MISS MARILYN MOSER
WEDS WILLIAM MCKEE

In an impressive single ring ceremony before a palm fringed altar, Miss Marilyn Moser, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Carey R. Moser of this city, became the bride of William Everett McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McKee of Otego, New York.

The bride's father, assisted by Rev. Norman McPherson, pastor of the church, received the vows at eight-thirty o'clock last night at the First Baptist church in Otego, where Rev. Moser was pastor previous to coming to this city.

Mrs. Lulu Brown, organist, played Lohengrin's wedding march with violin accompaniment. Mrs. Sara Reddington, also of that city, sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love

You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a crepe suit of aqua blue and a corsage of roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Eleanor McKee, was her only attendant, while William Kniskern of Oneonta, attended the groom.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents immediately following the service, at which twenty-five guests were present. The serving table was centered with the wedding cake which was baked by the bride's mother.

Guests from a distance included Rev. and Mrs. Moser of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Benjamin and family of Stanford, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sternberg and family of Worcester, N. Y.

The bride graduated from the Decatur high school in 1941 and the groom graduated from the Otego high school in '39. After a wedding trip to New York City, Mr. and Mrs. McKee will be at home in Otego January 26. The groom is employed by the Scintilla company of Sidney, New York.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE HAVE REGULAR MEETING

The Women of the Moose held their regular lodge meeting Thursday night at the lodge home with a splendid attendance reported. After routine business, the chapter voted to contribute to the Red Cross, infantile paralysis funds and to buy defense bonds.

On Thursday evening the chapter will have as its guest, associate dean Miss Marie Hiatt of Muncie, at which time a class of candidates will be initiated.

Mrs. G. R. Bierly, chairman of the homemaking committee, will sponsor a public party at the Moose home January 30 at seven-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Alma Hill received the door prize Thursday night and Mrs. Bert Haley the attendance prize.

NINETEEN MEMBERS ATTEND FEDERATION

Nineteen members of the Adams County Federation of Clubs met at the home of Mrs. George Squiers Friday afternoon with Mrs. Milo Black, president, presiding.

The election of officers was held and Mrs. George Squiers was elected chairman; Mrs. A. R. Ashbaugh, vice-chairman; Mrs. George Buckley, secretary; Mrs. Don Lutes, treasurer.

Mrs. Bert Haley, program chairman, introduced Mrs. C. W. R. Schwartz of Berne, Adams county field woman for the AAA who gave an interesting talk on nutrition and health.

Mrs. Elmer Anspaugh, president of the Decatur home economics club, gave a splendid report on the meeting held at Purdue. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

The next meeting of the federation will be the annual Silver tea and Fine Arts festival at the Masonic hall Tuesday, February 20.

ATTENTION RED CROSS WORKERS

The Red Cross production center will be closed Monday afternoon so the ladies may attend the Decatur Daily Democrat's cooking school. The Center will be open Friday as usual and again on Mondays, according to announcement made by the production chairman, Mrs. William Bowers.

The Union Township Home Economics club will meet Wednesday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hugh Nidlinger. The ladies who recently went to Purdue will give a report on the trip, during the meeting.

The St. Vincent De Paul society will meet at the K. of C. hall Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. All members are asked to be present as election of new officers will be held and reports for the past year given. Attention is called to the fact that the day of meeting has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday because of the cooking school.

BOB SHRALUKA, JR. HAS FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Robert William Shraluka, Jr. celebrated his first birthday anniversary Thursday afternoon by entertaining some of his little friends and their mothers at a birthday party at his home on Monroe street. Refreshments of ice cream and the traditional birthday cake were enjoyed.

Present were Mrs. Joe Elzey and daughter Carol, Mrs. Florian Keller and daughter Ann, Mrs. Richard Macklin and son Jack, Mrs. Jerome Myers and daughter Jeronda, Mrs. Don Stump, the guest of honor, his mother, Mrs. R. W. Shraluka, and his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Elzey.
