Sound Film Will Be Shown At Lutheran Church Wednesday

"Reaching From Heaven," a full-length sound film with a Christian theme will be shown Wednesday evening, April 7, in the church nave of Zion Lutheran church, West Monroe and Eleventh Streets. The showing begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

"Reaching From Heaven" is a Hollywood production with Hollywood characters, supervised, directed, and distributed by the visual-education department of the Lutheran church, Missouri synod. It is a stimulating, Christ-centered, motion picture which carries a vital message for all. It is packed with drama, humor, romance, pathos. It is Christian, dramatic, exciting. In the most profitable hour and a half anyone could spend, there may be seen... how a young man unhesitatingly speaks of his faith in the presence of friend and foe alike... how a foreman of a construction crew speaks to his men about God... how a hard, cold, business man scoffs at the Golden Rule, only to regret it when his daughter runs away... how a congregation, by one incident, is shocked into an evangelistic program.

"Reaching From Heaven" carries a great lesson: God uses ordinary people to accomplish His purpose in the lives of others.

The public is invited to enjoy the showing of this film with the members of Zion Lutheran church. No admission will be charged. A silver offering will be taken to help defray costs of producing the film.
