Votes Against War

Representative Jeannette Rankin (R.) from Montana was the lone member of congress to vote against declaration of war on Japan.

Miss Jeannette Rankin (R.) from Montana was the lone member of congress to vote against declaration of war on Japan. Miss Rankin thus kept her record perfect. She voted against war in 1917, when she was the lone woman member of congress.

Church of Nazarene
The revival crusade was well attended last evening by people of all denominations. We feel that this is a time when all Christians must cooperate. The Mississippi gospel four tonight will sing the beautiful colored spiritual, "Let us cheer the weary traveler." The pastor spoke on the theme, "The pay-off of the sinner." The text was recorded in the book of Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death." He said in part, "Every portion of the Bible is inspired. The Bible offers curses for its foes and blessing for its friends. Yet the Book of Wisdom has a system of justice that cannot be equaled. The gospel of Jesus Christ offers happiness and joy unspeakable to anyone that will receive. Remember sinner friend, God does not square his debt every 24 hours."
