Czech Communists Lash At Spellman

Outspoken Assault Made On Cardinal

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 2. — (UP) — The Czechoslovakian communist party charged today that Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York was on the "general staff of the American organization whose task it is to organize espionage and sabotage" in communist countries.

The attack, most outspoken thus far against any American churchman, was made in a lengthy editorial in the communist party newspaper Rude Pravo. It was written by Andre Simon, foreign editor of the newspaper.

Simon said that Spellman "is, after the Pope, the most powerful man in the world Catholic hierarchy."

"He is a great worshipper of the Spanish fascist dictator (Generalissimo Franco) and wrote several articles in praise of him," Simon added. "He is an arch-enemy of everything that has the least connection with progress."

"The organization is one of the centers that are sending into the world a steady current of lies and slanders about the Soviet Union and the peoples democratic countries," the editorial said.

"In close cooperation with the vatican espionage service, which is directed by the general of the Jesuit order, Jensen, under the auspices of vatican state secretary Montini, the organization is trying to bring confusion in the peoples democratic countries."

Simon said the American organization, headed by Spellman, "spares neither dollars nor people."

"Only because of the constant and steady guard by the governments and the people of the peoples democratic countries were their efforts frustrated," the editorial added.

Simon said that "from Washington information" it was obvious the American organization had long talks on the cold war, especially last February when U. S.-Russian negotiations on lifting the Berlin blockade were opened. He added:

"The vatican, through Cardinal Spellman, advised the intensification of the fight of the church hierarchy in the peoples democracies, the use of the case of Cardinal Mindszenty (sentenced to life imprisonment by the communist government of Hungary) for a great campaign and the arousing of a conflict between the church hierarchy and the government in Czechoslovakia so the organization could at the proper moment substitute the news of 'Mindszenty's martyrdom' with 'Beran's (Czechoslovakian archbishop who has been battling the government) martyrdom.'"

Pleads Guilty To Disorderly Conduct

Lawrence H. Morgan, 65, of Monroe, was arrested Monday night by the sheriff's office and arraigned this morning in justice of the peace court on charges of disorderly conduct filed by Morgan's son, Lawrence D. Morgan, also of Monroe. The charges were filed after the son returned home last night to find his mother cut about the face and exhausted. The sheriff, who, along with the son testified as a witness against the elder Morgan in court, said that when he arrived Mrs. Morgan looked as though she had been "knocked out," and was too weak to talk.

Morgan pleaded guilty to the charges of disorderly conduct but denied striking his wife. He was fined $15 and costs by the court with the admonition that his case would be certified to circuit court for further action, should the need arise. Bond was set by the court at $50 when Morgan was unable to pay his fine. He is to remain in the custody of the sheriff until bond has been raised.
