

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
By virtue of an order of sale issued from the Adams Circuit Court of Adams County, to me directed from the Clerk of said Court in favor of Home Owners Loan Corporation and against Lydia A. Shamp and Samuel E. Shamp, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on the 20th day of December, 1937, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. of said day, at the East door of the Court House, in the City of Decatur, County of Adams, State of Indiana, the following described real estate, situate in said County and State, to-wit:

1. Inlot Number three hundred twenty (320) in the southern addition to the town, now city, of Decatur, Adams County, Indiana.
2. I will at that time offer for sale the fee simple of said real estate together with the rents, issues, income and profits thereof to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said Order of Sale.

Said sale will be made without any relief from valuation and appraisal laws.
DATED this 17th day of November, 1937.

Dallas Brown
Sheriff of Adams County.
Nathan C. Nelson, Attorney
Nov. 17-24 Dec. 1

NOTICE TO NON RESIDENTS
In the Adams Circuit Court
November Term, 1937
THE STATE OF INDIANA
ADAMS COUNTY SS

Lewis A. Graham vs. Lewis A. Graham, as Guardian et al.
It appearing from affidavit, filed in the above entitled cause, that Benjamin F. Graham, and Otis V. Graham of the above named defendants are non-residents of the State of Indiana.

Notice is therefore hereby given the said Benjamin F. Graham and Otis V. Graham that they are and appear before the Hon. Judge of the Adams Circuit Court on the 12th day of January 1938, the said being the first Juridical Day of the next regular term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Decatur, commencing on Monday, the 12th day of November, A. D. 1937, and plead in answer or demur to said complaint, or the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness, my name, and the Seal of said Court hereto affixed, this 15th day of November, 1937.
J. De Voss, Attorney
Nov. 15, 1937. Nov. 17-24 Dec. 1

Pure Pork Sausage. Gerber's Market.
m-1-w

TODAY'S COMMON ERROR
Never pronounce incomparable - in-kom-par-a-bl; say, in-kom-pa-ra-bl.

PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at Public Auction at my residence 1 1/2 mile West and 1/2 mile South of Poe or 6 miles due North of Tocsin, on

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27

Commencing at 12:00 Noon

5-HEAD OF HORSES-5

Black Gelding 9 yr. old, wt. 1800; Bay Gelding 13 yr. old, wt. 1300; Black Gelding coming 3 yr. old, wt. 1400; Bay Mare Colt coming 2 yr. old, wt. 1100; Bay Spring Colt 6 months old.

6-HEAD OF CATTLE-6

Guernsey Cow 6 yr. old; Guernsey Cow 7 yr. old; Roan Cow 5 yrs. old; Black Jersey Cow 6 yr. old. These Cows are all good ones. 1 Yearling Heifer; 1 Heifer months old.
HOGS-2 Brood Sows; 15 Feeder Hogs.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

Deering Binder 7 ft. cut; McCormick-Deering Web Hay Loader; International Side Delivery Rake; Deering Mower 6 ft. cut; Nisco Manure Spreader; End Gate Seeder; Turnbull Wagon; Hay Rack and Grain Bed; Riding Cultivator; Superior Grain Drill 12 hole; Gang Plow; Sulky Breaking Plow; 1 set of work harness.
TERMS-CASH.

VAL LAKER, Owner

Roy S. Johnson-Auctioneer
Ossian State Bank-Clerk.

PUBLIC SALE

As I am quitting farming will sell at Public Auction 1 mile South of Decatur, first farm West of Road No. 27, on

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 1, 1937

Commencing at 12:00 Noon

3-HEAD OF HORSES-3

1 Pair Roan Horses 12 yrs. old, wt. 3400 lbs. a real team, in splendid condition; Bay Horse, smooth mouth, wt. 1500, good worker.

5-HEAD OF COWS-5

Large Jersey Cow with calf by side; Guernsey & Jersey 5 yr. old fresh last of Dec.; Large Red Cow 5 yr. old, fresh Jan. 1; Holstein Cow 3 yr. old, fresh Jan. 13; Guernsey & Jersey Heifer, fresh Dec. 23. These are extra good cows.

HOGS-White Sow; 6 Pigs, wt. about 60 pounds each.
FEED-900 Bu. good yellow Corn in crib; 14 ton good timothy Hay; 6 ton Clover Hay; 50 bushel 2 year old Oats.

IMPLEMENTS

Good Turnbull Low Wheel Wagon & 16' rack; New Idea Manure Spreader, in good condition; New McCormick Mower with Tongue Truck used one season; John Deere 2 section Spike Tooth Harrow, new; Riding Cultivator; Gale Corn Planter; Disc; 2 horse Potato Planter; Fertilizer Grain Drill; Tedder; Auto Trailer; Corn Sheller; Lawn Roller; Good Double Set of Work Harness; 3 Horse Collars; Cream Separator; Forks, Shovels, Double Trees; and many articles too numerous to mention.
TERMS-Cash.

ED GASE, Owner

Roy S. Johnson-Auctioneer.
T. Schieferstein-Clerk.

Test Your Knowledge

Can you answer seven of these ten questions? Turn to page Four for the answers.

1. In the foot-hills of what mountains is the city of Pasadena, Calif.?
2. Name the Duke of Windsor's closest American friend.
3. What is manganese?
4. What is the real name of the bird sometimes called "Poor Joe" or "Blue Crane"?
5. Is there such a word as "irregardless"?
6. Where in the Bible is the Golden Rule?
7. Name the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs.
8. Who wrote "Looking Backward"?
9. What is the name for a person, one of whose parents is of a white race and the other a Negro?
10. In which Belgian city was the recent "Nine-Power Treaty" conference opened?

Dated this 17th day of November, 1937.

Dallas Brown
Sheriff of Adams County.
Nathan C. Nelson, Attorney
Nov. 17-24 Dec. 1

NOTICE TO NON RESIDENTS
In the Adams Circuit Court
November Term, 1937
THE STATE OF INDIANA
ADAMS COUNTY SS

Lewis A. Graham vs. Lewis A. Graham, as Guardian et al.
It appearing from affidavit, filed in the above entitled cause, that Benjamin F. Graham, and Otis V. Graham of the above named defendants are non-residents of the State of Indiana.

Notice is therefore hereby given the said Benjamin F. Graham and Otis V. Graham that they are and appear before the Hon. Judge of the Adams Circuit Court on the 12th day of January 1938, the said being the first Juridical Day of the next regular term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Decatur, commencing on Monday, the 12th day of November, A. D. 1937, and plead in answer or demur to said complaint, or the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness, my name, and the Seal of said Court hereto affixed, this 15th day of November, 1937.
J. De Voss, Attorney
Nov. 15, 1937. Nov. 17-24 Dec. 1

Pure Pork Sausage. Gerber's Market.
m-1-w

TODAY'S COMMON ERROR
Never pronounce incomparable - in-kom-par-a-bl; say, in-kom-pa-ra-bl.

Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

COURT HOUSE
Real Estate Transfers
Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.
Sarah Schmidt et vir to Samuel

WANTED
Rags, Magazines, Newspapers, Scrap Iron, Old Auto Radiators, Batteries, Copper, Brass, Aluminum, and all grades of scrap metals.

We buy hides, wool, sheep pelts, the year round.

The Maier Hide & Fur Co.
710 W. Monroe st. Phone 442

Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Samuel Wickey et ux to Moses Schmidt et ux, 80 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Samuel Wickey et ux to Moses Schmidt, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Elizabeth Wickey et vir to Moses Schmidt, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey et ux, 80 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

SANTA CLAUS IS
(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

to see you, but before leaving here I want to send you an air mail letter and tell you about our trip so far.

Yesterday we covered 800 miles of ice and snow and although the loads are heavy and the going is hard, the dogs and deer seemed as anxious as Old Santa himself to make the journey and everything went fine until night.

"After the long hard day we came to an Eskimo village where we have stopped many times before and we were glad to spend the night.

"This morning when I awoke to feed the reindeer, Comet and Vixen did not come when I called them. Some of the Eskimo men came to my help and in a little while found tracks made by the runaway deer which showed they had decided to go back to Toyland.

If I go back for the deer I cannot possibly reach Decatur on December 6, so faithful Donner, Blitzen, Dancer and Prancer will have to pull the sled the rest of the way. Comet and Vixen were slackers anyway, and always causing trouble. Don't worry about us children, for we will be there if I have to push the sled all the way."

Your friend
"Santa Claus"

Trade In A Good Town - Decatur

"Beauty's A Charm" HARRIET HINSDALE

CHAPTER XXX
"I'm going to be in a picture with Bruce Loring," said Clyde. "Don't Ames is managing me and we're going to cash in on all this publicity. He says it will make me rich."

Lucy Lee stared, more grave than ever—"and famous and envied?" she said very slowly. "Is that what he told you?"

"Well, I don't know about the famous and envied part and I don't give a hoot. It's the money I'm after. Boy! Imagine what I can do with all that dough!"

"No, Clyde, please," she cried sharply. "Let's go home. That's what I want more than anything else. Honestly it is. I don't care about the money."

"But listen, sugar, don't be like that. I'd be crazy not to do what Ames says—cash in on all this, wouldn't I? Probably never get another chance as long as I live, to make money so fast."

"I know, but..."

"Besides, I like this town they call Hollywood. I think it's great. Why, would you believe it, I'm living in a fine suite at the swellest hotel in town and Ames says they won't charge me a cent. Because my living there is good for business, see? And say, you ought to have heard that crowd cheering us. And I'm booked up for some radio talks already and there were some men at the hotel waiting to sign me up for a personal appearance contract and—"

"I understand," Lucy Lee replied, watching his flushed face, as the words came tumbling eagerly out. How well she understood.

"Just wait till you know Bruce Loring better," he went on. He's the greatest fellow in the world. A regular prince! Never crabbied about what happened, when we were on that island for all those weeks. He treated the whole thing like a big joke. Said he was glad to be where the women couldn't get in his hair." He chuckled reminiscently. "And when I hurt my foot and couldn't walk for days, he waited on me... cooked my food... and kept me laughing with his fool jokes and monkeyshines."

"He does sound perfectly splendid, Clyde."

"I'm telling you, when you're marooned with a man like that, you get to know him. He's regular. And he lives in Hollywood, doesn't he? Or Beverly Hills. It's the same thing."

"Yes, of course," Lucy Lee agreed. "Well, then!" Clyde was triumphant. "That proves there are plenty of fine folks here, if you only get to know them, doesn't it? They're not all cheats and double-crossers."

"I suppose so."

"Of course it does."

"But Clyde..." She stopped and was silent.

"What is it, sweetness?"

"You won't let anything come between us or spoil our happiness?"

"Foolish little Lucy Lee," he answered tenderly as he bent to kiss her. "As if anything could! Now that I've really got you—I'll never let you go again."

"And Clyde..."

"Don't let's tell anybody about our going to be married. Not for a while yet, I mean. Until I get strong again. I think it would be lovely to keep it just for ourselves, don't you? Of course, except for Daddy Carter and Don Ames. I suppose they will have to know. But let's make Don promise not to give out any publicity on it, shall we?"

"Of course, if that's the way you feel. Whatever you say. It's always going to be whatever you say from now on, Sweet."

But when Clyde came down the path he walked straight into a small group of enterprising reporters, who had followed his car from the hotel and waited for him to reappear from the Carter house after his prolonged visit. He found it impossible to evade their skillful questioning. Yes, he had been to call on Miss Lucy Lee Carter, but it didn't mean a thing. They were simply old friends. From the same home town, in fact. No, he had no announcement to make. But would he deny an engagement? Well—not exactly. That is—

Enough and more than enough to make the story: Returned Hero Calls on Beauty. Does not deny rumored betrothal. Marriage date not set, but probably soon. Lucy Lee Carter at one time supposed to be engaged to Neville Preston, noted director, who gave her the chance in pictures and had frequently been seen with his protégée at Hollywood gay spots. But more recently his attentions had apparently been centered on the dashing blonde, Adrienne Page. And so on and on, and on.

Lucy Lee cried when she read the stories. The mention of Neville Preston and Pearl made her feel as though ugly hands had been laid upon her heart, tearing it open to stare and sneer at what was hidden within. She had so hoped to avoid this kind of publicity.

Within a few hours after the appearance of the story she received three large baskets of flowers, with sweetly friendly little notes from girls she had neither seen nor heard from since the accident. They were so delighted she was improving and how marvelous about her engagement to Clyde Dixon. And they were always her devoted and loving pals.

The telephone began to ring as it had not done for weeks. So many people, it seemed, wished to offer their congratulations. How delightful she was to marry that interesting boy Clyde Dixon, whom they had heard about the radio and who was to make a picture with the great and only Bruce Loring. Was it true that N. P. N. had signed him up to a long-term contract?

Various fan magazine writers and chatter artists called up to ask for interviews, particularly her impressions of the returned hero.

Wickey, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Samuel Wickey et ux to Moses Schmidt et ux, 80 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Samuel Wickey et ux to Moses Schmidt, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Elizabeth Wickey et vir to Moses Schmidt, 40 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

Moses Schmidt et ux to Samuel Wickey et ux, 80 acres in Monroe twp., for $1.

SANTA CLAUS IS
(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

to see you, but before leaving here I want to send you an air mail letter and tell you about our trip so far.

Yesterday we covered 800 miles of ice and snow and although the loads are heavy and the going is hard, the dogs and deer seemed as anxious as Old Santa himself to make the journey and everything went fine until night.

"After the long hard day we came to an Eskimo village where we have stopped many times before and we were glad to spend the night.

"This morning when I awoke to feed the reindeer, Comet and Vixen did not come when I called them. Some of the Eskimo men came to my help and in a little while found tracks made by the runaway deer which showed they had decided to go back to Toyland.

If I go back for the deer I cannot possibly reach Decatur on December 6, so faithful Donner, Blitzen, Dancer and Prancer will have to pull the sled the rest of the way. Comet and Vixen were slackers anyway, and always causing trouble. Don't worry about us children, for we will be there if I have to push the sled all the way."

Your friend
"Santa Claus"

Trade In A Good Town - Decatur

"Beauty's A Charm" HARRIET HINSDALE

CHAPTER XXX
"I'm going to be in a picture with Bruce Loring," said Clyde. "Don't Ames is managing me and we're going to cash in on all this publicity. He says it will make me rich."

Lucy Lee stared, more grave than ever—"and famous and envied?" she said very slowly. "Is that what he told you?"

"Well, I don't know about the famous and envied part and I don't give a hoot. It's the money I'm after. Boy! Imagine what I can do with all that dough!"

"No, Clyde, please," she cried sharply. "Let's go home. That's what I want more than anything else. Honestly it is. I don't care about the money."

"But listen, sugar, don't be like that. I'd be crazy not to do what Ames says—cash in on all this, wouldn't I? Probably never get another chance as long as I live, to make money so fast."

"I know, but..."

"Besides, I like this town they call Hollywood. I think it's great. Why, would you believe it, I'm living in a fine suite at the swellest hotel in town and Ames says they won't charge me a cent. Because my living there is good for business, see? And say, you ought to have heard that crowd cheering us. And I'm booked up for some radio talks already and there were some men at the hotel waiting to sign me up for a personal appearance contract and—"

"I understand," Lucy Lee replied, watching his flushed face, as the words came tumbling eagerly out. How well she understood.

"Just wait till you know Bruce Loring better," he went on. He's the greatest fellow in the world. A regular prince! Never crabbied about what happened, when we were on that island for all those weeks. He treated the whole thing like a big joke. Said he was glad to be where the women couldn't get in his hair." He chuckled reminiscently. "And when I hurt my foot and couldn't walk for days, he waited on me... cooked my food... and kept me laughing with his fool jokes and monkeyshines."

"He does sound perfectly splendid, Clyde."

"I'm telling you, when you're marooned with a man like that, you get to know him. He's regular. And he lives in Hollywood, doesn't he? Or Beverly Hills. It's the same thing."

"Yes, of course," Lucy Lee agreed. "Well, then!" Clyde was triumphant. "That proves there are plenty of fine folks here, if you only get to know them, doesn't it? They're not all cheats and double-crossers."

"I suppose so."

"Of course it does."

"But Clyde..." She stopped and was silent.

"What is it, sweetness?"

"You won't let anything come between us or spoil our happiness?"

"Foolish little Lucy Lee," he answered tenderly as he bent to kiss her. "As if anything could! Now that I've really got you—I'll never let you go again."

"And Clyde..."

"Don't let's tell anybody about our going to be married. Not for a while yet, I mean. Until I get strong again. I think it would be lovely to keep it just for ourselves, don't you? Of course, except for Daddy Carter and Don Ames. I suppose they will have to know. But let's make Don promise not to give out any publicity on it, shall we?"

"Of course, if that's the way you feel. Whatever you say. It's always going to be whatever you say from now on, Sweet."

But when Clyde came down the path he walked straight into a small group of enterprising reporters, who had followed his car from the hotel and waited for him to reappear from the Carter house after his prolonged visit. He found it impossible to evade their skillful questioning. Yes, he had been to call on Miss Lucy Lee Carter, but it didn't mean a thing. They were simply old friends. From the same home town, in fact. No, he had no announcement to make. But would he deny an engagement? Well—not exactly. That is—

Enough and more than enough to make the story: Returned Hero Calls on Beauty. Does not deny rumored betrothal. Marriage date not set, but probably soon. Lucy Lee Carter at one time supposed to be engaged to Neville Preston, noted director, who gave her the chance in pictures and had frequently been seen with his protégée at Hollywood gay spots. But more recently his attentions had apparently been centered on the dashing blonde, Adrienne Page. And so on and on, and on.

Lucy Lee cried when she read the stories. The mention of Neville Preston and Pearl made her feel as though ugly hands had been laid upon her heart, tearing it open to stare and sneer at what was hidden within. She had so hoped to avoid this kind of publicity.

Within a few hours after the appearance of the story she received three large baskets of flowers, with sweetly friendly little notes from girls she had neither seen nor heard from since the accident. They were so delighted she was improving and how marvelous about her engagement to Clyde Dixon. And they were always her devoted and loving pals.

The telephone began to ring as it had not done for weeks. So many people, it seemed, wished to offer their congratulations. How delightful she was to marry that interesting boy Clyde Dixon, whom they had heard about the radio and who was to make a picture with the great and only Bruce Loring. Was it true that N. P. N. had signed him up to a long-term contract?

Various fan magazine writers and chatter artists called up to ask for interviews, particularly her impressions of the returned hero.

Business Conditions In Indiana Showing Slump

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 25.—(U.P.)—Business conditions slumped in Indiana during October as compared with September, the Indiana business review reported today.

Allowing for seasonal influences, the review found that the indexes of business declined during October and continued their downward trends in the first two weeks of November.

Widespread "hand-to-mouth" purchasing on the part of domestic and commercial buyers was noticeable last month, the review said.

Appointment of Administratrix
No. 3224

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed Administratrix of the estate