His Message to Exiles

Lesson for April 11, 1948

CONTINUING the theme of last Sunday's lesson, we go further into the ministry of Ezekiel as God's messenger to a people in exile. For this Sunday we have chapters 13 and 34, and portions of the 36th and 37th chapters.

Dr. Newton

The 18th chapter opens with a revealing rebuke to Ezekiel. God tells him expressly that he is not to say any more to the Jews that "the fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge. As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. Behold, all souls are mine." And then God adds, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die."

GOD'S LOVE AND CARE

ALL through these chapters in Sunday's lesson, two solemn truths appear—God's love for his people, manifest in unwearied care; and the responsibility of each soul for the sin which such commitments against God.

This truth, or these truths, I should say, are equally applicable for us today. As Ezekiel was sent to remind the people of God's love and care, so must we, early in our youth, accept the responsibility of accepting his love or rejecting his love.

We cannot claim his care if we despise his will. That is the message of Ezekiel for us.

WHAT GOD IS LIKE

NOWHERE in the Old Testament is the love of God more manifest and compelling than in Ezekiel 34:11-27. I hope that you will open your Bible to this passage. Here the Bible speaks in words that burn with the compassionate love of God for sinful souls.

"I will both search my sheep, and seek them out. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. . . . And I will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers."

One is reminded here of Jesus, when he said, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

A NEW HEART

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you," Ezekiel 36:26.

Here we have, perhaps, the sublimest sentence in the prophecy of Ezekiel. God is speaking. Ezekiel is merely the messenger—the voice, as John the Baptist delighted to describe himself.

Ezekiel has faithfully declared that each individual is responsible unto God, and just as faithfully he has proclaimed God's love and care, and now he adds the third great truth, namely, that God waits to bestow the new heart and the new spirit to every repentant soul.

A new heart and a new spirit. That is what the Jews needed. That is what the world needs today—a new heart and a new spirit. Only God could give a new heart then, and only God can make such gift today.

EZEKIEL'S MESSAGE FOR US

WOULD we listen to Ezekiel today? He has the message we need above all other words that may be spoken. He called the Jews to repentance of sin. That is what America needs today. Boys and girls need it. Men and women need it. And just as God waited patiently to bestow the new heart and spirit to Israel in the long ago, so does he wait to grant us today a new heart and a new spirit.

"Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home."

There's No Substitute

"I thoroughly believe in a university education for both men and women, but I believe that a knowledge of the Bible without a college course is more valuable than a college course without the Bible. Every one who has a thorough knowledge of the Bible may be truly called educated, and no other learning, or culture—no matter how extensive and elegant—can be a proper substitute."

Using subsidized European Russians, "repatriated" White Russians, convicts and Jap prisoners of war, the Soviet is building and manning factories, farms, shipyards and steel mills in the vast area, which 50 years ago held

Lions, Rotarians Entertain Ladies

Members of the Lions and Rotary clubs, their wives and sweethearts, were entertained by the Wade quartet, following dinner at the K. of P. home last evening. The musicians presented a half hour's program in the lodge room, featuring Eddie Wade, accordionist, Buddy Wade, marimba soloist, Ruth Wade, pianist, and Georgia Ann Wade, tap dancer.

Club announcements were made by the Rev. William Feller and Noah Steaury, presidents of their respective clubs. Lowell Harper acted as master of ceremonies. The quartet appeared before the Decatur high school students Thursday afternoon, with principal W. Guy Brown presiding.

personality play but no less energetic in seeking votes. He had five or six appearances scheduled during the day and will appear tonight at a big rally in Omaha.

The New York governor said he expected the Nebraska primary to play a "real part" in the selection of the GOP's candidate this year. But, he said, he would pay no more attention to the results than he did to those in the Wisconsin primary Tuesday where he failed to win a single candidate.

Stassen and Dewey spoke last night on the same subject in the same city at about the same time. They even stayed at the same hotel. But not a word passed between them.

Both discussed foreign affairs, said the Democratic administration was weak on foreign matters, and offered their own theories. Dewey proposed a United States of western Europe to block Communism. Stassen approved the Marshall plan but condemned shipments of war materials to Russia.

The Nebraska GOP primary selects delegates to the national convention, but they are not pledged to any candidate. It amounts to a popularity contest between seven candidates. Dewey, Stassen, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, house speaker Joe Martin of Massachusetts and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Only the first four have campaigned actively or had campaigns waged in their behalf.

Excitement was building up today in Ohio where Stassen has stepped on Taft's toes by challenging the senator in his home state's primary to be held May 4.

Stassen's supporters there claimed that they would take about 15 of the state's 53 delegates. Stassen plunked his gauntlet down to contest for 23 Ohio delegates, hoping originally to win 11 of them. Today his followers said that a heavy registration had assured him at least 15.

Stassen is scheduled to make last-minute appearances in Ohio, just as he did in Wisconsin and Nebraska.
