Girl Missing Four Days Back In School

Chicago, March 31 — (UP) — Anne Bernhard, pretty 20-year-old daughter of editor Andrew Bernhard of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, said today she never knew that a four-state search had been underway for her.

The auburn-haired girl, reported missing since last Friday, turned up at her University of Chicago dormitory late last night. She said she had stayed with Chicago friends instead of going to the campus after returning from a vacation visit with her aunt, Mrs. Floyd Piffner, Chillicothe, O.

University officials reported her missing after Mrs. Piffner told them she had left Chillicothe for Chicago last Friday. They said that Miss Bernhard, a graduate English student, was not required to be in her dormitory room at curfew time.

and teachers are urged to be present and will be the honored guests. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Neuen of Berne will provide the special music. Dr. Gilliatt's sermon theme will be "Called into Fellowship."

At 5:30 Saturday evening, all the young people of the Sunday school and church are invited to a luncheon in the church dining hall. There will be a special youth program and brief message by Dr. Gilliatt. At the 7 o'clock service, Miss Kathleen Harris will play a violin solo, which will be in keeping with youth night. Dr. Gilliatt's sermon is entitled "Honoring God as God."

A special feature of both Sunday services will be the appearance of the "Winner" male quartet of Berne. This quartet, of which L. A. Neuen is a member, will sing two numbers at the morning worship service at 10:30 — "This is the Lord's Own Day" and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." Dr. Gilliatt's sermon theme will be "God is Faithful — Therefore."

At the evening service, the quartet will sing "Sun of My Soul" and "Now the Day is Over." Dr. Gilliatt's theme will be "Our Hope."

These services are designed to awaken and increase faith in the church and Christ. The pastor, the Rev. John E. Chambers, cordially invites the public to attend these services.
