toll was ten.

City street department workers and members of the state highway crew are receiving many compliments on the fine manner in which the streets are kept. They are clean and tidy and depict attenant jobs in good housekeeping.

Federal Judge Thomas W. Slick went to the Purdue-Indiana football game and his pocketbook was found along the street. It contained his drivers' license, but all the cash was gone. If the pickpocket is caught, he better not Every household is more or less busy these days in preparation for the Thanksgiving holiday. It means going and coming, visits, reunions and the observance of the day which centers around the home and the family. We hope it is a happy occasion for everyone.

Christmas decorations are going up and the stores are preparing for the holiday rush. It's a great time of year and the more hustle and bustle incident to the joyful season, the better most of us like it. Forget your troubles and think of Christmas time with all its joys and happiness.

The more the German press jumps on President Roosevelt and Americans, the stronger we are crowd realize their inhuman treat-

When funds run out again, the schools will close. The children no doubt hope this will happen about two weeks before Christmas.

Queen Maud of Norway, little known throughout the world is dead at the age of 69. She was a sister of the late King George V of England and one of the few Europe. The Norwegians are a

They will be forced to show their for the opinion is that they took would be elected.

THE RED CROSS APPEAL:

The annual campaign of the American Red Cross is at hand and the people of Decatur are again urged to become members of an organization, established by Congress, for humanitarian purposes.

In time of war the Red Cross becomes a practical agency of the nation, under the obligation to care for the welfare of our service men. In times of peace, it is a great agency of relief, with an organization fitted to respond to every great appeal for relief and to prevent the suffering and death of those afflicted through the visitations of sudden disasters.

All Americans can belong to this great organization of mercy, as a full-fledged member, whether there is any organized chapter of the Red Cross in their community or not. The small sum of one dollar is the annual membership dues and by paying that amount one is assured of doing some small part in preparing the Red Cross to function in times of emergency.

Again, one never knows where natural disasters may occur. It may be that in the course of the next twelve months this community may be visited by some horrible affliction and in such an event the supplications of suffering men, women and children will be heard by the Red Cross organization, which will instantly respond with medical supplies, food, trained workers, and everything that is necessary to prevent, as far as possible, the suffering that such a visitation entails.

Chicago Reporter Is Expelled From Italy; Tenth In One Year

Rome, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Frank Smothers, Rome correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, was ordered today to leave Italy before the end of the month.

Smothers was informed by the ministry of propaganda that he must leave the country because of the "unfriendly tones of his dispatches, particularly the one of Nov. 16 concerning the ratification of the Anglo-Italian pact."

The American embassy intervened for Smothers with the foreign office. American charge d'affaires Edward Reed was informed that the order was irrevocable.

Smothers came to Rome after service in the Far East. He will leave soon for Paris to await a new assignment.

He will be the 10th foreign correspondent expelled by Italy this year.

IN MEMORY OF FRED T. SCHURGER

Once more death has called and removed from our Association another member.

How unbelievable and seemingly impossible were the words: "Fred Schurger is dead" as they came to us last Wednesday evening, for he had been at his office all that day and mingled with his friends in apparently good health and in his usual jovial manner.

Fred T. Schurger was born on a farm one mile west of Decatur, Indiana, on March 25, 1883, and died on Wednesday evening, November 9, 1938. After completing his education he was engaged for a number of years as a salesman; later he entered the law and abstract office of his father, the late John Schurger, as a clerk. On September 4, 1917, he was admitted to practice law by the Adams Circuit Court, and then formed a partnership with his father under the firm name of John Schurger and Son and engaged in the practice of law and abstract work. After the death of his father he continued the work for a time by himself, and then in 1926 he formed a partnership with E. Burt Lenhart and Henry B. Heller, under the firm name of Lenhart, Heller and Schurger. Upon the death of Mr. Lenhart on January 5, 1938, the business was continued under the name of Heller and Schurger.

As a man and citizen Mr. Schurger was pure in morals and purpose; he was honest, pleasant, companionable, kind and good; his business life was of strict integrity and his private character was without blot or stain; as a lawyer he was just, careful, painstaking and a safe counselor.

His love for nature and his love for his home were outstanding characteristics of his life.

He loved to roam through the woods and fields and along the streams, and as a true sportsman to fish and hunt, and he viewed with delight the beauties and glory of the great outdoors.

His love for his home cannot be surpassed. The house in which he was born remained his home throughout his entire life. He never married, and upon the passing away of his father and mother, he and his sister, Miss Christena Schurger, who survives him, continued to make the old homestead their home. They not only made it their own home, but made it the home for many. From time to time they took in various children and gave those children the benefit, enjoyment and training of a true Christian home. For many years this home has been unequaled for hospitality, and guests and friends and even strangers, from far and near, were at all times welcomed.

Today, as his associates, his neighbors, and his friends assemble to pay him a last honor, and review the many splendid acts of kindness performed by him, may we be reminded that the true meaning of life is not wealth, nor fame, nor glory, but is summed up in the words of the Master, "Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself." This is the commandment Mr. Schurger endeavored to follow and obey, and is most clearly exemplified by his life.

With us his name shall live Through long succeeding years Embalmed with all our hearts can give

Our praises and our tears.

Therefore be it resolved by the Adams County Bar Association that this memorial be adopted as our tribute to the memory of Mr.
Schurger; that a copy of the same be delivered to the family, and a copy be entered in the Order Book of our court.

Respectfully submitted,
Arthur E. Voglewede,
John L. DeVoss,
Henry B. Heller,
Committee.

It's been just 317 years since that first Pilgrim Thanksgiving, 317 years of increasing wealth and happiness in this land. We have even more to be thankful for than those intrepid Pilgrims, so let's all be thankful . . . for our homes, our friends, our great nation that gives peace and liberty to all. Let's be thankful for
