REVIVALS

First Christian V
Services at the First Christian church were opened last evening with a group of songs by the choir of St. Paul church, accompanied by its pianist, Jay Martin.
Rev. Kenneth Timmons delivered an inspiring sermon and will have another important message this evening. There will be no services Saturday.
Sunday morning Rev. Timmons will conduct services and he asks that every member of the church be in his respective place. Each is urged to attend and bring a friend.
Mrs. Timmons, who guides the young people in their nightly half hour meetings preceding the 7:30 meetings, reports much interest among the young persons of the

British Trail This French Freighter Off Brazil

French merchant ship Mendoza as she departed from Buenos Aires

Loaded with a cargo of wool and meat for France, the French merchant ship Mendoza is projected into the news as it attempts to run a British blockade off South America and escape from the British cruiser Asturias, trailing it. The ship is shown departing from Buenos Aires. The Mendoza was last reported moving northward along the Brazilian coast.
