

Betty Crocker KITCHEN CLINIC

prepared by
Daily Democrat—Betty Crocker Home Service Department

STYLISH MEAT PIES

THERE are lots of different ways in which you can dress up your meat pies without going to much extra trouble. I'm speaking of our American type meat pies made in casseroles and covered with a baking powder biscuit crust that's golden brown and crispy with a light, fleecy interior.

Plain Crust: Most of the time we find the dough for this crust rolled out into one big round to cover the entire top of the pie.

Individual Biscuit Crust: Or, you may see the top covered with tidy little biscuits crowded close together and proudly holding their round golden heads.

Biscuit Ring Top: But, if you want to make your family and guests sit up and take notice of the meat pie you are serving, cut these pie-top biscuits with a doughnut cutter. You've no idea how dressed up the rich dark gravy bubbling up through these rings.

Cheese Whirl Top: You can also add to the deliciousness—as well as the appearance of your top crust—by rolling the dough into a long narrow strip not more than 8 inches wide. Sprinkle it with 1 cup of grated yellow American cheese. Then roll it up like a jelly roll, and cut it into 1-inch slices. Place these cut down on the hot pie filling and bake.

Deviled Ham Top: Roll out dough as for cheese whirl top but spread with deviled ham.

Parasol Lattice Top: Work 2 tbsp. of finely chopped parsley into the biscuit dough. Cut it in strips an inch wide and lay criss-cross over the meat pie filling.

I'm not giving you the recipe for these fluffy, tender biscuits because I'm sure that most of you are using a prepared biscuit mix which has complete directions for making rich meat-pie-top biscuits printed right on the package. However, if you are interested in obtaining a recipe for Rich Biscuit Crust made the old way, I shall be glad to send it to you.

Of course, we want the filling to live up to all the promises held

Copyright 1939 by Betty Crocker, Inc.

If you have any specific cooking problems, send a letter requesting information to Betty Crocker in care of this newspaper. You will receive a prompt, personal reply. Please enclose 3 cent stamp to cover postage.

ALONG THE MILKY WAY - - - by Dale Moses Dairy

"I think we ought to offer pop a drink of this vitalizing Dale Moses Pasteurized milk. He's starting to weaken!"

Dale Moses Dairy Phone 6782

"LOVE'S INTERLUDE" by -MAY- CHRISTIE

SYNOPSIS

Moirs Carewe met handsome, devil-may-care Tarry. Griggs during the era of prohibition, jazz and the "Black Bottom." The son of a rich man, Tarry lived recklessly—only for today. It was that spirit which Moira loved. During her Christmas vacation from boarding school, Moira stayed at a modest hotel, in New York, with her father who was doing research work for the Museum of Natural History. To be near her, Tarry just moved from his Madison, Connecticut, home into his father's New York apartment, while the latter was out of town, even though he knew "the old man'll raise the devil!" Then followed a merry round of the night clubs and theatres.

CHAPTER II

Came the last night. The butler at Tournay Park, near Madison, had telephoned Tarry at his father's apartment in the Biltmore hotel. "Dad—the old buzzard—put in a transcontinental call for me at home, at one in the morning from 'Frisco! Tubbs tipped me off to the bad news—he's out butler, you know—a damned nice chap! He rose to the occasion and lied like a gentleman—told Dad I was out at the stables with Bess, the roan mare—she's foaling—said he couldn't reach the vet, and I couldn't leave to come to the 'phone or Bess might kick off! I do know about horses," said Tarry gaily, "so the old man swallowed that, hook, line and sinker. But here's the catch! He left a message I was to 'phone him directly I returned to the house. You know he's as suspicious as the devil!"

"What did you do?" Moira asked. She was worried about this subterfuge. She didn't want Tarry to get in trouble with his father. She felt guilty somehow.

"It was a ticklish situation," Tarry said, loftily, "but leave it to me to get out of a jam! After I'd left you last night—or rather, in the small hours of this morning—and got Tubbs' message, I got the clerk at the switchboard in the building to get Dad's 'Frisco hotel on the line, then to say, very distinctly: 'Madison calling,' and to repeat it at least twice after he got through to Dad, and then I piped in!"

"I thought at first it was New York calling," said the old man, who's as cagey as they come.

"Well, I suppose night-calls do go through New York. This is home I'm speaking from all right," I told him, "I'll try and get a better connection," and I made a dash for the service-telephone. "Cut in again and say: 'Madison calling—three minutes is almost up!' I said to the clerk downstairs. It worked like a charm!"

"Did your father have anything special to say to you?" Moira asked him.

"The main idea in 'phoning from that distance at that hour was to catch me out, naturally," Tarry chuckled. "He inquired about Bess, and when I said she was better—that my ministrations had turned the trick or what-have-you—he suggested I join him in Palm Beach right away, and we'll do the races and some yachting, and so forth. Not at all a bad idea!"

She tried to smile gaily, congratulate Tarry. But at the word: "Palm Beach," she had instantly thought of Lady Carren. The Irish girl was riding in those races. She was thoroughbred as her horses. One of those thoroughbreds had been given her by the Griggs stables. The rumor had spread round Madison that snobbish, self-made Joseph Griggs wanted blue blood in the family and not merely in the stables, that the fortune he had made importing and exporting groceries was to have the stamp of aristocracy set upon it—through his only son—and Lady Carren. This was the second season the girl had come from Ireland, to do New York and Palm Beach, her hostesses being names to conjure with among what was left of the old Four Hundred.

"You look as though you're seeing 'little people'—fairies, eh, Moira?" Tarry asked. "As in Ireland?" The words slipped from her. Tactless. Did Tarry redden? They swept off in a fox-trot. Tears ached in her throat. Her eyes were bright with unshed tears under the long lashes. "Good kid! We've had a swell time together, haven't we?"—as they returned to their table. "And how!" She smiled. "We'll have to do it again, one of these days. But it won't be quite the same, will it? I mean, stolen things are always sweetest!" "You mean, your father and mine

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach not knowing how we've been burning up the town?" "Just about that. But it's been a very innocuous burning, Moira." "It's been—heavenly!" He saw, for the first time, that she was emotionally moved. It touched him while it disconcerted him—that shimmer of tears held back.

"Oh, I'll drop you a postal here, hither and yon," said Tarry.

"Not going to weep in public?"—gruffly. "Guess it's the thought of school, and all that misery to come?"

Her heart cried, though she didn't voice the words: "It's the thought of you—and Lady Carren—" "It's the thought of the grand time I've had! You've been simply swell, Tarry!"

"Oh, for crying out loud!" He paid the bill. The commissionaire opened the door of a taxi. They got in.

"Mind if you drop me off? I've got to pack, and see to a few little things."

"Of course, Tarry."

A pause. Then, timidly: "Will you drop me a line if you're going to be away long?"

"Oh, I'll drop you a postal here, hither and yon."

He was miles away from her in mind, already. She knew that. New pleasures—new faces—not forgetting Lady Carren—

"Palm Beach will be a nice change from New York, jolly as this old burg is," said Tarry blithely as he swung his long legs out of the taxi at the entrance of the Biltmore.

Tarry didn't come back to Tournay Park that summer. His father took him on a trip to Europe via the Canal. He had his first taste of Continental life. A gay fling, according to the postcards that reached Moira spasmodically.

First, Deauville in the height of the season. Horse-racing. Yacht-rac-

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

ing. Pigeon-shooting. They stayed at the "ultra" Normandy hotel. They went often to the Casino. He lost a lot of money at the tables. Moira gathered that his father was being unusually lenient and accommodating. "Was it because of the presence of Lady Carren?" "Later, there was a picture in 'Town and Country' of Tarry and the young Irishwoman at the fashionable Potiniere—a spot where Society always met at noon for pre-lunchon shrimps and cocktails, in Deauville. A gay likeness of Tarry, a bathrobe adorned with little parrots over his bathing-suit. Lady Carren wore elegant beach

WANT-ADS

RATES
One Time—Minimum charge of 25¢ for 20 words or less. Over 20 words, 1½¢ per word.
Two Times—Minimum charge of 40¢ for 20 words or less. Over 20 words 2¢ per word for the two times.
Three Times—Minimum charge of 50¢ for 20 words or less. Over 20 words 2½¢ per word for the three times.
Card of Thanks ..... 35¢
Obituaries and verses ..... $1.00
Open rate—display advertising 35¢ per column inch.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE — Dr. Salisbury Ro-
Caps worm powders. Tonic and conditioner. Jamesway ventilating system and equipment. Decatur Hatchery, Poultry Headquarters. 234-1f

ALWAYS — New, used washers, different makes; sweepers; heating, coal-oil, cook stoves; small payments. Decatur Hatchery dealer. James Kitchen, salesman. 245-1f

RUMMAGE SALE—Friday and Sa- urday, to be held in garage, 334 Winchester St. 265-3t

FOR SALE — Four Ford 600x16
tires, used only 100 miles. Discount for immediate sale. Joe Ray, Fogles Service Station, across from Elks, North Second St. 266-3t

FOR SALE—Radio tubes, we will call at your home and check Radio tubes free. Ulrich Bros. 263-6t

FOR SALE — Judson Teeple 40
acres east of Monroe street River bridge. 10 acres near Bush street, Decatur, Ind. 13 acres in Hanna-Nuttman addition, Decatur, Ind. 80 acres good land near Lutheran church. 295 acres, good farm land, well improved, $3,000 cash, balance financed on 20 year mortgage. 12 room residence, 3 bath rooms, slate roof, motor plumbing. 2½ blocks from business section, value $15,000, can be purchased at a bargain, 1-3 down, 1-3 in one year and 1-3 in two years. Suttles-Edwards Company. 266-3t

FOR SALE—200 white rock pul- lets, just starting to lay. Clyde Troutner, mile northwest, Pleasant Mills, state road 33. 266-3t

FOR SALE—50 head White Wyand- otte pullets. Phone 8660. M. F. Sprunger. 266-31x

FOR SALE—120 acres. Will trade for smaller farm or good saleable city property. This 120 acres is a good level farm, well improved, well tiled and located south of Decatur on Road 27. Phone 104 or 1182. 267-3t

FOR SALE — Dark barred rock
roosters, from prize winning stock. Good breeders. $1 each. Phone 861-E, Mrs. Ed Ellsworth. 267-31x

FOR SALE — All makes portable
standard typewriters, new and used. Write Julian Office Supply Company, Bluffton, Indiana. Free home demonstration. 267-31x

FOR SALE—Cylinder corn shel-
ler. Good shape, Albert Biebert, Preble phone 2 on 17. 267-31x

FOR SALE — Potatoes, Chickens,
dressed while you wait. Ross Grocery and Service, State line on 224. 268-11x

FOR SALE—O. I. C. male hog, sev- en months old. First house west of Magley Reformed church. John Hilgemann. 268-31x

WANTED

WANTED — A man to represent a reliable company in Decatur and surrounding towns. Spare or full time. No investment or selling required. Merchandise placed with stores on a consignment percentage plan. Fast Repeater. Permanent work. Big commission. Must have car. Character references. Age over 25 years. Kay Specialty Co. 2611 Indiana Ave., Chicago. 268-11x

WANTED—Small apartment, mod- ern. Grover Moser, Jr., Berne, Ind. Berne Phone 6. 267-31x

N. A. BIXLER
OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined - Glasses Fitted
HOURS
8:30 to 11:30 12:30 to 5:00
Saturdays, 8:00 p. m.
Telephone 135

FREE
WINTER
CHECK-UP
WHITE & ZESER
Auto Repair.
3rd at Monroe — Phone 344

MARKET REPORTS

DAILY REPORT OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS
Brady's Market for Decatur, Ga.
Craigville, Hoagland and Williams
Closed at 12 Noon

Corrected Nov. 11.
No commission and no packing
Veals received every day.

100 to 120 lbs. ....
120 to 140 lbs. ....
140 to 160 lbs. ....
160 to 200 lbs. ....
200 to 240 lbs. ....
240 to 270 lbs. ....
270 to 300 lbs. ....
300 to 350 lbs. ....
350 lbs. and up. ....
Stags .....
Vealers .....
Spring lambs .....
Spring buck lambs .....
Yearlings .....

WHOLESALE EGG AND
POULTRY QUOTATIONS
Furnished by
Metz's Egg & Poultry Co.,
Decatur Phone 18

Corrected Nov. 11.
Prices for first class offerings
A premium of 1¢ per doz. may be paid for all clean, out of White eggs.

White Eggs, doz. ....
Brown or mixed eggs, doz. ....
Pullet Eggs, doz. ....
Heavy Hens, per lb. ....
Leghorn hens, lb. ....
Heavy Springs, Barred or
White Rocks, 4 lbs. and up, lb. ....
Leghorn broilers, under 1 lb. ....
Heavy roosters .....
Leghorn roosters .....
Young fat geese .....
Young Turkeys mixed, .....
8 to 15 lbs. ....
White Ducks, 5½ lbs. and up, lb. ....

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET
BURK ELEVATOR CO.
Corrected Nov. 11.
Prices to be paid tomorrow

No. 1 Wheat, 60 lbs. or better, lb. ....
No. 1 Wheat, 58 lbs. ....
Oats, 50 lbs. test .....
No. 2 Yellow Corn .....
New No. 3 Yellow Corn .....
No. 2 Soy Beans .....
Rye .....

CENTRAL SOYA CO.
No. 2 Soy Beans .....

Test Your Knowledge
Can you answer seven of the ten questions? Turn to page
Four for the answers

1. What is a pantograph?
2. Name the most abundant metallic elements.
3. Name the capital of the Empire of Panama.
4. In which war did the siege of Sevastopol occur?
5. On the coast of which country is the Gulf of Guinea?
6. What was the capital state of Finland before the Russian Revolution?
7. How many sides has a pentagon?
8. What is the correct pronunciation of the word perfidy?
9. Of which river is the Ohio River a tributary?
10. Who was the first President inaugurated in the city of Washington?

NEW ANGLE IN
(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)
She said she had kept away from O'Hare for seven years, that they had planned to marry. She was hysterical and under the care of a physician. He said he would not be able to be questioned further until Monday. Kelly was checking an address from the Italian song, "O Mio Bambino," which he found in O'Hare's pocket.

An inquest into the slaying was opened yesterday but was continued until Nov. 30 when witnesses who appeared were able to give any information of importance. Funeral services were to be held for O'Hare today at St. Louis, his home city.

NO HUNTING
Marian Michaels, R. 4.

ROY S. JOHNSON
Auctioneer

Nov. 14—Marvin Donoghay, 1 mile south of Ossian on No. 1.
Nov. 15 — Vilas Young, West Salem, Wisconsin Guernsey cattle.
Nov. 16—Bud Guenly, 1 mile south, 1½ west of Monroeville.
Nov. 17—Mrs. Elizabeth Hecker, 4 miles East and ½ mile North of Geneva, 120 acre farm.
Nov. 21—Geo. Meliot, cattle sale.
Nov. 22—De Keyser & Hughes, 3 miles south of Van Wert, closing out sale.
Nov. 24—Mrs. Wm. Weinmann, 5 miles south 1 mile west of Rockford, O., closing out sale.
Nov. 25 — Dhu Varren Farms, Ann Arbor, Mich., Percheron horses.
Nov. 27—Guy Thompson, Lebanon, Ohio, Registered Hereford cattle.
Nov. 28—Fred Ross, 2 miles North and 3 miles West of Monroe, Dec. 2—Erma Linder, 5 miles west of Payne, O., closing out sale.
Trust Co. Bldg.,
Decatur, Indiana. Phone 104

MORRIS PLAN
LOANS
ON FURNITURE
LIVESTOCK
ELECTRIC STOVES
REFRIGERATORS
Special Plan
for School Teachers
NEW AUTOMOBILES
$6.00 for $100.00
per year
Repayable Monthly.
Suttles-Edwards Co.
Representatives.