

High and Dry After Flood

Launch on Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., street

When flood waters of the Ohio river receded at Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., this launch was found high and dry on a street, a quarter mile from the river. The American Red Cross has come to the aid of the thousands of flood sufferers with food and clothing.

birth anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morrison and son Tom, of Spencerville, Louis Arnold, Miss Hershey, Kenneth King and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hoblet and daughters Barbara and Marilyn.

The fellowship tea was held at the home of Mrs. Jarvine Morrison Tuesday afternoon, a large number of ladies being present. The devotions were led by Mrs. Minnie Reichard. A demonstration by Mrs. Herman Myers "Where Our Money in America is Going to-day" was very interesting. A playlet "six mothers in person" was given by members of the group. During the social hour tea and cookies were served. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Paul Stove, Mrs. S. E. Bruner and Mrs. Hubert Byer.

Mesdames John Myer and Hubert Byer were Fort Wayne visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Detter and family were in Fort Wayne Monday evening at a birthday party in honor of their son Miles. At six o'clock a delicious dinner was served at the dining table centered by a beautiful birthday cake. Several Fort Wayne people were guests.

Minimum Of Crop Acreage Reported

Walter Pressing and Ralph Andrews, field representatives of the Crampton Canneries of Celina, met with Joe Koors and other officers of the Adams county tomato Growers association last week-end and said that in order to maintain a station at Decatur they would need 75 acres of pickles and 250 acres of tomatoes as a minimum. Wilbur Beer was instructed to begin writing acreage at once.

Tuesday of this week Joe Koors, Otto D. Bieberich, Frank R. Braun, Lawrence Beckmeyer and Wilbur Beer will attend the growers and canners' convention at Columbus Ohio. They have arranged to bring the information they gather to the Adams county growers at a meeting at the Moose Hall, Decatur, at 1 o'clock. Every farmer interested in growing these high-value crops, pickles and tomatoes, should attend this meeting.
