

INDIANA'S LINCOLN MEMORIAL IMPRESSIVE IN SIMPLICITY

Approach to the Nancy Hanks Lincoln Grave

Around the grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln and the site of the cabin in which the Lincoln family spent fourteen years on Hoosier soil, Indiana has created a memorial, impressive in its natural simplicity and a shrine of national importance.

This memorial will be the setting for the annual pilgrimage of the Indiana Lincoln Union, commemorating the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, and during the year will be visited by thousands from all parts of the country, adjoining the memorial, with its thousand acres of wooded hills, a lake, picnic areas, trails and drives.

Located in Spencer county, near Lincoln City and accessible over improved highways from all directions, the memorial area and park have been developed by the Department of Conservation with the cooperation of the Indiana Lincoln Union and other interested individuals and groups. Much of the actual work was done by a camp of the Civilian Conservation Corps with the cooperation of the National Park Service. Other federal work agencies have assisted in the program.

tions, the memorial area and park have been developed by the Department of Conservation with the cooperation of the Indiana Lincoln Union and other interested individuals and groups. Much of the actual work was done by a camp of the Civilian Conservation Corps with the cooperation of the National Park Service. Other federal work agencies have assisted in the program.

In the development of the memorial area and the establishment of the park special care has been taken to retain and enhance the natural beauty while providing such facilities as are necessary for the visitors attracted. Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, pointed out today. The grave is marked by a simple stone and protected by a low iron fence, erected years ago when interest was aroused in its preservation.

At the site of the cabin to which and where they lived while Abraham Lincoln grew to manhood, a marker resembling the foundation logs and the fireplace has been placed by the Lincoln Union. The original hearthstones, discovered during the placing of this marker, have been preserved and add to the interest of visitors. The memorial area and the park are recognized as one of the important tributes to the "Great Emancipator" taking a place beside the birthplace in Kentucky and the tomb in Illinois. It was in this Hoosier setting that he underwent the experiences and developed the characteristics which marked his later life.

He Punished Himself

Cleveland (UP)—Robert St. Mac, of Barberton, Ohio, had seen only half the Notre Dame-Navy game when police, who said he was intoxicated, led him out of the Cleveland stadium. Said the judge: "I believe you were punished enough by not seeing the last half of the game. Costs are suspended."

Lady Luck Is Fickle

Boston (UP)—Fifteen minutes after Charles Wells won $100 at a beano party, two men robbed him of it.

TODAY'S COMMON ERROR

It is vulgar to call a restaurant or a dining room an "eating house" or "eating place."

OLD STAND-BY COOKIES

THE fancy cookies are fun—but for real enjoyment, is there anything more enjoyable than old-fashioned sugar-sprinkled molasses cookies—or the thin crispy "sugar" cookies with daintily scalloped edges and a raisin in the center of each? The raisin isn't necessary—nor are the scalloped edges. Those trimmings were put on when mother wanted to make them party cookies.

Both of these are good stand-by cookies for any and every occasion.

Soft Molasses Cookies

- 1 1/2 cups shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 6 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tsp. soda
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. allspice
- 1 tsp. ginger
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 cup dark molasses
- 1 cup cold coffee

Cream the shortening, add the sugar gradually, and cream well. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour, soda, salt, allspice, ginger and cinnamon together. Mix the coffee and molasses. Add to the creamed mixture alternately with the flour mixture. Roll dough thick, a good 1/4-inch in thickness, and cut in rounds—3 inches in diameter. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake 15 minutes in a moderately hot oven, 400° F. This makes 3 dozen cookies 3 inches in diameter.

Sugar Cookies

- 1 cup shortening
 - 1 1/2 cups sugar
 - 2 eggs
 - 3 cups all-purpose flour
 - 1 tsp. baking powder
 - 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla or lemon extract
- Cream the shortening and add the sugar gradually. Add the well beaten eggs. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to the creamed mixture alternately with the sugar. Roll out dough as thin as possible. Cut with cookie cutter, sprinkle with sugar and bake 8 to 12 minutes (depending on thickness of cookies) in a moderately hot oven, 400° F. This makes 6 dozen cookies, 2 inches in diameter.

Note: Chilling dough a few hours will make it possible to roll cookies very thin. Dough will be easier to handle with a cloth on the mixing board and a cover on the rolling pin.

NEW SUITS SMART AND PRACTICAL FOR DRIVING

American fashion designers must take into consideration that most modern women drive cars and make clothes that are practical for that activity. Left shows Brenda Marshall of the films wearing a spring frock in beige and burnt sugar. The blouse is soft beige wool, the front peg-topped skirt burnt sugar. At right, Rosemary Lane wears a suit in navy blue with pink. The collarless jacket is in pink gabardine, the skirt is navy with white pin stripes.
