CLEORA WHITE IS WED SATURDAY

Miss Cleora White, daughter of Mrs. Nellie White, of 122 South Ninth street, and Lloyd J. Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daniels, of 1000, were wed in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at two thirty o'clock in the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church. The Rev. John E. Chambers read the impressive rite before the candlelit altar, arranged with palms and spring flowers.

Harold Mumma, organist, and Mrs. E. E. Roberts, vocalist, sister of the bride, gave a recital of bridal songs preceding the ceremony. Included among the selections were "The Church's One Foundation," "Kamennoi Osobu," "Rubenstein; My Heart at Thy Feet," "Voice, Saint Saens; I Love You Truly and Oh Promise Me," "Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches were used, and When With Joy Thy Hearts Are Flowing was softly played as the couple recited their vows.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Harold Myers of Anderson, wore an olive green suit, complemented with toast brown accessories. Her only jewelry was a necklace, belonging to her mother, and she wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. Corwin Flemming was the bride's only attendant. She wore a brown dressmaker suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. She completed her outfit with a necklace, a gift of the bride.

Frank Conn served the groom as best man, and Paul Daniels and Jack Daniels ushered.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding black velvet with matching accessories, while the groom's mother wore navy blue with rose accessories. Their corsages were of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement where the guests were served by Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Mrs. Paul Leistner, sister of the bride. Mrs. James Myers, of Williams, O., and Mrs. Harold Myers, Anderson, presided at the beautifully appointed serving tables, centered with a huge three-tier wedding cake, encircled by acacia.

After March 24, the couple will be at home in their newly furnished apartment, 128 1/2 North Third street.

Out-of-town guests attending were the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Carbon; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leistner and daughter, Rockford, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Myers and daughter, Anderson; Mr. and Mrs.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS CLASS IN MEETING

The Loyal Daughters class of the Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ora Newhard, with Mrs. Clarence Weber as the assisting hostess.

The meeting was opened with the president, Mrs. Will Dellinger reading the devotionals from the eleventh chapter of Hebrew, and prayer, offered by Mrs. Ada Martin. During the business meeting, the group voted to purchase candles for the church, and to also have a rummage sale Saturday morning, March 26, from eight thirty to twelve o'clock in the church basement. The meeting was then closed with prayer.

A silent auction was later conducted and games were played. The hostesses served lovely refreshments at the close of the meeting.

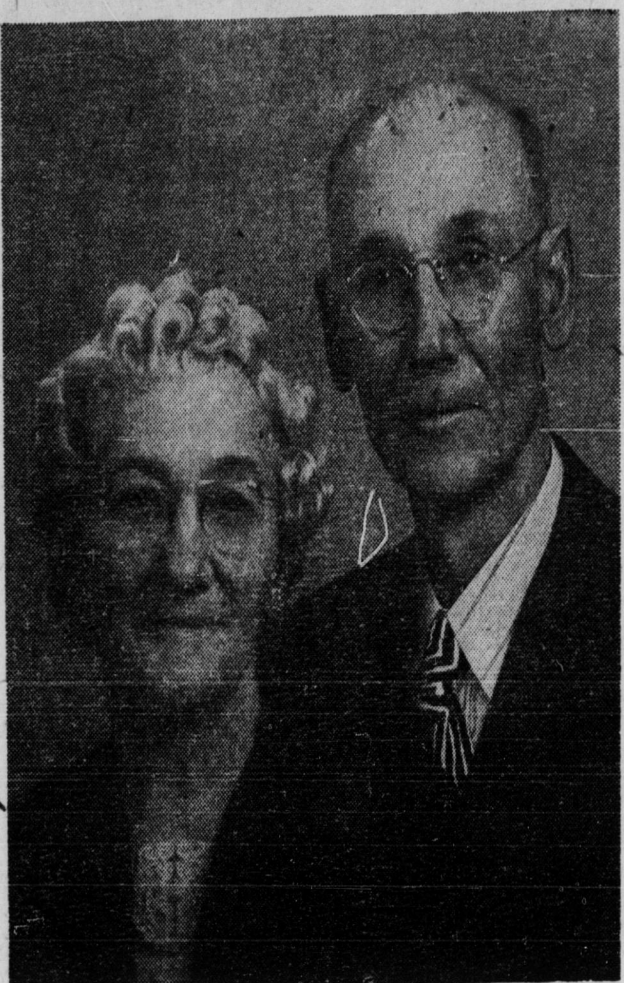

MEETING OF DO YOUR BEST CLASS IS HELD

The Do Your Best class of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church held its meeting Thursday evening at the church, with Mrs. Viola Scheiderer as devotion-al leader.

One hundred and sixty two cards and fifty five calls were reported for the month. The business meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Charles Robenold and Mrs. George Hill were in charge of the program.

The hostesses, Mrs. Emma Butler, Mrs. Frank Kitson, Mrs. Kenneth Reed and Mrs. Dell Lake, served a delicious luncheon in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Mrs. Floyd Death gave the devotionals.
