

Martha H. Anderson Dies Last Evening

Funeral Services Saturday Afternoon

Miss Martha Helena Anderson, 44, an invalid practically her entire life, died at 9:15 p.m. Thursday at the home of her father, William M. Anderson, in Hartford township.

She was born in Adams county Dec. 13, 1903.

Surviving in addition to her father are six brothers, Elmer, Harold, Dale and Clifford Anderson, all of Fort Wayne, Edward of Bloomington and Samuel, at home; and four sisters, Mrs. Myra Borror of Bluffton, Mrs. Ernest Runyon of Bryant, Elizabeth and Helen, at home.

Private funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the home, with burial in the Alberson cemetery. The body will be removed from the Yager funeral home to the residence at 7 o'clock this evening.

Lecture Series At Purdue U. Center

Four popular lecture series will begin at the Purdue University Center, Fort Wayne, next Tuesday, opening the fall adult education program. Photography, home decorating and furnishing, essentials of slide rule operations, and a political and cultural survey of Russia will be the opening topics.

With the exception of the lectures on Russia, all sessions will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday evenings for five and six weeks. An afternoon lecture, at 2:30 p.m., on Thursdays will be the schedule of the six sessions on Russia.

TRUMAN BLASTS

Marshall. Both he and Dewey will set out for the midwest on Sunday. Elsewhere along the political front:

States' righters — Bidding for Virginia's 11 electoral votes, J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina assailed both President Truman and Dewey for supporting the fair employment practices proposal.

Progressives — Progressive party candidate Henry A. Wallace told a San Francisco audience that the Truman administration's foreign policy is "a gigantic red herring" intended to divert attention from the revival of a war economy at home.

Forecast — All 50 of the political writers polled by Newsweek Magazine predicted that Gov. Dewey would win the White House, and that the Republicans would retain control of both house and senate.

V-P candidates — In Chicago, GOP vice presidential nominee Earl Warren hit at "secret deals" through which, he said, the Democratic administration has made its foreign policy commitments. Sen. Alben W. Barkley, Democratic vice presidential choice, said in Casper, Wyo., that the Republican policy for the west is characterized by "inaction" and "exploitation."

Crump — Democratic leader E. H. Crump of Tennessee came out for the states' rights slate of Thurmond-Wright.

NINE MEN

Robins, on temporary assignment from Egin Field, Fla., and Sgts. M. T. Walker, D. T. Irvin and J. O. York, all of Warner-Robins.

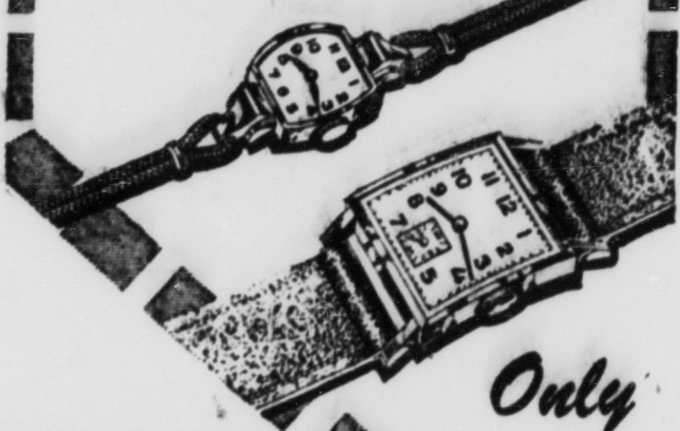

The plane was believed making an experimental flight possibly involving cosmic ray research. The air force would say only that the bomber was engaged in "electronic research on different types of radar."

Col. H. A. Moody, maintenance director at Warner-Robins, flew here immediately with two other investigators officers to prepare a report on the crash.
