Mine Owners Blamed For Kentucky Blast

Washington, Nov. 22 — (UP) — The U. S. bureau of mines blames failure of mine owners to correct "dangerous" working conditions for the 1945 mine explosion at Four-mile, Ky. The blast killed 25 miners. The report said the Straight Creek Mining Co. had been warned in August, 1945, of poor ventilation that permitted explosive methane gas to collect. On Dec. 26, it said, the gas was ignited by a spark from a type of fan on the bureau's "unsafe" list.

County Assessor At Statewide Meeting

Albert Harlow, Adams county assessor, is attending a statewide meeting in Indianapolis today and Tuesday. Central topic of the conference will be instructions in the reassessment of real estate values, which will go into effect next year. Illinois has 3,400,000 acres of timber land.

Indiana Retailers Meet At Fort Wayne

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 22 — (UP) — Gasoline retailers of Indiana held their first organizational meeting here yesterday and elected W. H. Gouty, Fort Wayne, president of the new group. F. W. Willis, Gary, was elected vice president; Willard Phillips, Columbia City, treasurer; and Ralph Markey, Fort Wayne, secretary.

About 50 delegates attended from throughout the state. The Fort Wayne gasoline retailers association was host to the meeting.

The group announced plans for a drive to equalize present refunds on gasoline tax collected by retailers with the three percent refund now permitted to suppliers for spillage and loss. The next meeting was set for the second week in December in South Bend.

Board members named yesterday were Lou Fodor, South Bend; Harve Riesen, Berne; C. H. Hutson, Hartford City; J. H. McCulloch, Bloomington; Otto Shuman, Waterloo; R. W. Bone, Indianapolis; and J. A. Cain, Indianapolis.

son Herman will receive Thanksgiving greeting and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grote, Decatur route 3, whose son Leslie E. Ohmit, will be contacted.

A really thankful heart will extract motive for gratitude from everything.

Make Thanksgiving Broadcasts To Sons

Parents of two Decatur young men, serving in the armed forces, have made Thanksgiving greetings broadcasts recently which will be rebroadcast to their sons Thursday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock on radio state WANE, Fort Wayne.

Parents of about 40 service men were invited to make the broadcast by the Fort Wayne station. The Decatur parents who took part were Dr. and Mrs. Roy Andress, whose
