickey Rooney and Sidney Miller to hear their song, "That's What Love Will Do for You" plugged by Hal Kemp on the Chesterfield program the other night. Mickey writes the music and Miller the lyrics. . . Keeping up with the stay-up-laters. . . Alice Faye didn't stay home while Husband Tony Martin was at the world series. She was with a party of friends at the Coconut Grove to hear her former boss, Rudy Vallee. . . Vallee, incidentally, is a terrific hit at the Grove. . . June Lang can't make up her mind (or does she want to?) She dined at Levy's tavern one night with A. J. Blumenthal and the next with Abby Dreyfuss, the Texan with oodles of cash.

MILLIONS MORE FOR FINER TOBACCOS!

IS IT GOOD BUSINESS TO BUY COSTLIER TOBACCOS FOR CAMELS?

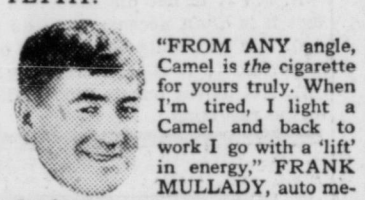

the answer is:
Camels are the Largest-Selling cigarette in America

"YOU BET I've been careful about my nerves. Smoke? All I want to. My cigarette is Camel." says LOU GERIG, Baseball's Iron Man. "With Camels I don't worry about jangled nerves."

"I SMOKE Camels and my nerves stay serene and unruffled. You see, I don't want to have those irritating little nervous habits," says window display expert, POLLY FETTIT.

"FROM ANY angle, Camel is the cigarette for yours truly. When I'm tired, I light a Camel and back to work I go with a 'lift' in energy," FRANK MULLADY, auto mechanic, says.

"AS A fashion designer spending long night hours creating new styles, I've grown to depend on the mellow companionship Camels give me," says the famous designer, RENEE MONTAGUE.

The pleasure you get out of a cigarette depends on what's put in it. And in the case of Camels that means finer, costlier tobaccos!

THROUGH the years, Camel has consistently spent millions of dollars more for choice, ripe tobaccos! That represents a way of doing business that smokers understand and appreciate. Millions of smokers have responded to the appeal of Camel's choice quality. Because of it, Camels have an attraction all their own! It's a happy experience to have confidence in your cigarette . . . to know that you are getting the good things out of smoking that you hope for. The plain fact that Camel does spend millions of dollars more for ripe, more costly tobaccos appeals to the common sense of American men and women. It is good business!

THE NEW CAMEL CARAVAN—TWO GREAT SHOWS IN AN HOUR'S ENTERTAINMENT!
 Includes "Jack Oakie College" and Benny Goodman's "Swing School"! Sixty five minutes of grand fun and music. Every Tuesday night at 9:30 p.m. E.S.T., 8:30 p.m. C.S.T., 7:30 p.m. M.S.T., 6:30 p.m. P.S.T., over WABC-Columbia Network.

"DUCK, SWORDFISH STEAK, and Boston cream pie—my favorites—are the most digestible foods. But with Camels at meals my digestion does a swell job," says BRUCE WALLIS, college senior.

"I OFTEN SAY a woman who runs a home needs healthy nerves as much as any athlete. So I smoke the cigarette that I know is mild—Camel," says MRS. ROBERT FENNIMORE, New York housewife.

"FOR YEARS I'VE chosen Camels. I notice Camels leave no after-taste," remarks MAXINE HOLLEN, department store salesgirl.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN A MATCHLESS BLEND

Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic. Skillful blending brings out the full flavor of these choice tobaccos.

Kendallville Huntingdon and Fort Wayne.

In the receiving line were Miss Haubold, her mother, Mrs. Carrie Haubold and Mrs. Palmer Elcher, acting president of the sorority. Patronesses of the sorority presided at the tea table. Appointments were in silver and pastel shades were used. A lovely arrangement of poms, roses, snapdragons and adjectives centered the tea table.

Miss Louise Haubold played selections on the piano during the afternoon and Mrs. Dan Tyndall sang a number of solos.

Miss Vivian Burk was general chairman of the affair with Mrs. Elcher and Mrs. Lawrence Linn assisting.

The Rev. Father John J. Gallagher performed the ceremony. Miss Rosemary Miller, of this city, and Richard Uiman, of Pittsburgh, cousin and brother of the bride, respectively, were the attendants.

Mrs. Parrish is a graduate of the Decatur Catholic high school and has been employed at the local General Electric plant.

Mr. Parrish is a graduate of the Decatur high school and is associated with the Michigan inspection bureau at Jackson, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Parrish will be at home in Jackson after October 24.

KAYE RUNYON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY
 Mrs. Kenneth Runyon entertained with a party Saturday afternoon from two to five o'clock honoring her son, Kay, on the occasion of his first birthday anniversary.

Games and contests were enjoyed and at the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments with Halloween appointments were served. Favors were clever witches with popcorn ball ladies and marshmallow faces. Each witch carried a broom which proved to be a lollipop.

Guests other than the honor guest included Colleen and Dickie McConnell, Jane Ann Brumley, Betty Jean Hollingsworth, Carol Kirsch, Sylvia Coffee, Ruth and Dale Smitley and Danny Kitson.

William T. Ruppert and daughter Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rupert and children Helen Maxine and Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rupert and daughter Darlene June, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rupert and children Shirley Ann and Ruby Pauline, of Monroe, and Mrs. Margie Armstrong and children Sylvia Ruth and Junior, of Geneva, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rupert and daughter Annabell of Decatur.

Preaching Mission To Continue This Week

The "Farther with Christ" preaching mission, which was conducted last week in the First Evangelical church, will continue throughout this week. Services will be held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Themes dealing with the vital religious elements in the life of the church will be presented. The public is invited to the services.

The services during last week were interesting and helpful to the goodly number who attended. The messages which were presented by the several guest ministers were refreshing and helpful. It is anticipated that the services this week will surpass those of last week. The interest in the preaching mission is on the increase. The church and the community need that which the preaching mission proposes—an experience in going "Farther with Christ."
