W. Guy Brown got an "emergency" telephone call from a baby sitter. She wanted a lady called to the phone because she'd be darned if she could remember the baby's formula!

—O—O—

Len Davis, who did Saturday's play-by-play, must have been shocked when he pointed the WANE microphone at the public address system loudspeaker and heard the announcement that the regional tourney was to be aired over WGL. After it had gone out over the wavelengths he figured apologies or comment would only make things more awkward. Besides, he's regularly employed by WGL.

—O—O—

It was bad enough when people started calling the Daily Democrat Saturday morning asking for results of the final game... but a couple dozen waited till this morning to find out. How slow the news can travel!

—O—O—

Speaking of bouncing, Kirkland yell leader Billy Lehman did a neat imitation of a jumping-jack in one of the more unique cheers.

—O—O—

One of the Decatur players, interviewed over WANE right after the game and during the frenzied celebration, opined the Yellow Jackets would take the regional. The bookies haven't yet released regional odds, but the consensus seems to be the Jackets CAN come through this week... IF.

—O—O—

First casualty of the victory celebration was the blonde hair of a little girl, which caught fire when she got too close to a bonfire. Well, the short cut will be getting popular soon, anyway.

Mr. Grant stated that for the present time, he would continue to reside in Decatur and commute to Fort Wayne. Mrs. Grant will operate the Rosemary store.

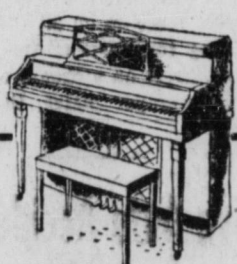

With the acquisition of the Fort Wayne branch, the Decatur concern will become one of the largest general insurance dealers in northern Indiana. The Leland Smith concern will be exclusive representative for State Auto insurance in Adams and Allen counties.

CARD OF THANKS

With deep appreciation we wish to thank the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Laura E. Crill for their kind sympathy and beautiful floral tributes. We are very grateful for the spiritual comfort extended by Mr. Gerald Jones and for the assistance rendered by the Mary and Martha Class of the First Methodist church.

We wish to take this opportunity to particularly express our thanks to those ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star and to the Masonic lodge for their help and cooperation.

For the courteous and unusually understanding services of the Black mortuary and to all who helped in any way we are grateful.
Ralph and Lucretia Crill.

Small Tacks And Nails Posing New Highway Problem

The Adams county highway department was confronted today with a new problem. Several residents east of Berne in Jefferson township have covered their lanes with cinders, purchased from a furniture manufacturing concern in Berne.

The cinders contain many small tacks and nails. When the farmers who have placed the cinders on their lanes drive out onto the county road with their buggies, many of the tacks stick to the buggy wheels and are scattered along the highway.

Investigators say there are hundreds of the tacks on the county road and several farmers have complained of numerous flat tires. Phil Sauer, highway superintendent, and sheriff Herman Bowman have investigated and confirmed the story.

Mr. Sauer had a small glass container with over 100 tacks and nails picked up in a few seconds from the road. Steps are being taken to cure the problem. Mr. Sauer stated that it would be necessary to completely cover the road with new stone.

Donkey Basketball At Pleasant Mills

With the emphasis on laughs instead of scoring, the Pleasant Mills gym will offer some post-tourney relaxation Thursday evening when the P. T. A. stages a donkey basketball game.

Men, women and youngsters will try to play a semblance of the sport atop animals of the Miller donkey basketball troupe. Slated to begin at 7:30 p. m., the proceeds of the games will go toward a playground at Pleasant Mills.

One Robber Caught, Accomplice Sought

Lawrenceville, Ill., Feb. 23 — (UP)—An anonymous phone call led to the capture of one of two Indiana robbers who broke into the Moose lodge here early today.

Authorities investigated the possibility that the pair might have been implicated in a number of similar robberies in central and southern Illinois recently.

Lawrenceville city police said they captured William S. Hirt, 35, who gave his address as Grand Hotel, Anderson, Ind. Police said he named George Stone, 30, Indiana police as his partner.

since their barge ran around. At Port Townsend, Wash., tugs were attempting to free a 7,680-ton ship that ran aground on Marrowstone Island during a fog. The combined passenger-freighter Washington Mail carried 47 crew members and half-dozen passengers. A coast guard patrol boat that went to her aid was crippled when it struck a submerged log.

TRUMAN ORDERS

berg, R. Mich., chief GOP foreign policy spokesman, says the U. S. draft of the north Atlantic security pact is both "satisfactory and adequate." His endorsement apparently assures secretary of state Dean G. Acheson of support of both Republican and Democratic foreign policy leaders in his treaty negotiating. Chairman Tom Connally, D. Tex., of the senate foreign relations committee, earlier gave similar endorsement to the treaty draft.

Reorganization—Chairman John L. McClelland of the senate executive expenditures committee says he will try to write a three-year limit into a bill to grant President Truman broad powers to reorganize the federal government. His statement came as the committee prepared to begin closed door consideration of a house-approved measure that would give the President permanent authority to reshuffle the government, subject to veto by both houses within 60 days. The bill would pave the way for a giant Hoover commission program to reorganize the government.

Oleo — The house agriculture committee opens hearings tomorrow on repeal of oleomargarine taxes. The oleo bloc is confident congress will erase the levies. Last year a bill wiping out oleo taxes was passed by the house after a bitter struggle, but the measure died in the senate during the last-minute scramble for adjournment.
