Teens, Twenties Club Plan Yearly Program

The yearly program committee of the Adams County Teens and Twenties Club met Tuesday evening, October 6th, and made plans for the coming year. The club meets once a month and the committee laid out a program for each month. The central theme of the year's activities will be based on "How to Get a Start in Life." The topic discussions include the following: "What Constitutes Success"; "You and Your Thinking"; "You and Your Home"; "Choosing a Vocation"; "How Can Young Farmers Get a Start"; "What to Read and How to Read"; "The Wise Use of Money"; "Being a Good Citizen"; "Your Place in the Community".

The panel discussion will be used in the meetings. By this method a leader is in charge of the discussion and he or she selects a panel or a group of people to discuss the topic with him before the club.
After the panel, the discussion is open to the entire club.

The Teens and Twenties Club will start their new year in November and they are eager to increase their membership. All young people of and near Adams County are eligible and the membership fee for the year is twenty-five cents.

In addition to the discussion meetings, several social meetings will be held, such as the Christmas party, the annual banquet in February, and the outing in July.

Tale of a Phone Call

Dean Paul Shipman Andrews

Because he was not at his home at Taunton, N. Y., to answer his phone, Dean Paul Shipman Andrews of the college of law at Syracuse university, missed a chance to be Republican candidate for the U. S. senate. When Mayor Roland B. Marvin turned down the candidate for senator, the New York state G. O. P. leaders turned to other Onondaga possibilities and among them was Dean Andrews. The dean was called on the phone for acceptance but he was not at home. Party leaders then turned to John Lord O'Brien of Buffalo, who accepted. Speaking of the incident, Dean Andrews remarked that even had the G. O.
P. leaders reached him, he would have refused the high honor offered to him.
