the pets.

The Democrats won in the city election in Kansas City, re-electing Bryce Smith as mayor and taking along the entire ticket. A Coalition Party was in the field and a hot campaign was waged, but the Democrat majority was as large as four years ago.

The value of taxable property in Fort Wayne is nearly $150,000, an increase of nearly two million dollars over a year ago. The up trend, due to improvements and new houses built is notable in many communities.

The county clerk's office is open during the evenings to accommodate voters in filing their registration cards or to correct those where needed. If in doubt about the status of your registration, call at the office and have one of the deputies look it up for you.

Over at Logansport a family in its fifth generation has not had a girl baby born in 50 years, until the other day when the first Little Miss arrived. She has been named Joyce Lee and no doubt will be more popular than Snow White or Shirley Temple. Of course she'll not be "spoiled."

Washington may have its Japanese cherry trees, but Decatur has its green lawns, budding shrubbery and maple trees and spring flowers. We never saw the time when the landscape was more beautiful. All about you is a scene that no artist can paint. Drive around and enjoy it.

Former President Hoover, returning from a three month's European trip, declares that there is no immediate danger of a war breaking out over there in the near future. We hope he is right, although in Spain the people don't know the difference between war and what is going on.

The women will enjoy the free cooking school in talkie picture form at the Adams theater, next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon. The latest developments in the art of cooking, appetizing menus and free favors will be given at the matinees. Forget the house cleaning job for an afternoon and join the crowd.

CHANGE
OF ADDRESS

Subscribers are requested to give old and new address when ordering paper changed from one address to another.

For example: If you change your address from Decatur R. R. 1 to Decatur R. R. 2, instruct us to change the paper from route one to route two.

Putting federal income taxpayers on their honor may be the procedure in the future in filing tax returns. The senate finance committee has recommended the elimination of swearing to the return before a notary public. It sounds reasonable. If a false return is made, the taxpayer is still liable and the swearing to a statement doesn't change the figures. With few exceptions no one is going to make a false report.

The President's reorganization bill has hit stormy seas and although the senate passed the measure, the House declares the bill will be rewritten. The fight seems to be on retaining the comptroller general and the director of the budget. There is no doubt that government agencies and departments must be revamped with the times, but to get the legislators and the people to agree on a system is another thing.

Regardless of the recession and curtailment in employment, there is much activity in Decatur. A number of men are employed on WPA projects. The factories, although not running full tilt, still employ hundreds of workers. The building trades are busy. Carpenters, painters and paper hangers, were busy nearly all winter and the spring rush is on. They have enough work for weeks ahead, a condition which everyone appreciates and hopes will improve as the months roll by.

The success marking the hospital-insurance plan which is in effect in many large cities, enabling ordinary wage-earners to buy insurance which will provide hospital treatment either for themselves or for all members of their families, should prompt an interested investigation of the system to adopt it. It has proved beneficial not only to the ordinary wage-earner who fears sudden and unexpected demands from his pocketbook for hospitalization, but also to hospitals fighting to keep their financial heads above water.

Did you ever have a boil? Even toothache doesn't compare with the thumping of a boil in its early stages, and besides you can have the tooth yanked out. But a boil that's different and they say if you get one that others will follow. Now comes a blessing to mankind. Medical science has discovered a vaccine that they claim will really immunize the sufferers from boils. Experiments have been made in the Massachusetts General Hospital and although the doctors aren't ready to announce the cure as definite they vouch that in the next five years the experiment will be a sure thing. Life will be more enjoyable when they eliminate boils from man's suffering.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. If a girl neither drinks nor smokes, must she accept a cocktail and a cigarette offered by her hostess?

A. No; but she must refuse graciously, and not in a manner that will indicate the least disapproval of the custom.

Q. Should a man remove his glove to shake hands, when being introduced to some one?

A. Yes, if he can do so quickly and unostentatiously. He should not delay the introduction to take off his glove.

Q. If candles are used on the dinner table, when should they be lighted?

A. Immediately before dinner is announced.

SEEK MISSING
BOMBING PLANEU.S. Battle Fleet Launches Intense Search For Bomber

Honolulu, T. H., March 31—(UP)
The United States battle fleet completed war game maneuvers today and immediately began one of the greatest searches in naval history for the bombing plane missing since yesterday with six men aboard.

Sixty-five surface vessels, 210 planes from aircraft carriers and 30 planes from the Pearl Harbor naval base were ordered into the search.

Those aboard the craft, which belonged to the V2 squadron, were: Lieut. C. E. Signer; F. J. Rarobnia, aviation cadet; P. B. Pancoast, aviation machinist's mate, first class; J. A. Bingham, aviation machinist's mate, first class; G. T.
Williamson, radioman, first class.

C. R. Olundsen, Radioman, third class.
The plane was the second that failed to return to its base safely yesterday. The first crashed with seven men aboard, killing at least three. Members of the crew of the U. S. Avocet, an aircraft tender, searched the wreckage for two more whose bodies they believed were inside.

Patching Woolen Cloth
When patching woolen cloth, use a thin sheet of gutta percha, which can be purchased specially for tailor's use. Place a piece of this tissue between the layers of cloth to be cemented, and then press with a hot iron.

Butter and Chocolate If both butter and chocolate are called for in a recipe, it is a very simple matter to melt the chocolate by putting both ingredients into a pan together over a low fire. The fat from the butter will also prevent the chocolate from sticking or burning while melting.

Starch the Rugs Starch the rugs heavily when washing them. They will lie flatter on the floor and stay clean longer time.

House Votes To Debate
Reorganization

Washington, March 31—(UP) The house, under the full power of President Roosevelt's administration for quick passage of the reorganization bill, voted today 292 to 143 today to debate the measure under rules permitting member to speak for one hour.
The vote was not a strict test strength between supporters opponents of the measure. Administration members voted for the motion to debate the bill under the hour rule while Republicans and Independent Democrats generally voted against it.
