Dewey Challenged By Senator Truman

Asks Repudiation Of Isolationists

With Truman enroute to Chicago, Oct. 24.—(UP)—Sen. Harry S. Truman, Democratic nominee for vice president, today invaded Wisconsin, the home state of one of the eight isolationist Republican senators he asked Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to repudiate.

The candidate challenged Dewey to repudiate the eight senators in an address at Minneapolis yesterday and renewed his demand in a statement issued last night before he departed for Chicago. His associates said he would "tell off" the days awaiting an answer from Dewey and unless he receives a response, launch a new attack on the Republican record on foreign policy in a speech at Worcester, Mass., next Saturday night.

Truman left Minneapolis late last night, moving into Wisconsin where Republican Sen. Alexander Wiley, one of the eight "isolationists" he listed yesterday, is seeking reelection in a contest with Rep. Howard McMurray, a staunch administration supporter.

In his statement last night, Truman said foreign policy was "universally recognized to be the most important issue in this election."

"Mr. Dewey says that he is in favor of a strong foreign policy," Truman said. "I called upon him in Minneapolis to tell us whether that was a statement of his sincere convictions or mere campaign oratory as it was with Harding when he made a similar statement in 1920."

"If Mr. Dewey meant it, he would ask for the election of a senate that would support a strong foreign policy and the defeat of the eight isolationists who were nominated by the Republicans."

Truman said Dewey should answer the question in Minneapolis today and in any event should "give his answer to the American people promptly."

Truman planned stops today at Madison and Milwaukee, Wis., and a short talk from the platform of his private car at Oconomowoc. He arrives at Chicago late tonight and will remain there tomorrow.
